STAR OF THE NORTH. THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

Bloomsburg. Da. WEDNESDAY, NOV. 23, 1859.

THE Map of Columbia and Montour coun ties, it is stated, will be ready for delivery to subscribers in a short time

We would announce that the stores and places of business in Bloomsburg will be closed on Thursday next, Thanksgiving day. There will be divine services in the several churches of this place.

Is another column will be seen a com-munication from the Rev. J. G. Noble, of Monroetor, Pa. It is a reply to the last "squib," from the pen of the Rev. W. P. Teitsworth, which appeared in the Colum bia Democrat some time ago.

WONDER if the sagacious editor of the Columbia Democrat had not better pay a little nore attention to the catering of his paper than troubling himself about a certain appointment which he is said to be no more fit for than some of the individuals who inhabit Kraal. He's a wonderful man abroad !

We learn it is the intention of the Canal Company to keep the canal open 'til the 1st of January if possible, to afford Boatmen the opportunity of travel as long as the weather will at all permit. Hands will be engaged to break the ice as long as expedi-- Columbia County Republican.

temand, and supercede atmost entirely the tippet and victorine. The leading furs of last season are retained.

ATTENTION is directed to the new advertisment in another column headed "Adjourned Sale of Valuable Real Estate." This is real estate of Peter Lutz, late of Benton and contains all the editorials of the Daily and contains all the editorials of the Daily and contains all the editorials of the Daily is real estate of Peter Lutz, late of Benton

NEW AMBROTTPE SALOON - Mr. Henry Rosenstock, has fitted up rooms in the Third Story of the Exchange Block, Bloomsburg, where he has removed his ambrotyping fixtures He has been to csonsiderable expense and labor in preparing these rooms for operation. A window, of no small nsion, has been placed in the roof in order that the benefit of a sky-light may be used in his operations. Mr. R. is an ex-cellent artist, and his pictures excel, both THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE, in beauty and durability, any that we have seen executed in this section. He designs making improvements in the art should his patronage warrant bim in so doing. He spondence from all parts of the world, the serving of a liberal support. Call and see his rooms.

Court.—Next Monday a week the Court

COURT -- Next Monday a week the Court of Quarter Sessions for this county will com-mence in Bloomsburg, and continue one week, or until all matters are disposed of. The cases set down for trial are, apparently, of very little interest, and, comparatively, thew in number. A full report of the pro-ceedings will appear in the STAR after the Session closes. It is expected that there will be a large number of people in attendance; it being a season of the year our farmers throughout the County can best epare. We, no doubt, will have an opporunity of seeing a large portion of our patrons, and receive from them remittances for another year's subscription. This will be a very good time to "square" their subas the year will close in a few weeks, and we stand much in need of our money. There are many on our books who have not paid anything since our commencement. The most of them are men abundantly able, but very negligent in this respect. This makes it rather tough with the editor, when he needs his money to carry on his business. We trust that all those in arrears will come forward and pay up between this and the first of Jannary, as we must have money.

In Memphis last week, a gentleman from Arkansas lost $29,500 at cards. The game upon which the money was adventured, and lost is known to modern card players as "seven up," and will be remembered by the ancients as "old sledge."

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

THE TRIBUSE—now more than eighteen years old, and having over Two Hundred Thousaud subscribers, or constant purchasers, diffused through every State and Territory of our Union—will continue in essence what it has been—the earnest champion of Liberty, Progrèss, and whetever will conduct to our national growth in virtue, Industry, Knowledge, and Prosperity. It will continue to urge the emancipation not only of the Black laborer from chattelism, but of the White likewise from Land Monopoly, Intemperance, Ignorance, and that dependence on remote Markets which paralyzes exertions by denying to Toil any adequate and morally certain reward. Believing that the chief evil of our time is the mordinate multiplication and disproportion of Non Producers, it will continue to war against whatever tends to degrade Manual Labor or deprive it of its just and fall recompense. It will inflexibly commend the policy of winning bither from Europe the Useful Arts, and, wherever they may be needed, the Artisans as well, for whose products our country is now running recklessly into debt, while our laborers roam in fruitless quest of employment, leaving their children in want of bread, though the farmer is too often compelled to sell his crops at most in adequate prices. In short, while battling against Fillibusterism and every other manifestation of that evil spirit which seeks through the spoliation of other countries that agrandizement which is to be truly attained only through the due developement and cullivation of our mernal resources, it will urgently advocate a more effectively discriminating Tariff, the Freedom of the Public Lands, the construction of a Rail-troad from the navigable waters of the Mississippi to those of the Pacific, and every other measure which seems to us calculated to enhance the dignity orthe recompense of Labor and promote the well-being of Mankind.

Having made arrangements for foller and more graphic reports of the doings of Con-

There are several individuals in this place who think the Columbia Democrat the paper, and one is Col. Tate; at least he has said so. The standing candidate we suppose entertains the same exalted opinion of this paper, he did on the night of the last delegate election, when he was heard to "sing out three cheers for the Columbia Democrat."

O! be joyful!

Charles H. Noll, the barber, has lately opened a Restaurant; in the basement of his barber saloon, where all those who are fond of a "flunch," and a glass of good Ale or Beer, can be accommodated, at all hours of the day and upon reasonable terms. He intends keeping a tip-top eating saloon.—Give him a trial—wade into his eatables and thinkables, but be a lettle cereful of the latter.
