PROTHONOTARY, JACOB EYERLY, REGISTER AND RECORDER, DANIEL LEE, COMMISSIONER, ELIAS DIETRICK, TREASURER, JAMES S. MCNICH, AUDITOR, JOHN R. YOHE.

A Democratic County Meeting will be held at the Court-house on Monday evening of court week (Sept. 7th) to which the public are invited. Good speaking may be expected. [Sept. 2, '57.]

Representative Conference. In this new Representative district Sullivan county held the first Democratic Convention and fixed the 4th of September as the time for holding the Representative Conference at Bloomington. This was in accordance with the rule in our old district, and also with that heretofore observed in Sullivan and Wyoming. It has been the custom to hold the conference soon after the inauguration in the district has been held, and this has always brought the Representative Conference earlier than the Senatorial and Congressional ones. We are sorry therefore to see that the Montour convention recently, without assigning any reason, attempted to reverse the rule and postpone the Representative conference behind the Senatorial and Congressional ones. The attempt is in had spirit, as no reason is assigned or can be given for it, and as a fraternal and not a stubborn feeling should be manifested in the conferences of neighboring counties. It is a bad beginning for our new district, and every person will feel inclined to ask what motive could have caused this disagreement. If the time can make no difference in results, why produce disagreement and reverse the rule of the party and of reason? If the Representative conference is not removed beyond the time of Congressional and Senatorial Conferences to effect them, why so remove it? There must be a motive. But men who aspire to high places ought not to go out of the way to offer reasonable grounds for the suspicion of designed intrigue. A nomination ought to be not only fair, but beyond the taint or suspicion of corruption. To prove how the rule has been in this district, we give the following items from the records during the past seven years.

In 1850 John McReynolds was nominated for Assembly on the 7th of September. In 1851 Mr. Jackson was nominated by the Representative conference on the 30 of September. In 1852 George Scott was nominated by the Representative conference on the 9th of September. The Congressional conference was held on the 11th. In 1853 the Representative Conference was fixed for the 2d of September. The Senatorial conference was held on the 19th. In 1854 the Representative Conference was held on the 8th of September, and the Congressional on the 12th. In 1855 Mr. Montgomery was nominated by the Representative Conference on the 29th of August.

In 1856 Mr. Ent was nominated by the Representative Conference on the 3d of September. The Congressional Conference was held on the 18th of September and the Senatorial on the 19th of the same month. Here then the untimely rule is to hold the Representative Conference first, and early in September—once indeed in August. It was known in Montour that Sullivan had fixed a time in accordance with this rule, and it were always better that Congress should meet as soon after their appointment as is practicable. This prevents all attempts at improper interference and leaves a nomination free from all suspicion of intrigue.

Snyder County. The Democrats of Snyder county held their convention last week but failed to take definite action on the Senatorial nomination. Five ballots were taken for Senator before the other nominations were made. The result was:

Table with 2 columns: 1st Ballot, 2d Ballot. Names: Reuben Keller, Henry C. Eyer, Thomas Bower.

The three following ballots were the same as the second. After the other nominations were made 21 more ballots were taken which all resulted like the second. The convention then adjourned without appointing any Conferees.

This is certainly an unfortunate disagreement, and our friends will see pretty soon that we were right when we deprecated the complicated and clumsy districts into which the new apportionment bill throws us. It is bad enough when counties have troubles within themselves, but much worse when they disagree with one another, without any excuse, and cause needless difficulties, as Montour has lately done with Sullivan.

Colonel Geary is out for Packer and Democracy.

The Nominations.

For Congress John McReynolds has as much capacity as any of the candidates named, and our county has claims equal to any other in the District. The office belongs not to any county but to the fittest man. Mr. McReynolds has made politics the study of his long life, and is therefore well acquainted with public men and their history. His sagacity and discretion would make him a useful member to his constituents and friends.

For member Mr. Ent is re-nominated, and his votes last winter fully justified the zealous support we gave to his election. The trial he has had proved the character of the man, and men are certain what sort of candidate they have in him.

For Prothonotary, Mr. Eyerly, whom everybody knows, is re-nominated. This was entirely upon his merits as an officer, for his long tenure of office was urged strongly against him. But his experience in office made this charge operate more in his favor than against him. He will be as easily elected as he was nominated, for people feel that it is a matter of much importance to have the duties of an office well attended to.

