THE NEW YORK LEDGER for 1858.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER for 1858.

THE BEST FAMILY PAPER IN THE WORLD!

All the favorite writers retained, and new ones added. Still greater attractions for the New Year. The circulation of the New York Ledger is now Three Hundred and Thirty Thousand Coples, which is greater than that of any ten other literary papers in America. The profits on this unparalleled circulation enable the Preprietor of the LEDGER to expend sums upon it which would soon swamp any ordinary publication.

A paper with a circulation of only a hundred thousand or so would sink under the expenses of the THE LEDGER in less than six months.

All of the old and favorite Contributors will continue to Contributors will continue to write for THE LEDGER as heretofore.

No expenses will be spared to secure others whose pens shall be considered competent to add to THE LEDGER'S atractions and usefulness.

News, &c. &c.

The Ledger is everywhere acknowledged to be the best family paper in the world—hence is extraordinary and unheard of popularity.

The Proprietor of the LED-GER employs the best talent, and by so doing makes the best paper in the country.

THE NEW YORK LED-GER is printed on beautiful white paper, and white paper, and is compose white paper, and is composed of eight pages, making the handsomest weekly paper in the Union. It is published every Saturday, and sold at all the news offices in every city and town throughout the country, and is mailed for subscribers at $2 per annum; two copies are sent for $3.—

Any person obtaining eight subscribers at $1 50 each lowest club rates }

A high moral tone characterizes every article in the LEDGER. In fact, the names of its leading contributors are a sufficient guarantee that it stands in merked contrast to a class a of weekly publications that have for so long a time flooded the country, but which fortunately for the morals of our people, are almost extinct.

Prospectus of "The States."

Which has been published near seven months, has met with such a success as to justify the Proprietor in cularging the Daily Edition to the size of the Washington Union. The States will continue to represent the sound constitutional principles of States rights which have ever been upheld by the National Democracy, but it will not be so entirely political that its columns will interest the politician exclusively, nor so subservient to party as to betray principle at the command of power, or disguise its convictions at the suggestions of expediency.

In addition to the discussion of important political questions, its columns will be devoted to the proceedings of Congress, to the current transactions of the government, to general news, and matters of interest appertaining to Literature, Agriculture and Commerce.
