this settlement has obtained its present great prosperty.

Secon—It is the centre of the great North West Coal Basit, and is destined soon to become one of the greatest business places in the State. It will supply the great Lake market, (according to the population and treef the greatest in the Union.) It has five workable veins of the best Bituminous coal, amounting in the aggregate to over 22 feet, which makes 22 000 tons of coal under each year. This will make the land of inestimable value. The eminent goologist Dr. Chas. 7. Jackson of Boston, has made a geological survey of the land, and analysed the coat, the ton ore and limestone. This report together with maps will be furnished to inquirers.

Fourth-I bree Railroads are laid out thro this property. The Sunburv and Erre Railroad gives us a market for our coal to the lakes—it runs from Eric to Philadeiphis. A large part of the Road has been finished, and is now in to the backwoods of the West, smong perhaps intolerant people, where there is no society, churches, or schools, where the price of land is high, and where the emigrant, after being used to the healthest climate in the world, has to ordere sickness and pain, and perhaps ruins his health and that of his family. But here is a thriving settlement having there towns, containing chorebes, enhoods, hotels, sfores saw-mills, grist mills, and rverything desired. There is a cash market at hand. The lumber trade last year sur unted to even two hundred million feet of lumber. In a short time, wing to the ceal, it will become still more gainable as a number of iron works and manufactories will year surface the lumber. In a short time, wing to the ceal, it will become still more gainable as a number of iron works and manufactories will will be stored; they are at present starting number of iron works and manufactories win come the started; they are at present starting them extensively at Watten. Even for those who do not wish to go there, the payments are such that they can easily buy a farm to save their rising families from want in the future, or to gain a competence by the rise which will take place in the value of lands. By an outlay scarcely missed, a substantial provision can be made.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

Circular to the Sick.

The first hospital structure and modical publicates of Europe, admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in their naval and pilitary services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the resurces of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of diesire, and acuttolize the flery elements which feed and exasperate the melady.

RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, PRYSIPELAS.
These are smong the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the deshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incusable they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this southing, healing antidote to pain and inflammation.

SALT RHEUM, FEVER SORES,

SALT RHEUM, FEVER BURELS
STIFF JOINTS,
In cases of Salt fibrum, where medical waters, tottous, and every recipe of the pharmacopoea have proved useless, the Ointment will a accomplish a thorough cure. Force Sorceheal

DISCHARGING ULCERS.

A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of maliguant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment. The surrounding reduces vanishes, and granules of healthy firesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or sees rapidly, until the orifice is filled up with lound material and the ulcer redically cured.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.

The young are the most frequent sufferers The young are the most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly on hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quietly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes designer the heads and faces of children.
