that advertisers would find it good policy to take advantage of the occasion, and let the throng know where they are to be found, and what they have for sale. During the Fair, especially strangers will read the papers carefully, and if in want of anything will note any advertisement that may attract their attention.

The Columbia County Agricultural Society announce $25 for the lastest trotting horse, while they offer not over ten dollars for any other article in their entire list of premiums. This does not go far to prove that the great object of this Fair is for the improvement of the Farmer.-Sunbury Gazette.

In looking over the List of Premiums offered by the Northumberland County Agricultural Society we discover that they announce $25 for the "best trotting horse, mare or gelding, in harness, open to all competitors, while not one other premium. offered in the whole list exceeds $8. Now, how far does this go to prove that the great object of this Fair is for the improvement of the Farmers ? The premiums offered by our Society will compare favorably with any in the State.

THE Republican of this place seems to be troubled about that Hickory Pole in East Bloomsburg. It stated that "it is reported that the hickory pole was cut without leave or license on the grounds of a staunch Re publican and is still unpaid for." The facts are these-the pole is a spliced one, and one part of it was cut altogether unintention. ally on Republican grounds ; the party engaged in cutting the pole had "leave and license" to cut it on the premises of Mr. DANIEL SNYDER, and they not sufficiently acquainted with the "party lines" got upon Republican grounds and cut part of their ole. The Republican friend has been tendered pay for his timber, and he very generously refused taking it. These being the facts in the matter, and the Republican scarce. ly a stranger to them, but still it would have its readers believe that the whole pole was stolen and with a pure intention of stealing. Be cantious, Doc., as you pass that way, lest the pole might fall upon you.

The people in this neighborhood know, pretty generally, that Mr. J. A. J. Cummings. of Chillisquaque, has been engaged, for some considerable length of time, in executing a May of Montour and Columbia counties: which, is now completed, and being delivered to all those who became subscribers. We have examined it some what carefully and found it to be the best local work of the kind we ever saw. It is corrcet, we believe, in every particular, and gives general satisfaction.
