Election. Tuesday, October 9th, 1860.

Resolved, That the convictions of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania remain un-shaken in the wisdom and justice of adequate protection of iron, coal, wool, and of the great staples of our country, based upon the necessities of a reasonable revenue sys- and now ask credit. Just look at the incontem of the General Government; and ap- | sistency ! proving of the views of President Buchanan upon the subject of specific duties, we earnestly desire our Representatives in Congress to procure such modification of the existing laws as the unwise legislation of the Republican party in 1857 renders absolutely necessary to the prosperity of the great industrial interests of the State of Pennsylvania .- Passed at the Reading Convention, March 2, 1860.

Republican Love for the Irish.

The Black Republicans just now profess great respect for our Irish fellow citizens. In the infamous Helper Book, an electioneering document which these unprincipled men are now circulating broadcast throughout Pennsylvania, and which all the leading Republicans in the country endorsed, and to which William H. Seward, John Sherman, and five-sixths of all the Republican Congressmen of last winter, gave a special recommendation, the following specimen of bigotry and intolerance is to be found :-

"With the intelligent Protestant element of the Fatherland (Germany) on our side, we can well afford to dispense with the ignorant Catholic element of the Emerald Isle In the influences which they exent on society, there is so little difference between Slavery, Popery, and Negro Driving Democracy, that we are not at all surprised to see them going in their diabolical work of inhumanity and desolation."—Helper's Impending Crisis, page 83.

This is the love, the Republican leaders entertain for our Irish fellow citizens; who are now invited to vote for Abolitionism. and Know-Nothingism, and thereby vote away their rights of citizenship, and assist to place negroes above themselves, and even to elect negroes to office as has been al ready done in Ohio.

REPUBLICAN " PROTECTION."-Justice and truth, everything like fairness and honesty, seem utterly discarded by the Republican party. The Tribune, the Republican organ, says "A protective Tariff is the Republican creed ?" and W. C. Bryant, editor of the old free trade Evening Post, heads the New York Electoral ticket. He is the Republican candidate, and he says: "If Republicanism means protection to American labor, he does not belong to the party." So much for the "protection" of a leading Republican organ, and so much for the open declaration of the free trade editor who leads the Lincoln electoral ticket in the State of New York. This agrees, too, with their National Convention. The volume is com-Republican Vice President, Hamlin, an antiin, who was the bitterest enemy of Mr. Clay and his protection to American industry. Now see the astounding fraud .-This same Republican party, steeped in negro hypocrisy to the very lips, is practicing if possible, a still greater imposition upon the honest working men of our State-the productive classes of Pennsylvania.

Our Republican friends met in County Convention, in the Court House, at this place, on last Saturday afternoon, and nominated the following ticket:

This Convention was not largely attended well-furnished nearly, if not one-third of the Convention. The represented of Orange, George W. Lott, was chosen chairman : and | confession of its truth. Jacob D. Mellick and John Hartman acted as Secretaries.

Harmonious action seemed to characterize all the proceedings throughout the Convention, with the exception of the appointment of the Senatorial Conferees, when instructions were about to be applied. Some of the most active ones in Convention were opposed to instructing the Conferees, while others argued the importance, and that it was due Mr. Stewart, they be instructed for him. That truthful sheet, the Press, in its edi tion of Friday last, published what purported to be a letter from Somerset, giving an account of a meeting held there, at which the Hon. HENRY D. Getting Alarmed. Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana, have stricken alarm and consternation into the Republican camp. The divisious in the conservative forces generally filled their minds with visions of success and they fancied that the White House was already in their possession. But the sober second thought has already taken hold of the people and the conservative forces are rallying with a power and force, that these promulgators of treasonable doctrines never anticipated. The great danger threatening our country has awakened the dormant energies of a people who love their whole country, and everwhere the cry of union and victory is in the ascendant. Without the votes of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indithat the New York Tribune, and dred abolition sheets are sounding. They of the country-have become tired of abolitionism, and are getting aroused. These journals have been struck with fear and trembling. That Rail.

"A rail supposed to have been split by Abraham Lincoln, 20 years ago, was recei ved by Wm. B. Mann, through Hatden's Express, direct from Illinois, for one of the Republican clubs of Philadelphia, on Monday last. The freight was $2.00.11

The above is the substance of a paragraph appearing in several of the Philadelphia papers on Tuesday morning. We are able to prove that that rail never came from Illinois-neither was it split by Lincoln. It was sent from Williamsport, Pa., probably stolen from some honest farmer's fence, near that place. This is only one of the many humbugs got up by the Lincolnites to ticle of enthusiasm among the people, and the affairs of his office in a statesman like manner. There are plenty Democrats in Pennsylvania who are as honest as old Abe, and who consider it more honorable imagine that he can deceive any one is to keep on splitting rails and to vote for Breckinridge and Lane in November, than

He is presented, by his county, for re-nomination and election to the Senate, from this Senatorial District. There will be, from present indications, a tight and a long pull for this nomination .-Each county in the District has a candidate, with some pretensions to claims, asking for this nomination. To make the matter short, we hope the other counties will concede the nomination to the worthy candidate from this county, M. E. JACKSON, Esq.