Daniel Lee was unanimously re-nominated for Register and Recorder; and as every voter will agree that no man more correct, attentive and fair could be found for the office, he will most likely have no competitor at the polls.

For Commissioner, Mr. Dieterick is socially a clever man, and his father served as Commissioner some years ago. Politically he has repeatedly opposed Democratic nominations, voting in 1853 for a volunteer who was last fall the Know Nothing elector in this district, and in 1854 for the K. N. Volunteers. But as the convention seems to absolve him for these things, and pronounces him more meritorious than any of 2,000 true Democrats of the county who have regularly supported nominations, we are too good a Democrat to set our private opinion against the decree of the party, and we truly hope that when he is elected his public course will justify the partiality of the convention. No man has a right to expect that every nomination shall every year please his personal desire, and if the party has forgiven Mr. Dieterick we ought certainly to contribute our small share of pardon which we can well do; especially as we should be very much ashamed to act in the spirit he did in 1855, when he secretly distributed the keys for the Know Noughts with our name for county Auditor, and being told we were not a candidate he answered, "I know, but we ran him for spite."

We shall act in no spirit of "spite" or malice toward him; and we have no doubt he is in moments of cool mind as much ashamed that he has done so, as we would be to follow so bad an example. If the Opposition nominate a competitor, he is likely to be still more objectionable, and as we are well content with all the rest of the ticket we are as well off as any member of a party can be.

James S. McNinch is well qualified for Treasurer. He is for some years a steady clerk in the store of McKelvy & Co., and to this day enjoys their generous confidence for integrity and business capacity. He is now a partner in the large paper mill at Catawissa, and though comparatively young he has many friends among those who know him best.

John R. Yohe was nominated by such a large vote that it is certain he has personal friends. The whole Yohe family, we believe, are Democrats and John is among the most active of them.

Bank of Newcastle. We learn from New Castle that it is the intention of the Directors of the late New Castle Bank to resume payment and business on the 13th of October next. The name of the concern will be that of "The Lawrence County Bank," and the stock mostly held in the hands of the people of New Castle and vicinity—a very large amount having been taken by merchants and farmers, in sums from fifty to five hundred dollars each. The bills of the old bank bring readily 90c. in gold, and as there is but little of the old issue out, it will be redeemed at par before the 15th of October.

More Bank Failures. The Rhode Island Central Bank the Tiverton Bank, R. I., and the Farmers' Bank of Wickford have failed within the past week. So also has the Ohio Life and Trust Company with supposed liabilities to at least $7,000,000. John Thompson, a Wall Street Banker has also failed for $250,000. The Matamoras Bank, Bangor, Maine, is reported failed.

The Next Senate. Of the State Senators 22 will hold over: that is, 13 Democrats and 9 of the Opposition. If the Opposition can unite the votes in the other 11 which were last fall cast for Fremont and Fillmore they will elect 6 of the Democrats 5. In that event the next Senate would stand 18 Democrats to 15 Opposition.

Mr. Harris then offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That John Fritz and Dr. J. K. On the first vote the result stood— FOR FUNSTON—Messrs. Woodward, Barkley, D. McHenry, McBride, Harris, Young, Derr, Goodman, Schuyler, Biddle, Kline, Achenbach, Ent, Robison, Fritz, Laubach—16.

The second ballot was with the same result, except that Mr. Kline of Orange voted for Wintersteen instead of Funston.

The third ballot was like the second, except that Mr. Achenbach of Orange voted for Wintersteen instead of Funston.

The fourth ballot was like the third.

The fifth ballot was as follows— FOR FUNSTON—Messrs. Woodward, Barkley, D. McHenry, McBride, Harris, Young, Derr, Goodman, Schuyler, Biddle, Kline,

On the sixth vote the vote was precisely as on the fifth. On the 11th vote of the party regulations of the 8th ballot the lowest candidate shall be stricken off, and this being announced the 7th ballot was taken as follows: FOR FUNSTON—Messrs. Woodward, Barkley, Brittain, Zaner, D. McHenry, McBride, Dewitt, Robbins, Harris, Young, Derr, Goodman, Schuyler, Biddle, Kline, Achenbach, Ent, Robison, Fritz, Laubach—20.

