

STAR OF THE NORTH.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 5, 1859.

STEPHEN H. MILLER'S new goods will be here in a day or two. You may expect a handsome and large assortment.

Mrs. MARY BARKLEY has just arrived from the eastern cities with a handsome assortment of millinery goods, which she offers for sale cheap for cash. She has had considerable experience in the purchasing of goods, therefore you may rest assured in being satisfied with her selection. Give her a call.

Mrs. E. J. WILSON has just replenished her stock of millinery goods, and would respectfully invite the public to call and examine them. Her goods are very choice, and cannot help but please the most fastidious. A better selection of millinery merchandise is rarely brought to this place. Her place of business is directly under the Star of the North Office. Give her a call; her goods are of the right stripe, and she is an honorable dealer.

KEEP YOUR cellar doors tight, is the cry all over the country: and it appears to be necessary in this place. A few evenings since some pilferer entered the cellar of our neighbor, JOHN PERSEL, and helped himself to a rice pudding, pie, and some potatoes. The thief is respectfully invited to make another call, he can be supplied with quite a different load from the one he received—one that will hurry him to the land where travelers never return. Not over two months ago our cellar was paid a visit by these light fingered gentry, but it was a water haul for them. Alas! they found nothing but a few old wilted up turnips and potatoes, and an empty butter-plate. The old maxim was thus proved, that editors live on "wind and water." Never attempt to rob an editor—a bad business that.

On last Wednesday evening powder was placed under the dwelling house doors of several of our citizens and our office by some wicked hands. What was the intention of the perpetrators of this act we know not, unless it was to fire the buildings. It appeared to have been placed under the doors in the early part of the evening, as a slight sprinkle of rain fell between eight and nine o'clock, and dissolved a good portion of it. Our citizens should keep a look out for these villains. They should be caught and severely punished. It does not require a detective police to point out these scamps and have them arraigned before a bar of justice, where they would undoubtedly receive the punishment they so justly merit.

We give the following recipe room in our local column, as we think it will be of some service to those who are largely engaged as dealers in this kind of material. Recipe for Making Tattlers.—Take a handful of the vine called Runabout, the same quantity of the root called Nimble Tongue, a sprig of the herb called Backbite, at either before or after dog days, a table spoonful of Don't-you-tell-it, six drachms of Malice, a few drops of Envy—which can be purchased in any quantity at the shop of Miss Tabitha Teatable and Miss Fanny Nightwalker. Stir them well together and simmer them for half an hour over the fire of Discontent, kindled with a little Jealousy; then strain it through the rag of misanthropy, hang it up on a skein of Strechiam shak; it occasionally for a few days, and it is fit for use. Let a few drops be taken just before walking out, and the subject will be enabled to speak all manner of evil, and that continually.

We find the following Court proceedings published in the Miners' Journal of Pottsville, Schuylkill county, in relation to the stealing of a pocket-book from John Sharpless, of Catawissa, some time last spring, by Michael Graham:

Com. vs. Michael Graham.—The defendant was indicted for the larceny of a pocket book containing about $500, the property of John Sharpless, of Catawissa. It appears that Mr. Sharpless got into the cars at Catawissa for the purpose of going to Philadelphia. When they reached Ringtown he got up from his seat and walked out on the platform of the station. Immediately afterwards Graham got up from his seat in the forward part of the car and went to the seat Mr. Sharpless had occupied, or near it, in the rear end of the car. Graham, after a few moments got up from the seat and walked out on the platform, inquiring of the conductor whether he could lay over until the next train, and still reach Philadelphia by the next morning—to which the conductor replied that he could not. Sharpless discovered that he had lost his pocket book soon after he was out on the platform and went back for it. He had it a short time before leaving the seat. Search was made for it, but could nowhere be found.—After the cars had started again search was proposed among the passengers and agreed to. A slight search was made, but the pocket book was subsequently proposed by some one who thought he noticed the mark of a pocket book in Graham's pocket which he had not produced when the first search was made. This second search was thorough, and when they came to Graham he refused to allow himself to be searched. When the cars reached Tamaqua, a search warrant was taken out, and being produced by a constable, he then delivered up the pocket book which had been lost by Sharpless. The counsel for the defence contended that there was no evidence of a design to steal at the time the pocket book was taken, whatever intent or design he may have formed subsequently—and that he therefore was not guilty of larceny. The Court charged that his subsequent acts might be evidence of what his intention was at the time of his taking the property. The jury found the defendant guilty. Not yet sentenced. His counsel have moved for a new trial.

PROSPECTUS. A New Work by Emerson Bennett, Author of "Clara Morland," "Prarie Flower," "The Artist's Bride," &c., &c., entitled, "WILD SCENES ON THE FRONTIERS; OR, HEROES OF THE WEST."

"Westward, the course of Empire takes its Way!" This work is the only one in Book form, which for several years has emanated from the pen of the gifted author, who trends now alone the path once trodden by our own Cooper. It will contain graphic pictures of the conflicts of the hardy Pioneer, whose struggles and struggles with his Indian rival the tales of fiction and the tragic conflicts of the mimic stage. Also thrilling narratives of the daring deeds, the heroisms, the heroic devotion and self-denial of noble women, the mothers of the West!

