

CONSUMPTION.
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND THROAT are positively curable by inhalation, which conveys the remedies to the cavities in the lungs through the air passages, and coming in direct contact with the disease, neutralizes the tubercular matter, dissolves the cough, causes a free and easy ex-pectoration, breaks the lungs, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving that tone and energy so indispensable for the restorative of Consumption. To be able to state confidently that Consumption is curable by inhalation, is to me a source of unalloyed pleasure. It is as much under the control of medical treatment as any other formidable disease; ninety out of every hundred cases can be cured in the first stages, and fifty per cent. in the second; but in the third stage it is impossible to save more than five per cent. for the lungs are so cut up by the disease as to bid defiance to medical skill. Even, however, in the last stages, inhalation affords extraordinary relief to the suffering, attending this fearful scourge, which annually destroys ninety five thousand persons in the United States alone; and a correct calculation shows that of the eight millions designed to fill the consumptive's grave.
Truly the quiver of death has no arrow so fatal as Consumption. In all ages it has been the great enemy of life, for it spares neither age nor sex, but sweeps off alike the brave and the beautiful, the graceful, and the gifted.
By the help of that Supreme Being, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, I am enabled to offer to the afflicted a permanent and speedy cure in Consumption. The first cause of tubercles is from impure blood, and the immediate cause the lungs, by their disposition in the lungs, to prevent the free admission of air into the air cells, which causes a weakened vitality throughout the entire system. There surely it is more rational to expect greater good from medicines entering the cavities of the lungs than from those administered through the stomach; the patient will always find the lungs free and the breathing easy after inhaling remedies. True, inhalation is a local remedy, nevertheless it acts constitutionally, and with more power and certainty than remedies administered by the stomach. To prevent the powerful influence of this mode of administration, chloroform inhaled will entirely destroy sensibility in a few minutes, paralyzing the entire nervous system, so that a limb may be amputated without the slightest pain; inhaling the ordinary burning gas will destroy life in a few minutes.
The inhalation of tubercles will rouse the system when fainting or apparently dead—The odor of many of the medicines is perceptible in the skin a few minutes after being inhaled, and may be immediately detected in the blood. A convincing proof of the constitutional effect of inhalation, is that tubercles in the lungs are produced by breathing foul air. Is not this positive evidence that proper remedies, carefully prepared and judiciously administered through the lungs, should produce the most happy results? During eighteen years' practice, many thousands, suffering from Consumption, and throughout, have been under my care, and I have effected many remarkable cures, even after the sufferers had been pronounced in the last stages, which fully satisfies me that Consumption is no longer a fatal disease—My treatment of Consumption is original, and founded on long experience and thorough investigation. My perfect acquaintance with the nature of tubercles, &c., enables me to distinguish readily the various forms of disease that simulate Consumption, and apply the proper remedies rarely being mistaken even in a single case. This familiarity in connection with certain pathological and microscopic dissections, enables me to relieve the lungs from the effects of contracted chest; to enlarge the chest, purify the blood, impart to it renewed vitality, giving energy and tone to the entire system.

Great Fire, Chestnut & Fifth Streets, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 15th, 1854. EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES TRIUMPHANT, as they always are when put to the test.
Philadelphia, Dec. 15th, 1854.
Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 26 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, Gentlemen—We take pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers, and cash in as good condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets; the above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out—The safe was then removed, and opened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of the contents, and the entire safety of the safe and locks required, as was intended to put in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire proof qualities. Yours, respectfully, LACEY & PHILLIPS.
Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring

TERRIBLE DISCLOSURES!
Secrets for the Million!
A most Wonderful and Invaluable Publication.
Dr. Hunter's Medical Manual; BEING AN ORIGINAL AND POPULAR Treatise on MAN and WOMAN: their Physiology, Functions and Sexual Disorders of every kind, with re-fering Remedies for the speedy cure of all diseases of a private and delicate character, and the prevention of the violation of the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God.
PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.
The Author of the above volume is a graduate of one of the first medical schools in the United States, and having devoted a quarter of a century to the study and treatment of Syphilis and kindred diseases as a specialty, he has become possessed of most invaluable information in regard to the same, and is able to compass into vade mecum compass the very extensive subject of this important subject; as the result of the experience of the most eminent physicians in Europe and America is so thoroughly demonstrated in his own highly successful practice in the treatment of secret diseases in many thousands of cases in the City of Philadelphia alone.
The practice of Dr. Hunter, has long been and still is, literally unbounded, but at the expression and solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend the sphere of his professional usefulness to the community at large, through the medium of his "Medical Manual Hand-Book for the Afflicted." It is a volume that should be in the hand of every family in the land, whether used as a preventive of vice, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive scourges ever visited upon mankind for the sins of sensuality and impurity of every kind.
It is a volume that has received the unqualified recommendation of the first physicians in the land, while many clergymen, fathers, mothers, philanthropists and humanitarians, have most freely extended its circulation in all quarters where the moral and physical suffering of the human race is instrumental in the moral purification and physical healing of multitudes of our people, among the young, volatile and indiscreet, otherwise the pride and flower of the nation.
The author argues particularly, most strongly against every species of self-defilement, and warns the young and gaudy in their newfound terms, to guard the young of both sexes from the terrible consequences concomitant of their ignorance of physiological laws and sexual purities and irregularities, which exhibit-precocious development or arising from the vicious and corrupting example of their school-fellows or otherwise. To those who have already ensnared to the "paths that lead to hell," a clear and explicit way is shown by which they may secure a return of sound health and a regeneration of the soul from its terrible pollution.
It is well known that thousands of victims are annually sacrificed at the shrine of Quack-ery—especially those suffering from Venereal or Syphilitic diseases—Strictures, Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, and the numerous maladies which spring directly or less remotely from the indulgence of carnal passions and secret violations of Nature.
In view of these facts, and when it is also considered that about 100,000 persons die annually in the United States of Consumption—a large majority being the victims of the voluptuous indulgence of their progenitors, agreeably to the scientific conclusions of their school-fellows or otherwise. To those who have the parents are visited upon the children, even to the third and fourth generation. The author, imbued with sentiments of enlarged philanthropy, will scarcely be censured for any effort to restrain the vices of the age, by the humble instrumentality of his Medical Manual.
One copy, securely enveloped, will be forwarded free of postage any part of the United States for 25 cents, or 6 copies for $1. Address, post paid, COSDEN & CO., Publishers,