FOR SWANK—Messrs. J. McHenry, Rohr-bach, Dewitt—3.

So JOHN R. YOHE was declared to be duly nominated for Auditor.

Col. Brittain then offered a resolution affirming the Democratic platform, which was unanimously adopted; but the Secretaries have not furnished us with it.

The following resolution was then offered and unanimously adopted: Resolved, That M. C. Woodward, William Snyder, Hudson Owen, Almas Cole and Isaac Leidy, be the Standing Committee of Columbia county for the ensuing year.

The convention then adjourned.

A LUCKY LEGAL FEE.—A gentleman in Cincinnati states that Nicholas Longworth, who was in his native State a shoemaker, practiced law on his removal to that city during the years between 1804 and 1820. He once received a legal fee for defending a horse thief two second hand copper stills. The gentleman who held them in possession refused to give them up, but proposed to Mr. Longworth to give him a lot on Western Row, so called, in lieu of them—a proposal which the latter whose sanguine opinions of the value of such property were ahead of his time, gladly accepted. This transaction formed the basis of an immense fortune, the naked ground being now worth over two millions of dollars.

NORTHUMBERLAND.—The Democracy of Northumberland county has made the following nominations: Senate—Geo. C. Welker, Sunbury. Assembly—Jos. C. Roads, Milton. Sheriff—Henry J. Reeder, McEwensville. Prothonotary—Daniel Beckly, Treverton. Commissioner—Samuel Ent. Treasurer—Jesse M. Simpson, Sunbury. Hon. Wm. L. Dewart and Dr. R. H. Awt are Senatorial Conferees.

MONTOUR.—The American-Republicans of Montour have nominated a county ticket. For Commissioner—Nathan Sandal. For Prothonotary—Moore Wilson. For Auditor—James Conser.

Unmarried Women in Great Britain.—It appears from the census of Great Britain of '51, that in that year, there were in the country nearly six millions of women above twenty years of age—of whom one million seven hundred and sixty seven thousand were unmarried, and seven hundred and ninety-five thousand widows.

Senator Rush, whose melancholy death was recently recorded, was the son of a very poor Irish emigrant, who when he came to this country, settled in South Carolina on land belonging to John C. Calhoun. He was a stone cutter by trade.

Some idea of the enormous amount of correspondence carried on between England and her Indian Empire, may be gathered from the fact that the Indian mail from London last, consisted of 133 boxes, each box on an average weighing 22 pounds.

Hog Cholera.—The Zanesville Times says that in the distillery of Mr. Crane, in the town of Dresden, Ohio, in that county, $100 worth of hogs die each day.

An Important Political Movement.

The Democratic Convention of Allegheny county, assembled at Pittsburg on the 26th inst. Col. Jas. A. Gibson was chosen Chairman. A committee to prepare resolutions was appointed, of which J. R. Lange, Esq., was the Chairman, by which committee the following resolutions were submitted to the meeting: "In the progress of events it occasionally behooves every intelligent people to assert their rights, and boldly defend them against the encroachments of those by whom they are governed—therefore Resolved, That we approve most emphatically of the course adopted and pursued by the national administration. Resolved, That we have full confidence in the ability and integrity of the nominees of the Democratic party nominated at Harrisburg, and will give them our hearty support. Resolved, That we highly approve of the doctrines and principles as set forth in the State Central Committee's address, as being at the same time ably and purely Democratic, and more especially that portion of the address which treats of municipal subscriptions to railroads, &c., at this time we do recognize as most appropriate. Resolved, That legislative action should be confined within the limits of a strict construction of the Constitution. Resolved, That tax means that tribute alone which is demanded of the Commonwealth, agrees to pay to defray the absolute and necessary expenses of the government, and that the taxing power should not be exercised for any other purpose. Resolved, That it is the special duty of the Democratic party to protect and preserve inviolate the individual rights of every citizen in the Commonwealth in opposition to the assumption of power, either by our legislature or the officials under our county and city corporate authorities. Resolved, That we solemnly avow our hostility to the imposition of taxes for railroad purposes, and our unqualified determination to resist by all constitutional and legal means, the payment of any tax imposed upon us illegally, either by State or county. Resolved, That while declaring no opposition to railroad improvements, we hold that they should be advanced by individual enterprise alone. Resolved, That we deprecate the system of free tickets being given to Judges, Legislators, Teachers, Editors, &c.—said system being in our estimation a tacit and insidious means of bribery and corruption too dangerous to tolerate. Resolved, That we deem it to be the duty of our Commissioners now not to assess any tax for railroad purposes until compelled to pay by legal process. Resolved, That the legislature is in duty bound by statute to limit the assessing and collecting of any more tax than is absolutely necessary to defray the expenses of the government.

