STAR OF THE NORTH.

Bloomsburg, Pa.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 16, 1859.

Rev. J. G. Noble's Communication will appear in our next. We are obliged to crowd out several important pieces this week.

Charles M. Blaker, Brigadier General and Attorney at Law, of Bloomsburg, is appointed Honorary Agent of the Cosmopolitan Art Association for this place and vicinity. The appointment is in the right place.

We have been requested to announce that the Rev. J. R. Dimm will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association in this place, on next Friday evening, in the Lutheran Church.

There will be a donation given to Rev. J. F. Hornberger, of East Bloomsburg, on Friday next (the 18th.) It is hoped that the donors will be numerous and liberal, as their presents will be well deserved and thankfully received.

The Prospectus of Horrace Greeley's New York Tribune will be seen in another column of the Star. The Tribune is a good paper, laying aside its politics. It has a very large circulation, we should think second to no other.

The Rev. J. G. Noble is engaged in holding a revival meeting at Franklin, Bradford County, Pa., where some seventy or seventy five have made a profession of religion. This certainly must be encouraging to a worker in so good a cause.

We learn by hand-bill that Prof Price will give an exhibition of wire-walking in Berwick on Saturday next. He will walk a tight-wire from the top of Messrs Bowman and Owen's store to the roof of the Rising Sun Hotel. He performed at Danville on last Saturday with good success, giving general satisfaction.

We are informed of a painful accident occurring at Mainville, on the 31st ult. The only child of Daniel Brown, aged about two years, in playing about the room, fell backward into a bucket of hot water, so scalding it as to cause death in about twelve hours.—Col. Co. Republican.

Boys and Girls Own Magazine is a handsome little periodical, designed especially for the "small folks." It is really an instructive work, and deserves encouragement.—It will be sent one year, to any part of the United States, for Seventy-five Cents. Wm. L. Jones, Publisher, 152 Sixth Avenue, New York.

We are glad to learn, that Mr Geo W. Ramsey, youngest son of Mr. Daniel Ramsey, of this place, has been appointed as General Superintendent of the freight department of the East Pennsylvania Railroad. We rejoice in the advancement of our young friend, which is well deserved.—Dan. Democrat.

We learn from the last Sullivan County Democrat that a young man by the name of Adams, who was, at the last term of Court, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to five month's imprisonment in the county Jail, made his escape on last Friday night, taking with him a watch and a pair of pants belonging to ex-Sheriff Craft. This is the third prisoner that has escaped from that Jail within the last year without materially injuring the building.

County Commissioner.—Joseph R. Patton, our newly elect County Commissioner, was on Monday last duly sworn into office, Mr Henry Bittenbender retiring. Mr. Patton was handsomely elected over his competitor, Mr. John Staley, whom the Republicans lauded very highly for his official capacity and honesty. The successful candidate is now fully in his official capacity, and will be a careful guardian of the County's interests. The retiring officer, Mr. Bittenbender, has faithfully served his constituents, and retires from his official duties with the applaudit, "well done, good and faithful servant." His official career will bear inspection.

An Item of News.—Our readers expect us to give them all the local news, and make up the balance with items of general interest; and sometimes they expect of us a great deal more than they receive, never thinking what a large amount of labor a caterer for a news-paper has to perform.—The object of this item is, to apprise our readers, one and all, of the late arrival of New Goods at Mc'Kelvy's Corner, from the eastern cities. Their shelves are being thoroughly replenished with goods, such as any merchant may feel proud to lay before the public. They will sell cheap for cash, also exchange goods for country produce.

Buried Alive.—Mr. Job Johnston, while employed in digging a pit for the hoisting machinery at Grove Brothers' new Furnace in Danville, narrowly escaped an appalling death. After descending 30 feet the earth caved in, and buried him, to the depth of six feet. His friends having ascertained that he was still alive, made the most active exertions for his relief; but owing to the falling earth from every side, about three hours had elapsed before they reached him. He was finally liberated, chilled and exhausted. By the prompt action of Dr. Smington the sufferer was partially restored, and is now rapidly recovering.—Much credit is due to Mr. Grove and his employees, for their deep symphathy and active exertions, in behalf of the unfortunate man.—Montour American.

William Dening, a printer, formerly of York, Pa., has been re-elected High Constable of San Andreas, California.

An explosion of fire damp took place in the mines of the Consolidated Coal Company, on Friday before last, at Wilkesbarre, killing two men instantly.
