Election, Tuesday, October 9th, 1860.

Resolved, That the convictions of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania remain unshaken in the wisdom and justice of ade quate protection of iron, coal, wool, and of he great staples of our country, based upon the necessities of a reasonable revenue system of the General Government; and approving of the views of President Buchanan upon the subject of specific duties, we arnestly desire our Representatives in Congress to procure such modification of the existing laws as the unwise legislation of the Republican party in 1857 renders absolutely necessary to the prosperity of the vention, March 2, 1860.

Representative Nominations.

The Democratic Representative Conferees of this District, composed of the counties of Wyoming, Sullivan, Montour, and Columbia, met in Conference, on Friday last, at John Deen's Hotel, in Danville, and unanimously nominated Col. Hiram R. Kline, of Wyoming, for Assembly. These nominations are right and justly deserved, besides the names of these men will add strength to the Democratic ticket. The Conference proceedings can be seen in another part of . Senatorial Conference.

On Monday of last week the Senatorial Conferees of this District met at Northumberland, and remained, balloting for a can- of this township. No person after becoming didate for Senator, notil Tuesday afternoon, acquainted with their designs and actions of same week, without making a choice, when they adjourned to meet at Danville, that recognize such an organization. They on the following morning, Wednesday -According to adjournment, they met on Wednesday last, and continued in session until Friday, when the Conference closed by nominating Hon. REUBEN KELLER, of Snyder, for re-election. Each of the counties, composing this District, presented a the vote of Montour, half vote of Columbia, and the vote of his own county, thus making him the regular nominee. This nomination was not effected until one hundred and three ballots were taken.

A New Book. We have just received a Book entitled "French, German, Spanish, Latin and Italian Languages without a Master," which we would heartily recommend to the public. . We have carefully examined it, and are fully satisfied that any person unacquainted with these languages, can, with the aid of this volume, be enabled to read, write, and speak, the languages of either, without the aid of a teacher, or any oral instructor whatever, provided they pay strict attention to the instructions laid down in the work, and that nothing shall be passed over without a thorough investigation of the subject it involves; by doing which they will find themselves to be able to speak, read, or write, either languages, at their will and pleasure The whole is contained in not over twentyseven easy lessons. It is well bound, as well as neatly printed. Price only One Dollar and Twenty-Five Cents. On enclosing the authorities of that place. He was escorted

Dr. Horlacher's Lecture.

Pursuant to public notice the citizens of The Democracy of Columbia Co in Motion. this place convened in the Court House, on Monday evening, the 17th inst., for the purpose of listening to the lecture of the great nediator between the South and North, Dr. ACOB HORLACHER, of Union county. The meeting was organized by the appointment | Cole, in Sugarloaf towp., Columbia county, of the following officers, viz:

President-EPHRAIM H. LITTLE, Esq. Vice Presidents-John Snyder, Ephraim

Secretaries-Williamson H. Jacoby, Michael F. Everly.

The meeting being organized, Dr. Hor lacher was introduced to the audience, and addressed the meeting over an hour in length, in an able and satisfactory manner, proving clearly and conclusively that the political opinions he entertained were in accordance with truth and righteousness, and that they were sustained both by the right thinking men and the Bible. His lecture here was well received; it was truthful as well as amusing.

The Doctor claims to be engaged in settling the great slavery question between the North and South; says he has been thus engaged for three years, and has been offered, repeatedly, money from the Opposition to quit the work, but he is satisfied that his cause is a good one, and his services much needed for the perpetuity of the Union. He thinks that slavery is right, and not an evil when treated in accordance with the Bitle. The Bible fully sustains him in his position as regards slavery, and he boldly challenges the world to discuss the subject with him. At the present time he says, the South has got two feet back and the North two feet back, thus making them four feet apart, which is all wrong, and he is endeavoring to bring them together again, upon moder-

