

PROCLAMATION.
Governor Pollock has issued the following Proclamation, appointing Thursday, the 26th of November, as a day of general Thanksgiving and Praise, in this State:
PENNSYLVANIA.
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, JAMES POLLOCK, Governor of the said Commonwealth:
Fellow-Citizens:—To tender to Almighty God, who controls the destinies of nations and men, the homage of devout gratitude and praise for his goodness and mercy, is the appropriate and solemn duty of a free and highly favored people. As the giver of every good and perfect gift we should ever recognize His hand in our mercies, and acknowledge our dependence upon His Providence; and although adversity may throw its dark shadows across our pathway, yet we should be assured of this, "that the Judge of all Earth will do right."
During the past year the bounties of a kind Providence have not been withheld from our Commonwealth. Our free institutions have been preserved, and our rights and privileges, civil and religious, enjoyed and maintained. The arts and sciences, and the great interests of education, morality and religion, have claimed attention and received the encouragement of an intelligent and liberal people. Honorable industry in its varied departments has been rewarded; and although recent and severe financial revulsion has filled with gloom, sorrow and distress, the hearts and homes of many of our citizens, yet no fear of famine, no dread of impending public or social calamity, mingling with our emotions of gratitude for past blessings, or wakening our trust for the future, in the Providences of Him who wounds but to heal, and "whose mercy endureth forever." A plentiful harvest has crowned the labor of the husbandman—peace, with its gentle and refining influences, and unwonted health with its benefits and mercies, have been vouchsafed to us.
In acknowledgment of these manifold blessings, we should offer unto God thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the most High; and call upon Him "in the day of trouble;" He will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify Him.
Under the solemn conviction of the propriety of this duty, and in conformity with established custom and the wishes of many good citizens, I, James Pollock, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby recommend Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and praise throughout this State, and earnestly request the people that, abstaining from their usual avocations and all worldly pursuits, they assemble on that day according to their religious customs, and unite in offering thanks to Almighty God for His past goodness and mercies; and while humbly acknowledging our transgression, and imploring His forgiveness, beseech Him, with sincere and earnest desire, to return and visit us again with His loving kindness, make us worthy of His bounties, and continue to us the rich blessings of His providence and grace.
Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State at Harrisburg, this nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-second.
By the Governor,
JOHN M. SULLIVAN,
Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

STEAMSHIP COLLISION.
Sinking of the Steamship Opelousas.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The Texas steamship Opelousas, from Berwick Bay for Galveston, came in collision with the Galveston at midnight on the 15th inst. The Opelousas sank almost immediately, carrying down twenty-five of her passengers, including Gen. Hamilton, of South Carolina. All her officers and crew were saved.
The Opelousas and Galveston both belonged to the same line, and plied between Berwick Bay and Galveston. The Opelousas sank in about fifteen minutes after the collision. Eighteen of her passengers are known to be lost, including Gen. Hamilton, and the loss of life is probably more than this. There were fifty-six passengers on board.
The Galveston was somewhat disabled by the collision, but the captain and crew succeeded in saving the officers and crew of the Opelousas, and many of her passengers.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.
Hard Times! Hard Times! Enlargement—Enlargement. The Best in the World—The Cheapest in the World. Premiums to each subscriber—Every Farmer interested.
BAKER'S DOZEN. ALSO, every small plot owner. To meet the increased value of money consequent upon the "Hard Times," the publisher of the American Agriculturist is happy to announce that he has increased the pages of this staunch old Journal One Third, and doubled the intrinsic value. Each number will hereafter contain 32 double quarto pages, filled with plain, practical, reliable information, of exceeding value to every one who cultivates a farm, a garden; or but the smallest plot of ground. Ladies each volume of the Agriculturist will contain hundreds of excellent practical hints upon every department in-door, or household work.
Besides furnishing the largest amount of really useful information, prepared by a great number of practical working men and women, the Agriculturist is now the largest Journal of its character in the world, but owing to its immense circulation it can still be afforded at One Dollar a year, or for eighty cents each to clubs of ten or more.
A BAKER'S DOZEN, or 14 months will be sent for the usual price of 12 to all subscribers for 1858, (Vol. XVII), that is, all single or club subscribers for 1858, who subscribe now, will receive the two valuable numbers for November and December, of this year, without extra charge.
VALUABLE SEED PREMIUMS. TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER FOR 1858.
A large list of valuable Field, Garden and Flower seeds will be presented to the subscribers for volume 7, from which every subscriber will be allowed to choose three packages without charge!—These seeds will alone be worth the subscription price to many persons. Send in your names at once and get the November number, now ready, and the succeeding numbers promptly upon the first day of each month, until the end of 1858.
The best remedy for the "Hard Times" will be found in the "Agriculturist" (the best mode) in creating the products of your fields, orchards, &c.
Terms in advance—$1 a year, or 14 months now, 6 copies for $5, 10 copies for $8.
ORANGE JUICE, Publisher,
189 Water Street, New York.
P. S. TO PENNSYLVANIA.—The Pennsylvania Farm Journal has been merged into the American Agriculturist, and the Agriculturist is now peculiarly the paper for Pennsylvania Farmers.

NOTICE
TO the heirs and legal representatives of Yost Drieback, late of Roaringcreek township, in the county of Columbia, deceased:
You and each of you will take notice, that a Court of Common Pleas, held at Bloomsburg, for the county of Columbia, on the 5th day of May, A. D. 1856, the petition of Nathan Drieback and Samuel Henck was presented to the said Court, representing that the lands of the said petitioner, situate in the township of Roaringcreek, are now held in gate of pledge by two several mortgages, to wit: one mortgage in favor of Yost Drieback made and given by Samuel Henck, dated the 30th day of March, A. D. 1852; one other mortgage in favor of Yost Drieback aforesaid, made and given by Nathan Drieback, dated the 21st day of September, A. D. 1852; the first of whom mortgages is recorded in the office for the recording of deeds, &c., in and for the county of Columbia, in Mortgage book No. 3, pages 793-4, and the second of which is recorded in the same book, pages 791-6; that said mortgages remain unsatisfied; and that letters of administration on the estate of said Yost Drieback have not been granted; and praying the said Court to grant a rule upon you to show cause why the first day of September Term of the said Court, A. D. 1857, why satisfaction of said mortgages should not be entered upon the record by the Receiver of Deeds, by the action of the said Court; which rule, at the said September Term of said Court, was continued until the then following December Term of said Court: Therefore you are hereby required to appear on the first day of next December Term of said Court, to answer the prayer of the petitioner in the cases aforesaid.
Witness my hand at Bloomsburg, in the County of Columbia, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1857.
STEPHEN H. MILLER, Sheriff.
