Pennsylvania, 86: In the name and by the authority of the Com-monuscatth of Pennsylvania, James Pollock Governor of the said Commonwealth:

A PROCLAMATION. Fellow-Citizens :- To tender to Almighty God, who controls the destinies of nations and men, the homage of devont gratitude and praise for his goodness and mercy, is the appropriate and solemn duty of a free and highly favored people. As the giver of every good and perfect gift we should ever recognize His hand in our mercies, and acknowledge our dependence upon His Providence; and although adversity may throw its dark shadows across our pathway, yet we should be asured of this, "that the Judge of all Earth will do right."

During the past year the bounties of a kind Providence have not been withheld from our Commonwealth. Our free institutions have been preserved, and our rights and privileges, civil and religious, enjoyed and maintained. The arts and sciences, and the great interests of education, morality and religion, have claimed attention and received the encouragement of an intelligent and liberal people. Honorable industry in its varied departments has been reward ed; and although recent and severe financial revulsion has filled with gloom, sorrow and distress, the hearts and homes of many of our citizens, yet no fear of famine, no dread of impending public or social calamity, miugles with our emotions of gratitude past blessings, or weakens our trust for the future, in the Providences of Him who wounds but to heal, and "whose mercy endureth forever." A plenteous harvest has crowned the labor of the husbandmanpeace, with its gentle and refining influences, and unwonted health with its benefits and mercies, have been vouchsafed to us.

blessings, we should offer unto God thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the most High; nd call upon Him "in the day of trouble He will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify ety of this duty, and in conformity with established custom and the wishes of many good citizens, I, James Pollock, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby recommend Thursday, the twentysixth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and praise throughout this State, and earnestly request the people that, abstaining from their usual avocations and all worldly pursuits, they assemble on that day according to their religious customs, and mite in offering thanks to Almighty God for his past goodness and mercies; and while humbly acknowledging our trangression, and imploring His forgiveness, beseech Him, with sincere and earnest desire, to return and visit us again with His loving kindness, make us worthy of His bounties, and continue to us the rich blessings of His providence and grace.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of William Strong, D., James Thompson, D., Joseph J Lewis, R., James Veech, R., Jacob Broom, A, Jasper E Brady, A., the State at Harrisburg, this nineteenth day of Ootober, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven. and of the Commonwealth the eighty-sec-

Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

When the iniquity of the sale of the Main Line was consummated, the opposition were in a perfect furor of delight, and declared that the patronage of the line was the great lever with which the Democratic party carried the State, and that the sale of the linewould transfer 20,000 votes from the Democratic party to the opposition! How now, ye miserable false prophete? Can you explain? Instead of weakening the Democratic party, the sale of the Main Line has actually strengthened it. The infamous bargain made by corruption has added voters to swell the Democratic ranks and rebuke the plunderers of the Commonwealth. The Democrats have gained SIX members of the House and TWO Senators in districts through which the Main Line passes.

A few years ago, the smallest Democratic majority in Cambria county was attributed to the Portage Pullroad forces. The sixty or seventy majority in Gaysport and the forty in Juniara Township, according to the Regiswere always owing to the "bread and butter patriots" on the Portage Road, who were compelled to vote the Democratic ticket, or lose their situations. The State no onger owns the Portage Road, and yet Cambria county gives 1200 majority, and Gayincreases her Democratic majority TWENTY over that given for Buchan-The stale cry of public plunan a' year ago! ots, and other electioneering humbugs has the election just held, a triumphant refutaacknowledge that there is a little more involved in fighting to maintain Democratic than mere governmental patronage. - Hollidaysburg Standard.

The above remarks will apply with equal counties, through which the Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad passes, and which, while the State owned it, was always an eye-sore to the opposition. In Chester, where opposition majority used to be 10 to 1200, the Democrats have elected their whole ticket, Senator, Assembly and all-and in Lanwhelming majority of 5 or 6,000 against the Democrats, is now reduced down to 10 or the community. 1200, and we even succeeded in electing our candidate to one of the best offices in the
