

Star of the North. BLOOMSBURG, PA. WEDNESDAY, FEB. 9, 1859.

COURT.—Pursuance to public notice Court commenced in this place on Monday last, with Judges, WOODWARD, President, KLINE and EVANS, Associates, on the Bench. The court business is being disposed of in its customary and legal manner.

SHOCKING OCCURRENCE.—On Monday night about 11 o'clock a frame house on the outskirts of Allegheny city, occupied by Mr. Rodgers a carpenter, was totally consumed by fire.

The fire originated in the lower story, while the family slept above, and the flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the inmates. Their charred bodies were recovered from the ruins to day, and a Coroner's inquest has been held, but nothing was elicited from the evidence to indicate the origin of the fire.

The father was intoxicated when he retired to rest.—Record and Emporium, Feb. 5

AN INDIAN dropped a letter into the post office the other day with the following memorandum on its corner for the benefit of all indolent postmasters into whose hands it might fall: "Please hasten the delay!"

George Sanderson, Esq., editor of the Intelligencer, has been nominated as a candidate for Mayor of Lancaster.

A DONATION visit, D. V., will be made for the benefit of Rev. Joseph Y. ROBINSON, at his residence, in Orangeville, on Wednesday, the 16th inst., to which there is hereby given a cordial invitation to the generous public.

As count is still in session we will not pretend to give any of its proceedings; but next week we will publish them pretty fully.

WE, this week, present our readers with the County Statement, of the receipts and expenditures for the year of 1858, which may be of considerable interest to some of them.

WE were again greeted with another snow storm on last Friday, but Old Sol again reigned predominant on Saturday, and succeeded in removing the greater portion; then to be on equal footing we had another storm on Sunday evening, but alas for the would be sleighing portion of our community it was but a small affair and is now all numbered with the things that were.

WE learn that Resh Jackson has received the appointment, by the Post Master General, to be Post Master at Dunmore, Sullivan County, Pa., in the place of George D. JACKSON, Member of the Legislature, resigned. We also learn that this is an excellent appointment and well deserved.

WILLARD CLARK, who has been confined in the New Haven jail for the last few years, for killing the young man who married his intended wife, is to have a hearing before the Superior Court, on the ground of the termination of his insanity as a reason for his release from confinement.

LINSEED OIL.—The bad failure of the crop of flaxseed in the West, fully, and, as the result has shown, accurately reported in this paper, last August, is now developing its influence, and price is now opening its stocks in all the leading markets of the country are unusually small.

WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT, the great American Historian, died at his residence in Boston, on the 28th ult. His death was quite unexpected, for he enjoyed good health up to 12 o'clock of the day of his death, when he was seized with apoplexy and died in two hours afterwards. He was about 65 years of age.

BRIDE JAIL.—The two counterfeiters, David Wilson and Thomas Jones, who were arrested and confined in the Bucks county jail, for passing certain forged notes, purporting to be issued by the Union Bank of Reading, succeeded in making good their escape from prison on Sunday morning last. The Sheriff offered a reward of $30 for their apprehension, and a number of the fugitives. They were found in a woods about two miles distant, by two farmers named Buckman and Shewell, and brought back to their old quarters.—Reading Gazette.

REFUSE TO PAY.—The Philadelphia Press has been reliably informed that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company refuse to pay the tonnage tax, imposed by their charter, to the Commonwealth, and intend to contest its constitutionality in the courts, as advised by their counsel, Messrs. Cuyler, Meredith, and Crittenden, in an opinion recently published. The amount due at the present time, for the last six months, is over one hundred thousand dollars.

A drove of 6,000 geese from the New York market were put on the cars at Winchester, Ohio, last week. The calculation of the owner was that the feathers would pay him for his outlay in raising them and getting them to market, and that the proceeds for the carcasses would be clear profit.

A MAN named Henry Swager died at Youngstown, Pa., recently, aged 96. He went there from Bedford, Pa., in 1796, when a single log hut was the only building that marked the site of the present town.

The citizens of the town of Bloomington, in Douglas county, Illinois, have recently passed an ordinance entitling women to an equality with men, as voters.
