

raging among the troops and sailors. Some of the men-of-war have lost nearly all of their crows. The seamer Herman Cortes has been abandoned, having lost her people. A large proportion of officers have died, and hardly a day passes without a military funeral. led over as a piece of good luck, or as it is sometimes called, a Godsend, or whether housest exertions were made to discover and restore it to the right owner, and steady self-

MILITARY STATE CONVENTION .- The Majo Generals of the several Divisions, and Briga-dier Generals of the several Brigades of the Uniformed Volunteers of Pennsylvania, will neet in Convention at Harrisburg, on Monday, the 9th day of November next, for the purpose of devising some plan whereby the General Assembly of the Commonwealth may be induced to organize its forces on a sound and salutary basis, and the ancient pride of Pennsylvania-her citizen soldierystored to its former position.

A RELIC OF THE PAST -Among the curios ladies of Worcester county have forwarded for exhibition at the Mechan tes' Fair in Worcester, is an infant's blanket the hands of the mother of Samuel Adams of revolutionary fame. It now belongs to a lady of Fitchburg who is a descent lady of Fitchburg who is a descendant from that family, and it is known to be the iden-tical blanket in which the infant finite that noble old patriot, Sam Addon, wrapped when he was carried to chapped he christened.

Accident to an Eronaut .- Mr. Chas. Wise ension in the balloon 'Old America,' from Tamaqua, on the afternoon of the 12th inst., taking the place of his father, the well-known æronsut, Mr. John Wise, the latter declining to make the ascent himself on account of the inefficiency of gas supplied by the works in that town. The balloon came down in the Pines of Luzerne county, and tion of the probation of to orable course landed in a tree a total wreck. The eronaut was uninjured, and arrived at Hazelton a-foot the same evening.

But the severes The Fall in the Price of Wheat die and

'struck" with one until last week, and the denial practisad in forbearing to use what might be really very acceptable, and abso-infely needed. Such practical lessons can way of it was this: We were "out west" a few miles and got belated; looked for a place scarcely fail of producing a powerful impres to stay over night; found a cabin ; asked in we could be accommodated, and a tall wo-man, with freckled face, red hair, baffalosion on the minds of children. Children should be taught to make a restitution to all whom they have injured, wheth-er by accident or design. The duty should by, said "she reckoned we mout." be pressed upon their consciences, and means should be suggested to them, by which they We got off our horses, hitched them to a cotton-wood corn-crib and went in. We may be enabled more specify and fully to accomplish the honest purpose. The free and open confession of faults, should always be encouraged, as well as enjoined, and cenasked for supper. We got some bacon, mo-lasses, broiled pumpkins and corn dodger.-We ate heartily. After meal was pass. "the woman said to sure should be sometimes spared or modera-ter in consequence of such candor; the morel the oldest girl: "Now Doddy Jane, you bed in consequence of such candor; the morel beauty and imperative obligation of truth should be relead upon children in a familiar ary longer. In makin² this stranger's corner good:

is his experience of neatness, which is rath

We always did like neat people. We al should be interest upon children in a familiar based of the senser, and pleasing exam-pic, order upon general imitation. The end of the senser were general imitation. The sense is an existingle, and mild use of au-based parts of mose who govern them. Interest of the sense who govern them. Interest of the sense who govern them. Interest of the sense who govern them. bread I wast just naturally pestered to death pickin' the small hairs and dead fleas out of it, that came off from them peaky dogs; and if they sleep in it a week longer it won't be fit to use? We were in love with that woman on ac-count of the neatness. And that evening we laid down on the rough hewn floor and had pleasant dreams. Ghostly fleas were hop-Beire wrong, let them feel that the ready way to forgiveness is by free confession, penitence ing about through our corporal diversities and amendment. Let them expect that the impropriety of their conduct will be fairly set before them, and blamed according to its just deserts; but let them feel confident that there pectre sluts, with goblin pups, danced bewill be no unkind reproaches, no contemptu ous sneers ; and let the censure or the punishment have evidently no other aim than to improve the anticot by preventing a repetimingled with apfied and boncake. We like neatness ee confession.-

should be expressed against a contrary line of conduct. should always be regarded and had started an opposition meeting ? "No," said he, "when-where." that could have ering seriousl "but it is not an oppo It may here fore us in boxes of unearthly meal, during the live-long night; and our great grandfath er sat straddle of us six hours, and with a remrod to a six poundereannon, stuffed cords of that neatly prepared corn-dodger down our unwilling throat, and whistly all the time for the dogs, while the baby and its tidy mother sat by and wept for the departing hoe-BIGOTRY .-- When the Baptists of Hartford began to hold public services, an over-zealous him, and asked him if he knew John Bolles "Wby, at the old court-house." "Oh, yes, I know it," the doctor carelessly inquired Percy. "I don't know indeed, but I can give it for home, the monkey chasing him, and the wicked nephew clapping hands and shouting, "Run, big fraid, or little fraid'll rial.

