The War in China.

It appears by the intelligence from Europe that the war in China, which Admiral Seymour and the representative of the British Government to China have undertaken on their own account, does not receive the sanction of the British people. In the House of Commons, Mr. Cobden's motion condemning of Canton spread until the whole city became the war was carried against the ministry by a majority of 16. This is a tebuke which the ministry will have to respect, and the orders will probably be that Admiral Seymour must Sin : The following incident may be interstop his pastime of bombarding and burning cities down, because the government of China refuses to allow its sovereignty and its reached Washington by the late train from laws to be treated with disrespect by foreigners. The "lorcha" was only the protext for March 22. Being unexpectedly called home breaking down restrictions which have existed in China for a long period, and which, family, he took the cars for home on Wedwhether wise or not, the Government of China has just as undoubted a right to continue. as the British Government has its custom's duties, or the United States its protective tar. himself and wife; his accommodations a ifl, both of which are discriminations against chamber and parlor. Being an abstemious and restrictions upon the commerce and trade of other countries. Sovereignty is indispensable to national existence, and every sovereign nation is the best judge of what is necessary to its own protection and its own prosperity. The British people begin to entestain the same notion, and do not seem disposed to believe in the virtues of gunpowder as a civilizer or promoter of Christianity, nor are they willing to be involved in continual and expensive warfare with other nations, at the mere discretion of a commander of a Ba ish fleet.

This unnecessary and unauthorized war against the Chinese, in which by some fatal error our functionaries have suffered them. selves to be involved, has roused the spirit of hatred of the nation against all the foreign residents, and they have been obliged to arm themselves against assassination, so infuriated have the people become. This feeling has extended even into the Malay settlements, cago lately got out of coal, and not being as far as Singapore, belonging to the British, in the Southeastern extremity of Asia, and must necessarily affect the interests of British commerce and trade in that part of the world. plied the place of coal admirably, using cob It is much easier to set mischief in operation and all. HOLLOWAT'S PILLS. The Exciting Cause of Sickness, The EXCILING CAUSE of Sickness. The blood is the life sustaining agent. It furnishes the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and integument. The stomach is its manufactory, the veins its distributore, and the intestines the channel through which the waste matter rejected in its productions is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circula-tion and the bowels, these Pills act simulta-neously, relieving indigesion, purifying the links, and regulating the excretions.

fluids, and regulating the excretions. THEN NATIONAL COMPLAINT. Dyspepsia is the most common disease among all classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of innumerable dangerous maladies; but whatever its type or symptoms, however ob stinate its resistance to ordinary preparations, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unering remedy.

BILIOUS AFFECTIONS.

The quantity and quality of the bile are of vital importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes this fluid, these Pills operate specifically, infallibly recitiging its irregularities, and effectually curing Jann-dice, Billows Remittants, and all the variatias of disease generated by an unnatural condi-tion of the organ. EGOW 2.1. COMPLAINTS.

BOWSL COMPLANTS. Unless the bowels perform their functions properly, the whole body suffers. Tens of thousands die annually of Dysentery, Diar-thoua, Chronic consumption, and other dis-cases of these waste pipes of the system...-The effect of the Pills upon all intestinal dis-orders, whether casual or epidemic, is a phenomenon in medicine. By following the printed directions, the most alarming cases of bowle complaint are promuly convolled.

A "Grand Crash."

A Scotch clergyman, Dr. Commings, has predicted the probable "smash" of the world In Jone next, and, as usual with such predictions, among the ignorant there is a great deal of excitement about the subject in England and France. The event is to be pro duced by a comet, an erratic member of the planetary world, the real nature and substance of which are so little known, that it is the height of presumption to base any prediction upon it, involving such consequences to mankind. It is a favorite trick, however, of zealots, who try to arouse the fears rathe than the reason of their hearers, to predict the destruction of the world. Yet, as it is a part of the great Creation, mutually depend ent, and subjected to the same laws, nothing yet created has ever been annihilated, as far as we know, or can imagine, there no reason for believing that this globe will ever be subject to a calamity which would, doubiless, he felt throughout the universe .-It has endured for thousands of years, notwithstanding its own internal disturbances, and will, in all probability, roll on for thousands of years longer, till the purpose of its creation is fulfilled .- Ledger.