Mr. Horlacker traveled through some parts of the South last spring, and it was reported that he was tared and feathered, which statement is without the slightest foundation. He stated that he was feathered every night while there, and it was just what he wanted, but there was no tar about. They managed to put him in the custody of a Sheriff at a certain place, upon suspicion, but after a careful perusal of his documents, he was liberated, and allowed to lecture. Mr. Horlacher will deliver lectures in Northumberland, Schuvikill, and Berks counties during the present campaign. He invites all parties to come and hear him, and if he is wrong, in any view he takes of his subject, he wishes them to correct him. Afte: Mr. Horlacher closed his discourse, a vote of thanks was given him, for his able and interesting address, when the meeting adjourned.

Danville Wide-Awakes.

cans of this place, through their Press and otherwise, that the Wide-Awakes, of Danville, designed paying our quiet and peaceable town a visit on Saturday evening last. Agreeably to their engagement, they arrived at this place about half past nine -They came by Canal boat, and landed at Port Noble Wharf, where they were met and escorted into town by the Bloomsburg Band and a few Republicans. Under the command of a Captain they marched into great industrial interests of the State of the Court House, for the purpose of listen-Pennsylvania .- Passed at the Reading Con- ing to a speech which was being delivered by Henry M. Hoyt, of Wilkesbarre. But the speech or place did not suit their tastes; they soon came out into the street, and done some not very creditable parading after which, we are reliably informed, they joined in a drunken revelry, and kept up their noisy merriment, making night hideous, until after 12 o'clock, when they decamped for Danville. Thus it will be understood Columbia, and Mr. Thomas Osterhout, of that they were infringing upon the Sabbath, and at such a time, when every man who has any claims to respect, should have been at his home.

We are not informed as to the number of these Wide-Awakes, but we do know that a good portion of them were unnaturalized foreigners and minors, not entitled to a vote. We have heard it remarked that a few more such exhibitions in this place would tend greatly to increase the Democratic vote would have any desire to belong to a party are already meeting with very little favor throughout the State. The better portion of the people look upon these Wide-Awake clubs as a low and degraded organization.

A THIEF ESCAPING FROM THE CARS .- We learn that on the morning of the 14th inst. candidate. The candidate supported by the an alledged horse thief, named Burton H. On stopping the train he could not be found. He passed out of the window feet foremost. A reward of $50 is offered for his recovery.

NATIONAL HOTEL .- This popular house ocated on Race Street, above Third, in Philadelphia, under the Proprietorship of Col. C. CARMANY, with Mr. T. V. Rhoads as Clerk. This is a pleasant house to stop at, every thing connected with it is calculated to your enjoyment. The proprietor is very much of a gentleman, and knows well how to manage a public house, both to the satis faction of his guests and his own interests. We would advise our country friends, when visiting the city, to give this establishment a trial, as we will vouch that every thing will be found right. The accommodations being so ample, and the terms so liberal, it is quite an inducement for travelers to patronize this house.

GREAT DEMOGRATIC MEETING.

Pursuant to public notice, the Democrats of Sugarloaf, Benton, and other parts of Colambia, Sullivan, and Luzerne counties convened on Saturday last,-the 15th of September-at the public house of Mr. Ezekiel and raised a beautiful HICKORY POLE, eightyfive feet long, without a splice, after which the meeting organized by the appointment of the following officers, viz:

President-JOHN McHENRY, Sr., A veteran Democrat of near eighty years) VICE PRESIDENTS. William Cole, Joseph Hess, Andrew Laubach. John J. Stiles, J. D. Harrison David Lewis, SECRETARIES.

Edward B. Snider, Thomas Seigfried. This is the first Democratic Mass Meeting held in Columbia County this season, and it was a grand outpouring of the ever-faithful democrats of that section of country, and gave unmistakeable evidence of their un- follows :wavering adhesion to the great principles New England, Nigger (very black) of the National Democracy. It was a telling demonstration in favor of the election of BRECKINRIDGE, LANE and FOSTER. In short, was one of the old fashioned Jackson Democratic Meetings.