The seventh resolution was opposed by Dr. J. R. McClintock, but it was adopted by a vote of 65 to 35. The whole series was then adopted by a large majority.

These resolutions are of more than usual importance, and the principles they enunciate deserve the serious attention of the party—There is a growing disposition manifested by the Democracy of this State to limit legislative action to its proper and constitutional sphere, and not to allow the State to be made a pack-horse, upon whose back can be placed the responsibility of every scheme invented by parties to enrich themselves. This principle is also about being extended to Counties and Corporations. This is right and proper, and in so far as the resolutions of our friends in Allegheny county will aid in these important reforms they are worthy of all commendation. We are opposed to all ideas of repudiation, but at the same time the taxpayers have an undoubted right to see that they are not burdened with taxes for schemes of improvements, the granting of assistance to, which is not among those powers that can be rightfully or legally exercised by their representatives either of a Legislative, a County or Municipal character. This is the point to which, if we understand them, the Allegheny resolutions were directed. We invite attention to these resolutions.—Penny-cup.

From the New York Express, 24th inst. The Bardell Property. The Surrogate, this morning, rendered the decision in the case of the Bardell estate. It is a very voluminous and learned document, and covers all the points of this complicated question.

The Surrogate decides that Mrs. Cunningham was not married to Dr. Bardell on the 28th of October, 1856, and consequently that she is not entitled to administer his estate.

This decision will relieve Mrs. Cunningham of the charge of felony, as regards the production of a false heir.

It however, subjects her, as well as her daughter Augusta, to indictment and prosecution for perjury, they having both positively sworn that the marriage took place.

The Surrogate concludes as follows:— It becomes my duty to pronounce against the allegation of marriage. The reasons leading to this conclusion may be summarily stated thus:— 1. The marriage was clandestine—and there is no presumption in favor of a secret marriage, neither preceded or followed by cohabitation. 2. The clergyman selected was unknown to the parties. 3. The place appointed was distant from the decedent's residence. 4. The only witness chosen to be present was one of the daughters of the claimant. 5. The witness is contradicted by her own statements made under oath at different times and by other evidence. 6. The certificate of the marriage affords no evidence of identification. 7. The certificate is incorrect as to the name of the decedent, and evinces ignorance or error as to the place of his nativity. 8. There was suspicious circumstances attending the transaction. 9. The marriage was not confided by the claimant to any member of her family, save one.

11. There was no private or public acknowledgment, no cohabitation, but the alleged parties lived as single persons. 12. On the part of the claimant there were confidential relations with another person, in respect to whom the decedent charged improper intimacy. 13. The terms of the settlement of the estate alleged to have led to the marriage, are in writing, and exclude the assertion of other terms. 14. The marriage took place after the settlement had been concluded and carried out. 15. The claimant executed written instruments to the decedent in her own name, after the marriage. She assigned a judgment; he drew a check to the order. She endorsed it, and he swore to the affidavit, in all which she was described by her own name. 16. At the settlement she stipulated for a new lease of the house. 17. Shortly before the decedent's death she released all causes of action, and abandoned her agreement for a lease. 18. He spoke of her with contempt and reproach, and made repeated declarations against marriage. 19. He was determined to compel her to leave the premises, and a new lease to another party was about to be executed. 20. The marriage was first announced after his death.

All the evidence is elaborately reviewed, and the previous relations and conduct of Dr. Bardell and Mrs. Cunningham considered, affording, as the Surrogate says, the strongest presumption against even a voluntary marriage, and utterly repugnant to a compulsory marriage, insisted upon as one of the terms of the settlement.

The following order was entered:—"Let an order be entered, declaring that the claimant, Emma Augusta Cunningham, is not the widow of the decedent, and directing letters of administration to be issued to the decedent's next of kin, on giving the proper security."