Beneath the ever arching forests, hand to hand, and foot to foot, the intrepid adventurer has encountered in deadly combat the ruffian desperadoes who made their haunts in the backwoods, and his gallant achievements have thrown a halo of romance over the waving prairies, the grand old mountains, and the majestic rivers of the land of the setting sun!

Not are these pages wanting in those gentler scenes which make up home-life, and which are presented with all the skill and fidelity for which the author is pre-eminently distinguished. His delineation of Frontier character, and of the scenery of the Borders, has always the advantage of an accuracy which is the result of an intimate, personal acquaintance.

The work will be printed on fine white paper, in clear, open type, and appropriately and beautifully illustrated by the most skillful artists. 12mo. Cloth. Price, $1.25.

HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMOEOPATHIC REMEDIES. NO. 562, BROADWAY.

THE GREAT FEATURE OF this series of Domestic Remedies is that each particular medicine is a Specific for the particular disease or class of diseases whose name it bears, and may be relied upon for the cure of that particular affection. Hence, persons suffering from a chronic disease or long standing ailment, in trying a case of Humphreys' Specifics, obtain the particular one desired in their case, and thus themselves make a cure which otherwise would cost them many dollars, and no small amount of time and medical attendance, if, indeed, it could be obtained at all.

Thus multitudes suffer from Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Costiveness, Bad Taste, Coated Tongue, and Debility, which is perfectly controlled and cured by the DYSPEPSIA SPECIFIC. There is scarcely a person of this disease who is not promptly controlled and ultimately cured by the use of this Specific. Thousands who have suffered for years with this "Bilious Condition" having purchased a case of these Specifics have obtained a perfect cure and immunity from their old complaint.

COUGHS, COLDS, AND SORE THROAT which so frequently lead to BRONCHITIS AND CONSUMPTION, are all in their early stage cured by the COUGH PILLS.

Many cases of long standing Bronchitis and irritating Coughs have been perfectly cured by the use of these Specifics. Many persons have a specific liability to colds and take them from the least exposure. This will be entirely relieved by the use of the Cough Pills, as scores can testify from experience: So CATARRH is one of our most common and most troublesome diseases, against which the Old School Medicines and even Homoeopathic prescriptions, are of little use.— Yet hundreds of persons have been cured of not only recent and fresh, but even long standing and obstinate cases of Catarrh by the use of this Specific.

One aged lady in Syracuse was thus perfectly cured of a Catarrh, which had annoyed her all her life. And a young lady at one of our first class boarding schools, who was so afflicted with this disease as to require more than forty handkerchiefs a week, was entirely cured in a single week by this Specific.

PILES, bleeding and blind, is one of those common and obstinate forms of disease which are so difficult to cure by the ordinary methods, but which find an entire and permanent cure in the Piles Specific. True, time is required, but the Specific is pleasant to take, requires neither diet nor restraint, and being followed up a perfect cure is the result.— Hundreds of persons, in purchasing a cure of Specifics, have obtained a cure for this most trying and obstinate form of disease, which has been worth to them ten times the cost of the medicine.

The case contains the best FEVER AND AGUE SPECIFIC known. A remedy without any deleterious or poisonous substance, which not only cures the ague, and old, miasmatic ague, but may be relied upon as a preventive when persons are residing in a fever and ague district. It prevents or protects upon the same principle that vaccination prevents small pox or belladonna prevents scarlet fever, by pre-occupying the system with the true specific. Hundreds have been thus protracted and cured.

THE OPHTHALMIC SPECIFIC has proved a most valuable remedy for Sore Eyes, and Evident, for Weak and Buried Sight. One lady in Indiana, who had been a sufferer from sore eyes for many years, and for two years was entirely blind, was cured perfectly by the Ophthalmic Specific alone.

HEADACHES to which so many are subject, find a cure in the case of this specific which relieves at the time of the attack, and also one which corrects the condition of the system upon which it depends, and destroys the disposition to a return.

The Specifics for the various forms of FEMALE COMPLAINTS have proved invaluable. Old Standing Leucorrhoea or Whites, attended with debility of exhaustion, and for which other forms of medicine are of little value, are fully controlled and cured by the Female Pills; while the specific for Irregularities control almost every form of Scanty, Painful or Irregular Menstruation.

DIARRHOEAS & SUMMER COMPLAINTS in adults or children are controlled like magic by the Diarrhoea Pills, while it may be averted without the possibility of successful contradiction that the Dysentery Pills are the most perfect specific for that disease known.

Simple, free from irritancy, technically, and other diseases of children, the Fever Pills may be safely and surely relied upon. These Specifics of Prof. Humphreys, used for years in his extensive practice, and to the perfection of which he has devoted the resources of extensive knowledge, experience and study.

The public may rest assured that during the lifetime of Dr. H., no one has been or shall be trusted with the preparation of his Specifics, and he offers the guaranty of his professional life and reputation that they shall be just as he represents them.

They have now been before the public for five years, and have everywhere won golden opinions from the many thousands who have used them.

Simple, free from irritancy, technically, and other diseases of children, the Fever Pills may be safely and surely relied upon. These Specifics of Prof. Humphreys, used for years in his extensive practice, and to the perfection of which he has devoted the resources of extensive knowledge, experience and study.

Every Family will find these Specifics all they have been recommended; a Friend Reliable, Superior, Permanent, and their highest appreciation is among those who have known them the longest, and most intimately.