"Give him another gun, soldiers; and ake care that the clown don't shoot youways cherish a kind of tender feeling for ketch you!" all neat women. But we never was really I should not fear to stand before the mark nyself.' Well, I guess you had not better try it."

"Well, I guess you had not better up in "Why, do you think you could hit me ?" "I don't know indeed, but I could try it." (Directly the state of the state of the state Jonathan fired, and again hit the mark. "Ha! ha! how father would laugh to see shooting at half-gun shot."

Why you rascal, you don't think you ould hit the mark at twice the present dis tance from you." ""I don't know but I'm not afraid to try." on his head, containing butter and eggs.-When he had reached the vicinity of th Give him another gun, soldiers, and place the mark farther off."

Jonathan fired again, and hit as before. "There, I guess that 'ere regular is, as the private that father says the judge hangs un-til he is dead, dead, dead—three times dead; and that is one more death than the scripture speaks on." "There, fellow, is a guinea, said Percy tossing the coin to him. "Is it a good one?" inquired Jonathan ringing it on the pavement. "Good f Yes: Now clear, the way." "I should like to stay, and see them fe

"Begone! or I shall have to put you un der guard. Officer give him a pass to Char leston, but never let him come roops again."

Advice to Young Men.

In his valedictory address, ex-Lord-Rec-tor, Glasgow University, Sir E. Bulwer Lyt-ton, lately offered the following excellent maxims to the students

"Never affect," said he, "to be otherwise than you are, either richer or wiser. Never be ashamed to say 'I do not know.' Men be ashame he had lost, and as its total amounted to on- however diverse their dispa entlemanly. Va eference of cures. Valentine Mott, M. D."

Mr. Goodwin, 18th street, near Broadway. Mr. Wm. Silvey, 70 Courdandt street, Mr. H. P. Herdman, Counsellor at Law, 16 City Hall Place, N. Y.

Dr. Bell, Dentist, Auburn, N. Y. Mr. Seth Paine, Editor, Chicago. Mr. James R. Burtis, Gas Works, Chicago Mrs. Hawley, and Mr. F. Dean, Springeld. III. Mr. B. F. Stephen, Jacksonville, III.

Miss Sarah Swaine, Nantucket. Miss R. D. Howard, Fairhaven, Mass James Burnett, Pleasant Valley, near Po'repsie, N. Y. TERMS.—For cure, $25. In compliance with the request of a large number of corespondents in the country, whose circum-ances will not admit of a visit to New York, church of St. Eustache, the little fellow, who Dr. H. will forward a package by Express, could only with difficulty make his way ontaining all the necessary treatment, ap through the crowd, was violently jostled by through the crowd, was violently jostled by a stranger who was passing, so that lifs bas-ket tipped, and fell to the ground with its contents. The poor lad, when he saw the eggs all broken, and his butter tunibled in the gutter, began to cry bitterly and wring his hands. A person who happened to be in the crowd that gathered around the little felpliances, &c., with ample instructions to effect a cure, on receipt of $10, and the Bal-

As a wife and mother, a woman can make he crown that gainered around the fittle fer-low, drew a tensou piece from his pocket, and giving it to the boy, asked the rest who stood around him to do the same, to make else, surely this would be sufficient destiny. else, surely this would be sufficient destiny. up the loss occasioned by the accident. In-By her thrift, prudence and tact, she can up the loss occasioned by the accident. In-fluenced by his example, every one present eagerly complied, and very speedily the tence in old age, no matter how small their boy's apron contained a respectable collec-beginning, or how adverse a fate occasion-tion of coppers and silver. When all had contributed their quota, our young valet, restore her husband's spirit, staken by the provide on the present of business. By her the staken by the state of business. By her the staken by the tion of coppers and silver. When all had contributed their quota, our young valet, whose distress had vanished in a moment as though by enchantment, warmly thanked his new benefactors for their kindness, and forthwith proceeded to count the sum he had to the sum be head to be less than received, which amounted to no less than him from bad company, if templation in an twenty-two frances and thirty-five centimes. evil hour has led him estray. By her ex-

But, instead of quietly putting this sam in his pocket, he produced the bill of articles sex's iusight that taught him to lisp his evening prayer, whether Catholic or Protestant, dead or living, whether far off or nigh. I could scarce refrain from weeping then, nor can I now, as I see again that sweet child in the crowded tumult of the steamboat's cabin, bending in devotion before his Maker. But a little while before I saw a crowd of admiring listeners gathered about a company of Italian singers in the upper salo nother and two sons, with voice and harp, and violin ; but no one heeded no one care

This was the training of some pious moth er. Where was she now? How many times had her kind hand been laid upon the locks, as she had taught him to lisp his pray-

A beautiful sight it was, that child at pray-or in midst of a busy, thoughtless throng.— He alone, of this worldly multitude draws night to heaven. I thank the parental love ers ?

