Now people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. The record of HERSCHEL V Johnson, the Douglas nominee for Vice President, proves him to have been a noted disunionist a few years since. He violently assailed Union men and Union measures, and absolutely earned great reputation and notority throughout the Southern Confederacy. The friends of BRECKINSIDGE and LANE challenge their opponents to point to a single disunion sentiment ever uttered by either of those gentlemen. Possibly no two public men throughout this broad country have so clear and patriotic a record, in this respect, as they have; and it must be indeed an unholy business for any set of men to create a belief to the contrary.

THE LINCOLN BULL BURSTED!-An en husiastic Black Republican, living at Bath. in this county, purchased a plump little Bull, a short time since, which, he announced, he was feeding up for a grand barbacue and jollification after Lincoln's election. His Bullship was put in the best pasture, and thrived prodigiously until the news rerched Bath that the Democracy of Pennsylvania, through their State Committee, had agreed upon a Union ticket, when, like the party that was preparing him for a feast, he bursted and gave up the ghost. His loss so grieved his friends that a meeting held in the vicinity on Saturday last, at which a Mr. Cressman and a certain young man from this Borough, acted as chief mourners.
