

THE STAR OF THE NORTH.

W. H. Jacoby, Proprietor.

Truth and Right—God and our Country.

[Two Dollars per Annum.]

VOLUME 10.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1858.

NUMBER 4.

THE STAR OF THE NORTH

Office on Main St., 3rd Square below Market. TERMS:—Two Dollars per annum...

Choice Poetry.

Sparkling and bright in liquid light Does the wine our goblets gleam in...

JANUARY.

The year has but its leaves again, The snow looks like a glory train...

HOW WILLIAM BIGLER.

We take pleasure in quoting from the Pennsylvania, in referring to the satisfactory exposure of a charge of inconsistency made against our distinguished Senator.

OLD BIBLE.

The oldest book in the United States, it is said is a manuscript Bible in the possession of Mr. Witherspoon, of Alabama...

SUT LOVINGOOD'S DADDY ACTING HOSS.

"Hold that ere hoss down to the yearth." "He's spreading his sail-fly now."

enough to leap over such a place; a mule

might have done it, but dad warn't actin' mule. I crept up to the edge and looked over.

DUEL OF BURR AND HAMILTON.

Into the disputed questions relative to Mr. Burr and his times we cannot enter, for the simple reason that they could not be adequately treated in the space we have at command.

WHAT AN INFATUATED YOUNG MAN WOULD DO FOR HIS LADY LOVE.

For her I'd climb Parnassus high, And there I'd scan the weather, I'd wrench the rainbow from the sky...

Jefferson's Portrait of Washington.

Thomas Jefferson, writing to Dr. Walter Jones, in a letter dated Monticello, January 2, 1841, draws a living portrait of Washington.

THE LADY WITH THE RED PETTICOAT.

The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvania says of the red petticoat, recently introduced by the wife of British Minister Ouley:

GETTING OVER A DIFFICULTY.

A class which graduated not over a thousand years ago, embraced among its members one Tom Elliott, an incorrigible wag...

THE CAUSE OF SUICIDES.

The New Orleans Bulletin, referring to the suicides of Senators Rusk, Anson Jones, and many others who have destroyed themselves...

A SNAKE STORY.

We learn from the Albany Times that Mrs. Hays, of the town of Day, Saratoga county, N. Y., whose case was detailed some time since...

A BACHELOR.

A bachelor, after all his matrimonial attempts, pathetically exclaims: When I remember all, I felt like a rooster in the fall...

A WELL KNOWN POLITICAL ECONOMIST.

"We pay best, first those who destroy us—generals; second, those who cheat us—politicians and quacks; third, those who amuse us—singers and musicians; and least of all those who instruct us—authors, school masters, and editors."

THE DEVIL WAS CHAINED UP.

"How long is the rope?" "Oh, long as the dignified reply, 'it extends over the whole world.'"

A SON OF GALEN.

A son of Galen, who was very angry when any joke was passed on physicians, once defended himself from railery by saying, 'I defy any person that I ever attended to accuse me of ignorance or neglect.'

DEATH FROM THE BITE OF A CAT.

A clerk in the employ of McCreey & Company, at Andenreid's colliery near Jeanesville Luzerne county, named John Able, died on the 27th ult. from the effects of a bite of a cat received ten weeks before.

THE GLOUCESTER (Mass.) TELEGRAPH.

"From a somewhat careful estimate, we judge there is now lying unutilized on our wharves $230,000 worth of mackerel and cod fish."

A GOOD STORY IS TOLD OF A "COUNTRY GENTLEMAN."

who, for the first time, heard an Episcopal clergyman preach. He had read much of the aristocracy and pride of the Church, and when he returned home he was asked if the people were 'stuck up.'

THE STAR OF THE NORTH

Office on Main St., 3rd Square below Market. TERMS:—Two Dollars per annum...

Choice Poetry.

Sparkling and bright in liquid light Does the wine our goblets gleam in...

JANUARY.

The year has but its leaves again, The snow looks like a glory train...

HOW WILLIAM BIGLER.

We take pleasure in quoting from the Pennsylvania, in referring to the satisfactory exposure of a charge of inconsistency made against our distinguished Senator.

OLD BIBLE.

The oldest book in the United States, it is said is a manuscript Bible in the possession of Mr. Witherspoon, of Alabama...

SUT LOVINGOOD'S DADDY ACTING HOSS.

"Hold that ere hoss down to the yearth." "He's spreading his sail-fly now."

enough to leap over such a place; a mule

might have done it, but dad warn't actin' mule. I crept up to the edge and looked over.

DUEL OF BURR AND HAMILTON.

Into the disputed questions relative to Mr. Burr and his times we cannot enter, for the simple reason that they could not be adequately treated in the space we have at command.

WHAT AN INFATUATED YOUNG MAN WOULD DO FOR HIS LADY LOVE.

For her I'd climb Parnassus high, And there I'd scan the weather, I'd wrench the rainbow from the sky...

Jefferson's Portrait of Washington.

Thomas Jefferson, writing to Dr. Walter Jones, in a letter dated Monticello, January 2, 1841, draws a living portrait of Washington.

THE LADY WITH THE RED PETTICOAT.

The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvania says of the red petticoat, recently introduced by the wife of British Minister Ouley:

GETTING OVER A DIFFICULTY.

A class which graduated not over a thousand years ago, embraced among its members one Tom Elliott, an incorrigible wag...

THE CAUSE OF SUICIDES.

The New Orleans Bulletin, referring to the suicides of Senators Rusk, Anson Jones, and many others who have destroyed themselves...

A SNAKE STORY.

We learn from the Albany Times that Mrs. Hays, of the town of Day, Saratoga county, N. Y., whose case was detailed some time since...

A BACHELOR.

A bachelor, after all his matrimonial attempts, pathetically exclaims: When I remember all, I felt like a rooster in the fall...

A WELL KNOWN POLITICAL ECONOMIST.

"We pay best, first those who destroy us—generals; second, those who cheat us—politicians and quacks; third, those who amuse us—singers and musicians; and least of all those who instruct us—authors, school masters, and editors."

THE DEVIL WAS CHAINED UP.

"How long is the rope?" "Oh, long as the dignified reply, 'it extends over the whole world.'"

A SON OF GALEN.

A son of Galen, who was very angry when any joke was passed on physicians, once defended himself from railery by saying, 'I defy any person that I ever attended to accuse me of ignorance or neglect.'

DEATH FROM THE BITE OF A CAT.

A clerk in the employ of McCreey & Company, at Andenreid's colliery near Jeanesville Luzerne county, named John Able, died on the 27th ult. from the effects of a bite of a cat received ten weeks before.

THE GLOUCESTER (Mass.) TELEGRAPH.

"From a somewhat careful estimate, we judge there is now lying unutilized on our wharves $230,000 worth of mackerel and cod fish."

A GOOD STORY IS TOLD OF A "COUNTRY GENTLEMAN."

who, for the first time, heard an Episcopal clergyman preach. He had read much of the aristocracy and pride of the Church, and when he returned home he was asked if the people were 'stuck up.'