G. P. PUTNAM & CO.

Will publish Thursday, September 25, Burton's Pligrimage to Mecca and the tomb of the Prophet, with introduction by Bayard Taylor. 1 vol. 12mo, with illustrations $1.50.

The Listory of this curious boy is as follows:
Burton, an officer in the East India Company, having by a long residence in Upper India, acquired a perfect knowledge of the Oriental languages and customs, projected a visit under the auspices of the Royal Geographical Society, to the holy city of Mecca and the tomb of the Prophet at Medins, places rarely if ever before visted by any Englishman. This he successfully accomplished in 1833-4, disquised as a Mohammedan Dervish. The history of the prigrimage is not surpassed in interest and originality by any book or tayle ever published—embracing his residence at Cairo as a Mohammedan Student; the journey across the desent with the great annual caravan of Pilgrims; the visit to the tomb of Mol'ammed; the discovery that the Sacred black stone is
