BLOOMSBURG, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1859.

Democratic Nominations.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT,
OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,
JOHN ROWE,
OF FRANKLIN COUNTY.

Widening Market Street.

A project has been started by some enterprizing men of Bloomsburg to widen the southern extension of Market Street in this town. They had made considerable headway in the matter before the people found out was going on. It would have been a nice thing for some folks had they succeeded. For our part we are in favor of all such improvements when they can be made without injury to the people, but it does look a little hard that the people of Columbia County should be compelled to pay some seven to ten thousand dollars damages for the benefit of a few. But the people are awakening, and such a shower of remonstrances will be poured in to the legislature as must effectually kill the project.

As our friend Col. Tate of the Columbia Democrat advocates the measure in the stores and other public places he should have the courage to advocate it in his paper.

Republican Rumor.

We see it rumored in some of the Republican journals that JOHN ROWE is about to decline the nomination which he has received for the office of Surveyor General; that he is not willing to risk the platform; and that he entertains great fears of being butchered, or in other words, defeated. This is just the kind of a story they would have you believe; and it sounds not at all unnatural to us to hear the common enemy prating in this style If they could make you believe that Mr. Rowe or any other Democratic candidate placed no more confidence in the party than to decline a nomination, why just so much capital would be made towards the success of their candidate.

It is strange, but nevertheless true, that the Republicans are the first to announce the declination of Democratic nominees — How is this? Rowe is not a man of the Republican party? He certainly would not make confidentials of his opponents as far as regards politics, that they may reveal his secrets. If he even harbored such a thought, as declining, the Republicans would be the last men who would know it. He would inform his own party, the party that nominated him, and the party that is able to place him in power. Mr. Rowe has nothing to fear, he has been a faithful officer, and has discharged the duties pertaining to the office with the greatest care and satisfaction. He is a man in whom the Democracy of Pennsylvania have abiding confidence and highly esteem.

It is not customary for a Democratic nominee, standing so favorably a chance for re-election as Mr. Rowe, to decline. When such is the case the Democratic party is aprised of the fact (not through Republican Journals first) and steps taken to effect another nomination. Republican presses are not chartered to make the announcements. Mere Republican rumors in relation to political declinations are, nine times out of ten, false. They are given to misstatements at certain times.

Tate and the Delegacy in this District.

THE Columbia Democrat of last Saturday contains an editorial, stating that the editor of that paper and Maj. M Piatt, of Wyoming, were in last January, appointed representative delegates to the State Convention by three of the four Counties in the District. Now part of this is not correct. The Col. never had the appointment from this county nor from Montour, therefore he cannot claim the appointment from three of the four counties. In this county he could not be appointed only in county Convention; otherwise all Laws would be violated. As for Mr. Piatt we know not whether he had the appointment by three of the four counties or not; but the Col. had not, and when he publishes what is false we wish his pious readers to know it. Had Mr. Piatt been present the "test question" would have been, whether Mr Tate was entitled to a seat in the Convention or Mr. Weidenhamer. Mr. Weidenhamer had the appointment of his own county, and Col. could not say the same. As for the other counties Mr. Widenhamer stood a more favorable chance for the appointment as delegate than did the Col.

Tate would have his readers distinctly understand that he once voted Democratic. He was cornered up so close that he could not easily avoid voting as he did. We would not pretend to find fault with the Col's voting, as it was Democratic. But we will say that the Col's Democracy is like a wheelbarrow, it goes wherever you push it.

THE NORTH BRANCH CANAL has, this winter, undergone a thorough renovation. It is now in a much better condition than it has been previous seasons. Under the supervision of Hudson Owen, William G. Quick, and others, the ditch has been somewhat widened and deepened, which is a very essential improvement. Several new Locks have been put in, and old ones renewed, making the Canal in good navigable order. The water, we learn, will be let in on or about the first of April. The Canal is now in excellent condition throughout, therefore nothing remains for the boatmen to ask but for a fair living freight on all their transportations.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.—Gen. Henry D. Foster, of Westmoreland county, Col. Wm. F. Hopkins, of Washington county, and Dr. John Curwen, of Dauphin, Managers on the the part of the State for the Westren Pennsylvania Insane Hospital.