When the little boy had finished his eve-ning devotion, he arose and kissed his faning devotion, he arose and kissed his fa-ther most affectionately, who put him in his birth to sleep for the night I felt a strong desire to speak to them, but deferred it till morning. When morning came, the confu-sion of landing prevented me from seeing them again. But, if I ever meet with that boy in his happy youth, in his anxious man-hood, in his declining years I'll thank him for the influence and example of that night'a devotion, and bloss the name of the moher devotion, and bless the name of the mo that taught him. Scarcely any passing incident of my life ever made a deeper impres sion on my mind. I went to my room and thanked God that I had witnessed it, and for its influence on my heart. Who prays on a steamboat? Who teach their children to pray at home ?-Home Journal.

A NOBLE ROY. The following touching episode in street life-life in Paris-is a beautiful gem, and should be in all memories surrounded with pathy : About nine o'clock in the morning, a little boy of twelve, whose jacket of white cloth and apron ditto, distinctly indicated that he followed the profession of pastry cook, was returning from market with an open basket wheat arrived at Buffalo last Republic, consigned to a ho tions to sell at $1 15. When that was offered $1 10; the egraphed to the owner to 2 sell it himself. On the day had gone down to $1 05: he figure, and was offered one dollar thought he would look about before a thought he woold look about before sering that price, and when he went to make the max day, when he was offered 90c. for it, and took it. Information about Iron.—Last session of Congress the sum of $2500 was appropriated to test the different irons in this country, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Uni-ted States produced iron which oxidizes less capidly than the iron of other countries. The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circu-lar requesting iron masters to forward to the mystery, without attempting to fix it, that ei-ther an innocent child should be discouraged Ist requesting iron masters to forward to the ther an innocent child should be discouraged department, by mail or express, two or three by unjust charges, or that the guilty child, having been challenged with it should outmines worked by them.

The Magnetic Jelegraph.-The services on he magnetic Telegraph yesterday were re-wired to an extent apprecedented since its the magnetic Telegraph yenerics, quind to an extent apprecedented since its establishment. In five hours yesterday, at the single office in this city, five bundled and the single office in this city, five bundled over the 137 Lorenzo Dow, the celebrated itinerant preacher, once came across a man who stolen. Dow told the man if he would come to meeting with him he would find his axe. At the meeting, Dow had on the putpit, in plain sight, a big stone. Suddenly in the middle of the sermon, he stopped, took up the stone, and said : "An axe was stolen in this neighborhood last night, and if the man who took it don't dedge, I will hit him on the forehead with this stone!" at the sime, time making a violent offort to throw it. A person present was seen to dodge his head, nine messages were despatched over the wires. In these times of panic and excitement in money matters, such an Instrument is invaluable to business in the speedy intel-ligence it gives, and quick calling in of means which may be done through its ald.—

Ledger. The forehead with this stone!" at the same time making a violent effort to throw it. A glass, which kept still in one place, firsth changed often, it doeth nothing.

They are Baptists to be sure, but they preac e same doctrine that I do. and hear him." You put upon th Go !" said the man, "I am

Ain't you going to do s

What ?" "Stop it, can't you ?" "My friend," said the doctor, seriously "John Bolles is a good man, and will surel go to heaven. If you and I get there w shall meet him, and we had bette cultivate a pleasant acquaintance here."

A Virginia Examination .- The Editor Dorenzo Dow, the celebrated itinerant tionary and spelling, at the high school of that city: Teacher (to Bob Smithers.)--Spell admittance. Bob. Ad-mit, admit, Spen admittance, admittance, Teacher-t-a-n-c-e, "tance, admittance, Teacher-Good ! Cive the definition. Bob. Thenty five cents-niggers and children half-prior -froat seats for ladies-no smoking allow ed. The Syncuse Journal perpetrat following upon the marriage, at Rock of a Mr. Husband to the lady of his c This case is the strangest We've known in our life ; The Husband's a Husband, And so is his wife!

