BLOOMSBURG, WEDNESDAY, AUG. 17, 1859.

Democratic Nominations.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN COUNTY.

Montour County Convention.

The Democracy of Montour met in County Convention on last Monday and made their regular county nominations.

Hon. SAMUEL OAKES received a unanimous nomination by the Convention for Assembly, subject to the District Conference.

The Convention concurred in the nomination of Hon. GEORGE D. JACKSON, of Sullivan, and appointed Conferees with instructions for the two ex-members.

As for Columbia county, we apprehend no difficulty in those two men—Oakes and Jackson—getting a unanimous nomination.

They are deserving, capable and honest, and in them we make a good choice.

WILLIAM C. JOHNSON, of Danville, received the nomination for Register and Recorder without a dissenting voice.

FREDERICK BLUE, of Liberty, was nominated for Sheriff over Daniel Woodruff.

WILLIAM SEIDEL, of Derry, received the nomination for County Commissioner.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS.—We wish the Democrats throughout the county to remember that Saturday a week is the day fixed for holding their delegate elections.

ITALY AND THE WAR OF 1859.—This is the title of a neat and well-written book, by JULIE MARGUERITE, with an interesting introduction by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE.

WE TAKE GREAT pleasure in announcing Wm. Saint Clair Clark, Agent for D. W. Clark's Great Philadelphia Gift Book Establishment, will visit this place in a few days.

PLAGIARISM DEFINED AND ILLUSTRATED.—In Rev. Dr. Adams' discourse at the funeral of Mr. Crockett the following passage occurs: "A very short time before he was to deliver his address before the New England Society at New York, I asked him if he had written it."

THE ATLANTIC CABLE is bound, it appears, to be able before long to convey news from shore to shore, across the mighty ocean.

THE STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION met at West Chester on the 2d inst. The constitution has been changed in respect to the membership of females.

DANIEL E. STICKLES, of New York, it is credibly announced, has voluntarily surrendered his claims to represent the Third Congressional District.

THE CHEVRIER P. MASSENE, CARGO AFFAIRS of His Sicilian Majesty, has presented his credentials in that character, to the Secretary of State.

ON THE 31st of July, 1859, by Rev. E. Wadsworth, Mr. JOSEPH McDONNELL, to Miss LORETTA WILLIAMS, all of Huntington, Luzerne Co.

ON THE 1st of August, 1859, by Elder J. G. Noble, of Bradford Co., THOMAS PELLER, Esq., to Miss ADA MCGRAW, all of Stillwater, Col. Co.

Near Millville on the 1st inst., EMILY and HARRIET, twin daughters of William and Minerva M. McMichael, aged about 3 mo's.

ON THE 12th inst., MARY ANN, daughter of William and Minerva M. McMichael, aged about 3 mo's.

Harvest Home.

On last Thursday the quiet little village of Epy, about two miles from Bloomsburg, was all alive with people.