Death of Hon. Mike Walsh.

On Thursday morning, 19th inst, the lifeless body of Hon. Mike Walsh, was found lying at the bottom of a flight of steps on Eighth Avenue, New York. At first it was supposed that his death was caused by apoplexy, which occasioned him to fall into the place where he was found, but subsequently Bernard McGoffney, a peddler, unfavorably known to the police of that city, was arrested on suspicion of having murdered him. He had been seen in or near the vicinity where the body was found, early on Thursday morning, and one of the witnesses states that he resembles one of the men whom he saw running from the spot immediately after hearing the cry of "murder"—Mr. Walsh was for several years one of the most able members of the State Assembly of New York, and was subsequently elected to Congress. He visited Europe after leaving Congress, and passed a good portion of his time in the Crimea. He is said to have possessed a vigerous native intellect, and a mind which detested political falsehood and dishonesty, though very radical in his opinions and very bold in uttering them.

FRIGHTFUL, BUT NOT FATAL.—On Saturday last as the passenger train of the Catawissa railroad was tearing along down the mountain about ten miles above Catawissa some of the fastenings of the front truck of the centre car broke, and for a short distance the passengers, about thirty in number, had a jolting ride. The train had partly moderated its speed, as it was just approaching the longest and highest bridge at a place called Mainville. A hurricane was blowing furiously up the Cattawissa valley at the time, and just as the engine, baggage car and half of the second or centre car had passed on to the bridge, a blast of wind lifted the front of the car off the damaged truck, letting it down within a few inches of the edge of the lofty structure. The lateral motion tightened the alarm rope which runs through the train, causing the bell on the engine to ringr when the engineer promptly stopped the train. The rear car had not entered upon the bridge, but all the passengers knew that something was wrong. They did not realize their happy escape from an awful disaster until they had got out of the train and took a look at the car, hanging as it were, by the eyelids, 140 feet above high-water mark. Our informant states that had the train moved on forty feet further the disabled car must have been inevitably precipitated into the valley. There is a cluster of houses almost immediately beneath the bridge, and the inhabitants came rushing out, expecting, no doubt, to have a flying visit from the distinguished aeronants The accident caused little delay, the disabled car being left behind, and although all were badly scared as well they might be, nobody was hurt.—Pottsville Emporium.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES DECIDED.—The case of Washington Richardson vs. the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, which had been removed from the Court of Montgomery county, was tried this week in the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks county, at Doylestown. Major Richards was for many years in the employ of the Railroad Company, as Freight and Ticket Clerk at the Bridgeport Station, opposite Norristown. A year or two ago, the Company charged him with the larceny of the account books of his office, and had him bound over for trial. The Grand Jury of Montgomery county ignored the bill; and Maj. Richards then brought suit against the Company for malicious prosecution, claiming damages to the amount of $60 000. The trial was concluded on Thursday, and resulted in a verdict for the defendants.

A GRANDSON OF ROBERT BURNS, bearing the same name as his illustrious grandfather, is onw living in the town of Dumfries, where the poet died. He earns his scanty subsistence by teaching a few children. He is very poor, and, though the town of Dumfries celebrated the centennary anniversary of the poet with dinners and processions, this neglected relative and descendant of him whom all delighted to honor was not invited to join in any of the festivities.

NEXT GOVERNOR.—The Harrisburg correspondent of the York Gazette speaks favorably of the Hon. Jeremiah Shindel, State Senator from the Northampton and Lehigh district, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1860. He says: "Mr. Shindel is a native of Northumberland county—a fine English and German scholar—a high-bread Pennsylvania German, with a character as high as it is pure, and with manners so pleasing and agreeable as to win upon all who approach him. He is the very man to bring the Democratic party back to the days of Andrew Jackson and Francis R. Shunk."

