VOLUME 10.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1858.

NUMBER 42.

STAR OF THE NORTH.

Published every Wednesday by W. H. JACOBY, Office on Main St., 2d Square below Market.

Choice Poetry.

THE FIRST DISAPPOINTMENT.

By Mrs. H. J. Newbridge. I saw a youthful mo her, Once on a summer day, Sat down a smiling infant To watch its frolic play;

Husband's Mistake.

We make a great mistake in our treatment of our wives; as lovers we are worshipful, as husbands we are too often harsh to them.

Wanted, a Live Woman.

Punch thus expresses his distress at the disappearance of woman from the face of the earth: "The are no women now-a-days. Instead of women, we have towering edifices of silk, lace and flowers."

COLLEGE YARNS.

INITIATING A GREENY.

By Harry C.

There's something rotten in Denmark.

Among the numerous new arrivals in the fall of 1855, was one whose uncouth appearance rendered him the observed of all.

Harry's Story.

"Harry," cried Nat G., bursting into my room, "I want you to assist me in some sport. It will be fine."

At Portland, Me.

A cute Yankee advertised a lecture on the "Humburg of Spiritualism," the point of which would be "letting the cat out of the bag."

Spelling.

Probably the worst feature of composition, be it ever so poor as regards construction and sentiment, is the misspelling of common words.

"Murder, fire, thieves, murder! Oh Lord, I shall die! Oh, mother! why did I leave you to be burned alive by these college devils?"

Correct Statement.

There is sound philosophy as well as good sense in the following extract which we make from the Allentown Democrat.

"Whatever may be the result of Tuesday's election (and it is too early now to know how it has gone throughout the State), there is one cause of felicitation in the Democracy, which must cause a glow of satisfaction in the breast of every Democrat who has stood squarely up to the landmark of the party."

Instructions to a Jury.

Judges in this part of the world, are sometimes far from lucid in their "charges," and in reality, quite as foggy though seldom as truthful, as his honor who addressed the patient twelve at the conclusion of a long trial somewhere "out west."

Indian Summer.

There is a time, just when the frost prepares to pave old Winter's way, When Autumn, in a reverie lost, The mellow daytime dreams away;

Legal Items of a Country Newspaper.

The Alleghany Valley Echo is a new paper just started at Emlenton, among the mountains in the Keystone State.

The Lawyer's Advice.

"Soon after I was admitted to the bar, I accidentally happened in the court room during the trial of some criminals.

Webster Matched by a Woman.

In the somewhat famous case of Mrs. Bogen's will, which was tried in the Supreme Court some years ago, Mr. Webster appeared as counsel for the appellant.

A Good Yarn.

Is told of Dr. Thompson, of Atlanta, a generous, good man, a tip top landlord and a wit; but he certainly caught it once.
