

A skirt has been made for a lady in Philadelphia which contains 34 yards.
A young girl in Jackson, Miss., recently gave birth to a boy with a black complexion and white hair.

Ladies' dresses to let, for one ball, are now a regular matter of trade in Paris. Sixty (some twelve dollars) a night, if the dress is returned without a spot.

As an instance of the extravagance of the times, it is stated that $6 500 was paid one day last week to a Broadway jeweler, for a single diamond. It was the central stone of a necklace valued at $13,000.

"I suppose," said a quack, while feeling the pulse of a patient, that you think me a humbug?" "Sir," replied the sick man, "I perceive you can discover a man's thoughts by his pulse."

John Phoenix says, upon the whole, General George Washington was a very excellent man; though unfamiliar with "Scott's Infatmy Tactics," he was a tolerable officer; though he married a widow, he was a fine husband; and though he did not know the Beecher family, he was a sincere and practical Christian.

In a tavern in a small town, an old farmer, who was plagued and bantered by over a dozen guests who were present— "Well," said the farmer at last, "I've got the best of all you." "How so?" asked all— "I've you've only got one fool, while in you've got over a dozen."

Holloway's Pills.—In all cases of weak stomach, which are usually attended with want of appetite, nausea, griping, disturbed sleep, and a general prostration of the bodily powers, these Pills will be found a swift and certain remedy. Among the most common indications of a diseased stomach, are a sense of fullness after eating, a dry, yellow tongue, flatulence in the abdomen, a repulsive taste in the mouth, heaviness in all the limbs, giddiness, pain in the eyes, want of energy, aversion to mental exercise, and irregularity of the bowels. These symptoms disappear after a few doses of the pills have been administered; the stomach, liver, and bowels, resume the regular and vigorous performance of their functions; the patient's strength returns, and in a short time the cure is complete.

Can afford to be without Mustang Linctant in their house. The many accidents which are liable to, may render it necessary any moment, and nothing is capable of performing such a certain cure. (Extract.) "A lifting the kettle from the fire it caught and scalded my hands and person severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. It was an awful sight." * * * The Mustang Linctant seemed to extract the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly and left no scar of account. C. Foster, Broad Street, Philadelphia. "It cured my child of Swelling, Burns, Stiff Joints, Eruptions or Rheumatism. For Horset it should never be dispensed with. One Dollar's worth of Mustang has frequently saved a valuable horse. It cures Galls, Sprains, Ringbone, Spavin and Founders. Beware of imitations. Sold in all parts of the habitable Globe."

LOTTERIES.

THE well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which E. FRANCE & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing.

Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that State. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the conclusion of the drawing. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $2. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and a very combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

BARLEY WITHOUT BEARDS!!

IT is even so. A variety of barley has been discovered in the gulches of the Holyoke Mountains, entirely free from those annoying and poisonous beards, attached to all our common varieties.

The undersigned obtained 7 grains of this new variety three years ago, and being much pleased with its general appearance and productiveness, has spared no means to multiply this small quantity as fast as the Shagbark hickory nuts will allow.

Its merits for grinding and malting have not been tested, and the quantity is now too small to squander in that way, when every effort of the soil who sees it, is anxious to have a few grains, not doubting it will prove a valuable acquisition. I have sufficient however, to furnish all persons interested who will send the price, to 60 grains, one head each, containing 20 to 60 grains. Send me your address, on a stamped envelope and I will enclose a head by return mail, with printed instructions for cultivating in a way to insure a large return from a small quantity of seed. Should this new variety be found to answer all the purposes of the common barley, a few years will suffice to drive the "Barley Beards" from the country.

Should any person desire more than the one head, I will send a package of 700 to 800 grains securely enveloped, by mail post paid for 25 cts., accompanied with a few heads to prove the fact of its being beardless.

A New Book for Agents.

THE life and times of Alexander Hamilton; by Samuel M. Smucker, A. M., author of the "Life and Reign of Nicholas I. of Russia, &c. &c."

This is the only complete and reliable biography of this great man. He was the intimate personal friend of Washington, and by many considered his equal.
This work includes a history of the times and men of the Revolution, and many incidents not heretofore given in history. It has all the charms of romance, although prepared from the most reliable and authentic sources, and should be in the hands of every American who reveres the great and good men of our Revolution. A sketch of Burr is also given, and an account of his miserable end.

Agents wanted in every part of the United States, for this and other valuable works, to whom the largest commissions will be paid. Copies sent by mail, on receipt of the price, $1 00.