FROM a Tamaqua paper we learn that about a week since, as the passenger train was on its way, between Cattawissa and that place, John Sharpless discovered that he had lost his pocket book containing about $300 in money, besides notes to a considerable amount; after making the fact known it was proposed to examine the passengers, all of whom, with the exception of one were willing to be searched On arriving at Mahony Station Mr. Sharpless returned in the Cattawissa train thinking he might find it where he had been. Notice, however, was despatched to Tamaqua, and on the arrival of the train the constable was in waiting with a search warrant; no passenger was allowed to leave the cars until the constable had made an examination.—As soon as he approached the above mentioned young man, he (the latter) unhesitatingly handed over the lost pocket book. He was taken to justice Conrad and by him bound over for futher hearing.

ON LAST Monday the editor of the Berwick Gazette, A. B. TATE, paid us a flying visit. He looked hale and hearty and seemingly in good spirits.

☞ MESSRS. LEIDY, KELLER, JACKSON and OAKS, have our profound thanks for documentary favors.

EXERCISES AT LEWISBURG.—the various departments of the University closed the winter session on Wednesday at 12 M. The examinations commenced on Saturday and continued till the close. Quite a number of spectators were present at those of the Female Institute, which passed off very creditable, under the direction of the skillful corps of instructors, presided over by their resolute, but lady like principal, Miss A. Taylor. The exhibition of the Senior Academic class, was held on Monday evening in the Baptist church, in which Shawloo, a member of the class gave an address in Burmese The Junior Collegiate class gave an exhibition on Tuesday evening. The students and young ladies nearly all left yesterday. We were not able to be present at the exercises, but learn the above particulars from one of the students.—Miltonian.

WHEN Dr. Franklin's mother in-law first discovered that the young man had a hankering for her daughter, that good old lady said she did know so well about giving her daughter to a printer: there was already two printing offices in the United States, and she was not certain the country would support them. It was plain young Franklin would depend for his support on the profits of a third, and this was rather a doubtful chance. If such an objection was urged to a would-be-son-in-law when there were but two printing offices in the United States, how can a printeter hope to get a wife now, when the present census shows the number to be 1,507?

It may be that this good old lady was slightly tainted with the same spirit that gives many of the people of our day such a horror for printers. Printing and freedom can travel together, hand in hand; but printing and aristocracy never can.

A New Counterfeit.—A new counterfeit $5 bill on the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank, of Somers, N. Y, has been put in circulation. The bill is printed on pink tinted paper. In the center is a picture of a women binding sheaves in a wheat field; a bull dog's head, with a key in its mouth, adorns the lower left hand corner, and on the opposite side is a picture of a girl with long ringlets. The back of the bill is stamped with five pictures of Washington in red ink, surrounded by circles of small figure fives.

OUR FUTURE.

The Pennsylvanian Democracy is like MILTON'S young man waking from sleep and shaking his invincible locks. All corruption and impediments have been sloughed off—all the crushing complicity with rascality has been removed and we stand before the people in the proud attitude of defender of popular rights and the union of the States. PACKER and his satellites are harmless before the unbroken column which we now present; for hundreds of the honest yeomen will gather to our standard, where one double-dealer have deserts. Heretofore we have been stricken down by secret foes; hereafter we have them in front. In the past, we were forced to bear the load of indignity which recreant Democrats heaped upon our shoulders; in the future, we shall present a bold and honest front to the enemy of American nationality Therefore are we stronger far, that we have been for years. Indeed no party ever stood forth so proudly as the righter of the wrong, and indicter of the guilty. This undaunted and loyal popular position attracts the sympathies of the masses—it confounds truckling politicians, and terminates the miserable clap-trap about popular soveriguty and Kansas. From the day of the last Convention we date the regeneration of the Democratic party, and an era of new triumphs for the friends of the United States.—Harrisburg Union.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM.—BURDELL.—The N. Y. Evening Post, through long affidavits made by two of its reporters, substantiates its recent charges against the notorious Mrs. Cunningham. By the advice of the editor, Mr. Hills, a reporter, was induced to examine the nature of the matrimonial traps in New York. He did his work thoroughly, and while pursuing it he was introduced to Mrs. Cunningham as a very agreeable widow. He knew her well and managed to have three enterviews. At the third one she proposed to make a punch for him to cure his cold, and she was anxious that he should meet her at a private room, which was declined. From the circumstances he judged that she wished to rob him, and he was twice forcibly detained when he tried to leave the house, outside of which he had taken the precaution to station Mr. Marsh, another reporter, who testifies that he knowing her, saw Mrs. Cunningham go into the house in White street, towards West Broadway. The identification of the woman was complete, and it is quite evident that she is continuing the games at which she is an adept.