Before 10 o'clock, a. m., the people bean to assemble, some on foot, others in carriages, and others in four and six horsewagons, with appropriate political emblems and flags waving. At about 11 o'clock the Hickory Tree arrived at the Fishermen's Hotel, drawn by seven voke of Democratic Oxen, escorted by an army of live democrats, and its arrival was greeted by nine rounds of hearty cheers. An excellent dinner was prepared by Mr. Cole, of which hundreds partook to general satisfaction .-

Col. Levi L. Tate, of Bloomsburg, was called upon the rostrum, and addressed the meeting in a speech of about one hour -He spoke of the errors of the opposition, exposed their past corruption and present political hypocrisy, in plain and scathing terms, and proved his points, as he advanced, from the public records. He ably defended the principles and measures of the Democratic party, from the days of Jefferson and Jackson, down to the Administration of James Buchanan, showing clearly that it is now, as it was then, one and the same; and closed his remarks by an earnest appeal to the audience, in support of the UNION TICKET, and the consequent certain election of BRECKINRIDGE, LANE and FOSTER.

Mr. Edward B. Snider, of Phelpsville, Sullivan county, was loudly called for, and like a noble young democrat, he took the stand and bravely responded in a neat and telling speech. Mr. Snider spoke mainly in support of the election of Gen. HENRY D. FOSTER to the Gubernatorial Chair of Timely notice was given by the Republi- Pennsylvania. He then glanced at the aspect of National politics, and concluded his brief address amidst rounds of applause.

Mr. Alem B. Tate, editor of the Berwick Gazette, was next called to the speaker's stand. He had taken some pains to prepare for the occasion, by committing his thoughts to paper, and delivered in a creditable style and clear voice, a lengthy and appropriate democratic address. Mr. Tate's speech comprehended the main issues of the campaign, rather judiciously arranged, and was received with marked attention and apparent

Mr McHenry, the venerable and honorable President of the Meeting, then addressed the audience, in "thoughts that breathed and words that burned," making-without disparagement to any of the other speakers -the best speech of the day. He gave, in brief, the history of the two parties during the past eighty-years, attesting the fidelity and consistency of the democracy, and with to beware of the treason of the wily opposition. Mr. McHenry then announced the meeting adjourned, which was done with peals of cheers for "John McHenry and Democracy."

State or a section of country, who conceive it to be against their interest to have such a duty, will oppose it. It is a question of Dollars and Cents, and as such a question, it will be regarded favorably or unfavorably as it affects the interests of any particular locality Therefore we find in Pennsylvania and New Jersey the masses of both political parties are in favor of an increased duty on trop, whilst the Western and North Western States regard such a Tariff as burdensome to them. The New England States are in opposition to any increased duties .-Why? The answer is obvious. Because they were never before in so prosperous a condition as they are now, under the Tariff of 1857, by which tariff they protect themselves by taking the duty off the constituents, of which the manufactured article is composed, and not by imposing a duty on the article ready for the consumer. If then such is the case, has Pennsylvania any ratriotic zeal, admonished his young friends hope for protection to her interests? They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the took in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have 60 per-onal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally pave written to deceive."

-Daily Republican, Buffalo, N. Y. The Sunny South- "This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern lite, and are peaned without prejudice .-They present scenes quite different from an 'Unc'e Tom's Cabin," the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors. - Boston Darly Bee.

The Sunny South-"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully horl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in housands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year."-Times, Greensboro,

The Sunny South-"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading their over the country, and his system of transacting pusiness may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, pnegualled as well as wisely, did Milton write, 'We by any in the country. We commend this book to all."-Daily News.

The Sunny South-"This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authorers is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style,deline tes the peculiarities of a Southern Lome "-Press.

The Sunny South- Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular corrency, and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southof the graphic Professor. It is vivid in siyle, keenly observant, interasting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers."-
