A PROCLAMATION Pellow-Cilizens:—To tender to Almighty God, who controls the destinies of nations and men, the homage of devout gratitude and praise for his goodness and mercy, is the appropriate and solemn duty of a free and highly favored people. As the giver of every good and perfect gift we should ever recognize His hand in our mercies, and acrecognize His hand in our mercies, and acknowledge our dependence upon His Providence; and although adversity may throw its dark shadows across our pathway, yet we should be asured of this, "that the Judge of all Earth will do right.'

During the past year the bounties of a kind Providence have not been withheld from our Commonwealth. Our free institutions have been preserved, and our rights and privileges, civil and religious, enjoyed maintained. The arts and sciences. and the great interests of education, moralily and religion, have claimed attention and received the encouragement of an intelli-gent and liberal people. Honorable industry in its varied departments has been reward. and although recent and severe financial revulsion has filled with gloom, sorrow and distress, the hearts and homes of many of our citizens, yet no fear of famine, no dread of impending public or social calami-ty, mingles with our emotions of gratitude for past blessings, or weakens our trust for the future, in the Providences of Him who wounds but to heal, and "whose mercy endureth forever." A plenteous harvest has crowned the labor of the husbandmanpeace, with its gentle and refining influen-ces, and unwonted health with its benefits and mercies, have been vouchsafed to us.

In acknowledgment of these manifold blessings, we should offer unto God thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the most High nd call upon Him "in the day of trouble He will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify

Under the solemn conviction of the propriety of this duty, and in conformity with established custom and the wishes of many good citizens, I, James Pollock, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby recommend Thursday, the twenty sixth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and praise throughout this Sta'e, and earnestly request the people that, abstaining from their usual avocations and all worldly pursuits, they assemble on that day according to their religious customs, and mite in offering thanks to Almighty God for his past goodness and mercies; and while humbly acknowledging our trangression and imploring His forgiveness, beseech Him, with sincere and earnest desire, to return and visit us again with His loving kinness, make us worthy of His bounties, a ntinue to us the rich blessings of His pro idence and grace.

JOHN M. SULLIVAN,

Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth. Sale of the Main Line.

When the iniquity of the sale of the Main Line was consummated, the opposition were in a perfect furor of delight, and declared that the patronage of the line was the great lever with which the Democratic party car-ried the State, and that the sale of the line would transfer 20,000 votes from the Demoeratic party to the opposition! How now, ye miserable false prophets? Can you ex-plain? Instead of weakening the Democratplain. Instead of weakening the Democratic parts, the sale of the Main Line has actually strengthened it. The infamous bargain made by corruption has added voters to swell loui, Columbia county, Pa. the Democratic ranks and rebuke the plun-derers of the Commonwealth.