Prior to the trial of Mrs. Cunningham for the murder of Dr. Harvey Burdell the District Attorney had a keen detective engaged in seeking her history. It was very voluminous, and disclosed a life that caused the prosecuting officer to use that powerfully vituperative speech with which he opened the case. Of course he could not tell what he knew, as it could not be introduced as testimony, but a remarkable history of the woman in existence. As from the evidence now brought forward it is apparent that the woman has still the same activity that has characterized her through life, it is reasonable to believe that she will continue till she is at last overtaken in some shame that will close her eventful life. The affidavits in the Evening Post show her to be the same desperate and avaricious woman that she was represented to be at the time of her trial.

MURDER AND A DOUBLE SUICIDE.—A terible tragedy was enacted in the town of Eusley, Newaygo county, Michigan, on Friday night, in which a young man named White was shot down in cold blood, and the life of his father attempted, followed by the suicide of the perpetrators of the horrible deed.

The Grand Rapids Enquirer contains the details, from which we learn that the alleged murderers are Jacob Dopp and Enos Merritt. Mr. White and family had but lately moved into the county from Elba, Gennesse county, New York. The son was a very estimable young man. Merritt was one of the individuals who were indicted with French in this county, some time since for horse stealing. Dopp, we believe, has been arrested once or twice for counteteiting, or passing counterfeit money, and managed to escape from the officers. There is much mistery as to the causes which led to this dark deed. The solution which appears most probable, however, is found in the fact that Merritt and Dopp seem to have supposed that White had money in the house. It is thought that their intention was to murder the whole family and then rob the house, and that the young man was enticed into the woods with the expectation that his disappearance would be occasion of fixing suspicion upon him when the murder of the rest of the family was discovered.

BECOMING DESPERATE.—We notice in FORNEY'S Press a call for what is called a "Democratic State Convention," to assemble in Harrisburg, on the 12th of next month. This call is signed by Gen JACKMAN, of Lycoming, and some 60 others—men who differ with the National Administration—and their object is to repudiate the action of the late regularly consituted Democratic State Convention. We regret to see this movement, and hope the 'sober second thought' and wise counsels may yet prevail, and the restless spirits who are so anxious for notoriety, and so bent upon disorganization, relent and return to the Democratic fold. The Convention, should it assemble, may perhaps be able to sow seeds of discord sufficient to defeat the Democratic ticket in October. This will be its object, and those engaged in treason like this, had better consider well the position they will be placed in should they follow up and consummate such an object. Most of the men engaged in this attempt at disorganization, are those who were applicants to Mr. BUCHANAN for favors. Their patriotism and honesty must be apparent to every one. We hope, however, as we said before, that this bold attempt at disorganization, by a few dissatisfied men, may yet be "nipped in the bud."

Their Occupations.

The occupations of the gentlemen composing the Senate of the State, are fifteen lawyers, viz: The Speaker, J. Cresswell, jr., Messrs. Bell, Baldwin, Brewer, Coffey, Finney, Miller, Palmer, Penny, Schell, Schofield, Shaeffer, Turney, Welsh, and Yardley; seven are merchants, viz: Messrs. Baldwin, Blood, Fetter, Harris, Keller, Myer, and Randall; two are farmer, viz:—Messrs. Francis and Rutherford; two are gentlemen, Messrs Steele and Wright; Mr. Craig is a lumberman; Mr. Gregg is an iron-master, Messrs. Gazzam and Marselis are physicians; Mr Shindel is a hotel keeper Mr. Thompson is a scrivener, and has acted many years in the capacity of justice of the peace. Col. Gregg is the eldest senator, and Wm. H. Welsh, Esq., the late speaker the youngest. The present speaker, Hon. John Cresswell, jr., has occupied a seat in the body for a longer period than any present senator; of the old members, Messrs. Gregg, Finney and Welsh were reelected of the eleven new senators, and those occupying seats for their first term are Messrs. Blood; Keller, Nunemacher, Palmer, Parker, Penny, Schindel, Thomas and Yardley.