ly fourteen francs, he appropriated no more than that sum, and then observing in the group that surrounded him, a poor woman in rags, he gallant little fellow walked up to her, and placed the remainder in her hand. Certainly it would have been impossible to en do were the remainder in her hand. will then believe you when you say the know.³ Never be ashamed to say, whether applied to time or money, 'I cannot afford to waste an hour in the idleness to which you invite me: I cannot afford the guinea you ask me to throw away." Once estab Certainly it would have been impossible to Certainly it would have been impossible to have shewn himself more deserving of pub-lic generosity, or to acknowledge it in a hadesome minner. The have noble con-islated. She can do as much, alas! pervourself and your mode of life as what the yoursent and your mode of line as what they really are, and your foot is on solid ground, whether for the gradual tep onward or for the sudden spring over a precipice. From these maxims let me deduce another. lic generosity, or to acknowledge it in a handsomer manner. The boy's noble con-duct was greeted with the applause of the crowd, who were delighted to find such delhaps even more, to degrade man, if she

Learn to say 'No' with decision, 'Yes' with caution. 'No' with decision whenever it icacy and propriety in one so young. ts temptation ; 'Yes' with caution who emplation ; 'Yes' with caution when-implies a promise. A promise once a bond inviolate. A men is already a gronce in the world when it is into we can implicitly rely on him. For usually seen in life such a person ed ton long list of applicants for some ant offinge, he has been lifted at once tion and forme merch because he have f ation and fortune merely because he has this reputation-that when a man says he knows, he knows; and when he says he will do a thing, he will do it. TT An editor says that a little garden patch of his was very profitable last season. The snais ate up the causumbers, the chick-ens ate bp the snails, the neighbors cats ate up the chickens and we are now in search of something that will eat up the cats. Can any of our agricultural friends aid us?

These who indulge in the "weed," have been considerably exercised of late by the reports of a short erop of tobacco, both in Cuba and the Southern States. To relieve their fears, we should state that there are soveral corrected of guano on their way here, which is equally as nasty as tobacco. lings reward oses to do it.

Who can estimate the evil mat woman has the power to do? As a wife, she can ruin her husband by extravagance, folly, or want of affection. She can make a devil

Old Advertisement---Franklin's Breeches

and an outcast of a man, who might other-wise have become a good member of seci-ety. She can bring bickerings, strife and perpetual discord into what has been a From the Pennsylvania Gazette, Feb. 22, 1738. Stolen, on the 15th inst., by one William Lloyd, out of the house of Benjamin Franklin a half worn Sagathe coat, lined with perpetual discord into what has been a happy home. She can change the innocent babes whom God has entrasted to her charge, into vile men, and even viler wo-men. She can lower the moral tone of so-ciety itself, and thus pollute legislation at the spring head. She can, in fine, become an instrument of evil instead of an angel of good leatened white, General of white silk, ruffled at the hands and bosom, a pair of black broadcloth breeches new seated and lined with leather, two pair of good worsted stockings, one a dark color and the other of a lightish blue, a coarse cambric handkerchief marked with an F in red silk, a new pair of calfskin shoes, a bay's new caster hat, and sundry other things. N. B. The said Lloyd pretends to under-stand Latin and Greek, and has been a school-master; he is an Irishman, about 30 years of age, tall and slim; had on a light-ish colored great coat, red jacket, a pair of ert, covered with the scorn of evil passions, years of age, tail and slim; had on a light-ish colored great coat, red jacket, a pair of old silk breeches, an old left hat, too little for him and sewed on the side of the crown with white thread, and an old dark colored wig; but may methaps wear some of the stolen articles not mentioned. Whoever sole as me thief so that he may be brought to mice, shall have thirty shil-bing commend and other sole by and charges paid by BENJAMIN FRANKLIN. or more influential than woman's. Woman's Advocate.

The young mechanic or clerk marries and takes a house which he proceeds to furnish twice as expensively as he can afford, and then his wife, instead of taking hold to earn a livelihood, by doing her own work, must have a hired servant to help her spend her limited earnings.

Ten years afterwards, you will find him Ten years alterwards, you win huo hun struggling under a double load of debts and children, wondering why the luck was al-ways against him, while his friends regret his unhappy destitution of financial ability. his unhappy destitution of financial ability. Had they from the first been frank and hon-est, he need not have been so unlucky. The world is full of people who can't imagine why they dont prosper like their neigh-bors, when the real obstacle is not in banks or tariffs, in public policy nor hard times, but in their own extravagance and osten lation

"WILL you give me them pennies now

"Will you give me them pennies now?" said a big newsboy to a little one, after giv-ing him a severe thumping. "No, I wont," was the reply. "Then I'll give you another pounding." "Pound away. Me-an' Dr. Franklin a-grees; Dr. Franklin says: 'Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of themelves."

A BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—A little Swedlish girl, while walking with her father on a star-ry night, absorbed in contemplation of the akies, being asked of what she was thinking, replied—"I was thinking if the wrong side of heaven is so glorious, what must the right side be 1". side be ?

en