Resource by the Senate and House of Rep-resenatives of the Commonwealth of Penn-sylvenia in General Assembly met: That the following autendments are proposed to the constitution of the commonwealth, in accor-dance with the provisions of the tenth article hereof.

THEST AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article elev-in, as follows :--

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. SEC 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or 30 meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by vitue of one or more acts of the general as-sembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven houdred and filty thou-sand dellers, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts on contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

repay the debts as contracted, and to no other purpose whatever. Src. 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present out-tanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which ti was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever. Src. 3. Except the d-bts above specified in sections one and two of this sticle, no test whatever shall be created by, or on be-half of the State. Src. 4. To provide for the payment of

In sections one and two of this stille, no table where shall be created by, or on be-balf of the State. Sec. 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as eforesaid, the legislature shall, it its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing inter-est on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two handred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shallconsist of the net annual in-come of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereol, and cf the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state, together with other fands, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be in-creased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invarion or insurrection, no part of said sinking fund rhall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five mil-tions of doltars.