Of the members of the house, there are twenty-two lawyers, twenty-nine farmers, ten merchants, five printers, two editors, two gentlemen, one iron-master, six physicians, one transporter, one millwright, one shoe dealer, three lumber dealers, one contractor, one shoemaker, two clerks, two surveyors, one cabinent-maker, two moulders, one manufacturer, three coal dealers, one brick-layer, one carpenter, one deceased and one occupation unknown. The oldest member is Judge Wilcox, of M'Kean, who is sixty-four—the youngest, S. Gratz, of Philadelphia, who is twenty-one. His deceased colleague, George W. Wood, was about the same age, perhaps younger. Three are over sixty; four under sixty, and over fifty; thirty are under fifty, and over forty; forty-six are under forty, and over thirty; eleven are under thirty, and over twenty-five; and three are under twenty-five.—Harrisburg Patriot.

DREADFUL DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.—Joseph Wright, of Cincinnati, was bitten by his dog about six weeks ago, but thought little of the circumstance, supposing the animal to be vicious rather than mad, and nothing occured to cause alarm until last Wednesday, when he felt a great deal of pain in the arm bitten by the dog. The pain increased and a physician was sent for who gave him a lotion, but intimated to no one the danger of his patient. The sequal is thus told by the Enquirer of the 15th instant:

"Wright's suffering increased, the pain extending to almost every part of his body, until Sunday morning, when he became raving mad and his disease was declared to be hydrophobia. He raved at times, and tore his hair and flesh, and foamed at the mouth, and screamed like a demon, presenting a sight terrible to behold. It was necessary to bind him to the bed to prevent him from committing violence upon himself, and often, in his exquisite misery, he prayed to be killed at once and relieved of his agony. The sight of water or the mention of the term, threw him into spasms, and he fell trembling and groaning upon the floor. Those who witnessed the poor man's madness, say they never knew before how supremely wretched man may be—it was awful to contemplate, and would have startled and horrified the dullest and most unimpassioned nature At last death came, in mercy, and touched him with the hand of eternal stillness. Nature was exhausted, and he expired about eleven o'c'k. night before last."

WHAT IT COSTS TO MANAGE ANOTHER MAN'S DOMESTIC AFFAIRS.—In Dutchess county, Henry M. Barnes sued Thos. N. Allen for damages sustained in consequence of the defendant taking his wife from him and depriving him of her society! The defendant stated that the plaintiff's wife came to his house in the night, with a complaint against her husband, and he suggested to her the propriety of leaving him; accordingly he repaired to her home the next morning, and in the plaintiff's absence took her away. The jury thought he was not a proper person to act as judge of Mr. Barnes' domestic ills, and allowed the plaintiff $800 for the loss of his better half.

DESTRUCTION BY THE LATE STORM.—On Friday evening, during the terrific storm of wind and rain, five spans of the bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad and Canal Company at Clark's Ferry, were blown down. Three spans were left standing in the middle of the river, and three men were upon these at the time the others fell. A number of rafts were broken in pieces by striking the piers of bridges along the river.

From different sections of the country we learn that houses were blown down, chimneys demolished, windows blowd in, and destuction generally was caused by the terrific storm.—Lycoming Gazette.

School Houses.—One of the Philadelphia papers, giving a description of a new school house, erected in that city, says, "Its dimensions are forty feet by eighty, three stories in height. Each of the stories is divided by glass partitions into four class rooms of equal size. All the doors open outwardly. There are two flight of stairs in the upper rooms, which are built outside of the main structure each of which is five feet in width."

THE SUPREME COURT of this State have affirmed the decision of Judge Hegins, of Schuylkill county, declaring the removal of J. K. Kerwson from the office of County School Superintendent, and the appointment in his stead of W. A. Field, by the State Superintendent, an illegal act. Mr. Krewson is therefore fully reinstated in office as School Superintendent of Schuylkill county.

Election in Kansas—The Governor of Kansas has issued a proclamation, calling on the people of the Territory to vote, on the 28th inst., for or against the formation of a State Constitution and State Government.

