Hloomburg, Wednesday, March 23, 1857.

Democratic Nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM F. PACKER, of Lycoming County. FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, ELLIS LEWIS, of Philadelphia.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, NIMROD STRICKLAND, of Chester County.

TAXATION AND REPRESENTATION.

In the origin of this government, the wise men of the revolution gained great strength to their cause by the manifest justice of their claim that representation ought to be concurrent with taxation.

In Pennsylvania we have degenerated from the doctrine of 1776, and our representation and taxation are not upon the same basis. The constitution of 1837 & '38 provides that representatives shall be apportioned according to the number of taxable inhabitants in each district.

The bill to repeal the act of 1850 which gave the number of supervisors in Catawissa township has passed both branches of the Legislature.

SELECT SCHOOL.

On last Friday evening we took the pleasure of enjoying the evening exhibition of Mr. Eaton's select school in this place.

The Next Congress.

We frequently hear persons speak of the Democratic majority in the next National House of Representatives.

The London Quarterly Review of January has been received from Messrs. Leonard Scott & Co., 79 Falmouth street, New York.

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine for February is at hand, abounding in varied and excellent articles upon the following subjects: The War in Asia; Scenes of Clerical Life.

We are glad to learn that Hon. John G. Montgomery is recovering from the epidemic caught by him at the National Hotel in Washington City.

a very different ratio from the numerical power which controls the schools. True, property is one of the things to be protected and improved by public education, and therefore it ought to bear its corresponding burden of the cost.

MORE BANKS.

Last winter the class of men who were hanging on the verge of bankruptcy and unable to pay one half their honest debts complained loudly because the Legislature chartered only one new bank.

In the House last week Mr. Ent read in place a bill relating to the widening of a street in Hloomburg.
