Published this Day, Feb. 9th, 1858.

Fift: Years in Chistins:
OR; THE LIFE OF AN AMERICAN SLAVE.

430 Pages, Cloth, Gilt Back. Price 31
This is the title of one of the most inteneely interesting biographies of the day. It is the plain history of an American slave in the far South, who after two or three escapes and recaptures, finally, an old man, found freedom and rest in one of the Northes States.

States.

What the Press Say.

The story is told with a simplicity, but with much power and pathos. Whoever takes it will find it difficult to lay it down ontil it is finished.—National Era, Washington, D.C.

A narrative of real experience like the above, with have far more effect against slavery than the ingeniously wrought novel, however true to life its pictures may be — Am. Boptist.

Here is a book of facts, stranger than fiction, and a thousand-fold more thrilling; a simple tale of life-long oppression, revealing truely the working of the "peculiar institution" in our country. To the story-loving we would say, here is a story worth reading — Mission Record.

A thorough Canvasser is wanted, in each county in the free States, to engage in the sale of the above work immediately. Such can easily clear from $50 to $100 per Month!

The work is beautifully printed and bound and is as large as the books that sell for $1.25; but as we mean to sell at least one hundred thousand copies, through agents, we have made the retail price only $1.

A sample copy of the book will be sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of the price, and our private circular to Agents, with terms, etc. Address