Chicago Grain Statistics.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The grain statistics published by the Commercial Express to day show an accumulation in store last week of 11,500 bushels, against 169,000 for last year. The amount of Flour and Wheat in store now and at the same time last year, shows a decrease of 1,154,000 bushels. The receipts of Wheat and Flour are equivalent to 1,040,000 bushels. The increase in the receipts of Corn exceeds 200,000 bushels.

NO EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.—It has been officially announced that there will be no proclamation issued for an extra session of Congress. It is said that the law, concerning the issuing of contracts will be carried out, issuing Treasury warrants—but as there is no money to pay them, they will be useless save as the basis for loans.

Sentenced—Daniel Eckert, was indicted for the murder of Simon Wilhelim, in Carbon County and tried by the Court of said county, week before last, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar, the costs of the suit, and to undergo an imprisonment in the eastern Penitentiary, at Philadelphia of two yeass.

The Artesian Well at Columbus, Ohio, has reached a depth of 1,891 feet, and gives some cheering signs of water.—The water is supposed to flow in sandstone veins, and the limestone now brought up is very gritty with sandstone.

A Mr. Beale, of Ohio, has received $800 from a railway corporation for having been ejected from the cars by a conductor, to whom he had refused to pay the extra five cents for a ticket purchased in the cars.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—A most erroneous idea prevails in this country in relation to hemorrhoids, or piles. They are suffered to drain the system of its life-blood, because, forsooth, it its deemed dangerous to meddle with them. Now we undertake to say that every form of the disease can be expeditiously cured (not suppressed) by the simultaneous use of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The former expel the acrid irritating matter which produces the hemorrhage, while the Ointment, acting as a balsamic styptic, closes the mouths of the relaxed blood-vessels near the terminus of the intestinal canal, and thus a safe, complete, and permanent cure is achieved.

FOR FEMALES.—It is a lamentable fact that so large a number of Females are afflicted with Irregularities, either refused or suppressed, which rapidly and surely undermine their health, shorten their lives, and oftimes render them unfit for those duties in life for which an all-wise Creator has formed them. This state of things need not exist when DR. WHEATING'S FEMALE REGULATING PILLS are so sure to bring relief—They are composed of materials, harmless to the most delicate constitution, put efficient in the highest degree in eradicating that train of diseases incident to the sex, originating from irregularities. They are no Nostrum, but claim for themselves virtues resulting from the use of those most valued remedies prescribed by the highest medical authority, Ancient or Modern. Many Females give way to despondency, imagining themselves in a confirmed decline. To such we would confidently recommend these PILLS, believing if there is a power in any remedy to effect a permanent cure, that blessing will ensue from their use. They are manufactured only by J. E. BOWER, cor. 2d & Race streets, Philadelphia. None genuine without his written signature upon each box. Price $1 00.

DIED.

In Bloomsburg, on Sunday morning, the 27th instant, after a lingering illness, Miss MARY E., eldest daughter of John and Catharine Snyder, aged 21 years, 7 months and 15 days

The deceased was a lively young woman, and possessed a kind and generous heart—She was a member of the Lutheran Church, to which she became connected some six years ago; and the oldest daughter of our present Sheriff. A short time previous to her death she selected a hymn, composed of beautiful lines, which she desired to be sung at her funeral services, and also her text, which can be found in II. TIMOTHY, IV. CHAP., 6th, 7th, and 8th verses. The following is the hymn:

SISTER, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of ev'ning,
When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber—
Peaceful in the grave so low:
Thou no more wilt join our number;
Thou no more our songs shalt know,

Dearest sister, thou hast left us;
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us:
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

In this place, on last Sabbath, March 27th, 1859, Miss MAGGIE YATES, daughter of A. J. and Mrs. Sloan, aged about 3 years.

The subject of this notice was a sprightly little girl, and admired by all who knew her. She is now no more to be seen in the family circle here upon earth, but has gone to a far distant home to dwell among the realms on high.

PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution established by special Endowment, for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in case of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment

The Directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of their Surgeons in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self-Abuse, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-Abuse, and other diseases of the Sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope,) FREE OF CHARGE on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of Sexual diseases, diet, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or treatment, DR J. SKILLIN HOUGHTON, Acting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

By order of the Directors.
