CHAS. W. DEAN,
WHOLESALE DEALER IN
French and German Baskets, Wood and Willow Ware, Notions, Brushes, Oil Cloths, Cotton Laps, Wadding, Carpet Chain, &c. No. 119 MARKET STREET, below 2d, (north side) Philadelphia.

The subscriber has just opened an entire new and complete stock of goods of the best quality and description, to which he would respectfully call the attention of Merchants and Dealers who wish to find a good article CHEAP FOR CASH.

These goods were bought for Net Cash, at the greatly reduced prices consequent upon the stringency of the times, and believing the "nimble sixpence" to be better than the "slow shilling," they are now offered to the public at prices they defy competition.

The following are a few of the articles always on hand:

Paits and Tubs of all kinds and qualities, Toy Paits, Salt and Sugar boxes, Hat Boshes and Peck Measures, Well Buckets, Towel Rollers, Patent, head and straight clothes pins, wash boards, wooden mop handles, Grain scoops, Toy saws, brooms, brooms, every variety, shoe paint scrub and sweep brushes, &c.

Blothes, brushes, Baskets, willow and rattan chairs, straw mats, bird cages, clothes lines, bed cords, skirt cords, tie yarn, twines of all kinds, together with a large assortment of Notions and Fancy Goods. Hosiery, Gloves, Shirts, Drawers, Threads, &c., cheap from auction.

These goods are all new and carefully selected, and are offered at prices that cannot fail to attract attention.

Buyers will invariably find it to their own interest to call before purchasing elsewhere.

Particular attention given to packing goods for shipment, so as to prevent damage or excessive charges for freight.

Orders by Mail promptly attended to.

WYOMING HOUSE,
J. R. LAY COOK, PROPRIETOR,
WYOMING, LUZERNE COUNTY, PENN.

The Proprietor respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken charge of the Wyoming House, in the village of Wyoming, near the Railroad Depot of that place, and has fitted it out so as to entertain both transient and permanent visitors in a suitable and comfortable manner. His rooms are spacious and airy, and not only calculated to add to the convenience and comfort of the traveling community, but also to those who would seek a pleasant summer resort with families.

His TABLE will be supplied with the best of the market can afford; and his BAR will be furnished with the purest liquors that can be obtained. The proprietor will give his exclusive attention to the comfort and convenience of his guests, and is determined to make the WYOMING HOUSE rank among the first hotels in the State.

The Proprietor hopes that from his experience in the business, and by unremitting attention on his part, combined with a judicious selection of the most careful and obliging servants, he may be entitled to the favorable consideration of the public, and receive a liberal share of their patronage.

Please give him a call and judge for yourselves.

STILL ANOTHER ATTEMPT.
October 18th, 1858—Three thieves entered the flouring-mill of Messrs. Dorrance & Doron, Bristol, Pa., and tried all night to blow open their Safe, with powder, which had $250 in cash, but did not succeed in getting it open. Their Salamander Safe was manufactured by

EVANS & WATSON.
GREAT SAFE ROBBERY AT NORRISTOWN,
DECEMBER 1st, 1858—Some time last night, the flouring-mill of Mr. Joseph Fezore, in Norristown, Pa., was entered and one of Farrell, Herring, & Co's best Patent Fire Proof Lock and Safe and $1,600 in cash taken out and carried away. This Safe is now in Evans & Watson's store, No. 26 South Fourth Street, where we most respectfully invite the public to call and examine it.

WAS BLOWN OPEN WITH POWDER,

N. B.—We find in the Press, December 4th, the following: "All the Safes are warranted to be perfect satisfaction, or the money will be returned."
"FARRELL, HERRING & CO."
We, EVANS & WATSON, would ask all parties having Farrell, Herring & Co's Patent Champion Safes, to take advantage of the above offer, and return them and get their money, as they will find that the Safes are filled (a large portion being oil of vitriol) will eat out all the iron. A specimen of their Champion Safes may be seen in front of our store, which is eaten full of holes now.
EVANS & WATSON,
No. 26 South Fourth Street.

[From The Press of the 4th ult.]
Farrell, Herring & Co's Patent Champion Safes, the only Safes made in the city which have never been robbed by burglars, or had their contents destroyed by accidental fires. Evans & Watson's Philadelphia answer to a New York Humberg.

We, the undersigned citizens of St. Joseph, Mo., do hereby certify that the Iron Safe belonging to C. E. Baldwin, made by Farrell & Co., No. 34 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, which was in the fire that occurred here, is not fire-proof, and is useless as a fire proof Safe, that the books, papers, jewelry, &c., which were in the Safe at the time, were much injured; also, that the building which it was in was of frame and only one story high, and that a fire so trifling as the one which burned over the said Safe was not sufficient to have injured any Safe purporting to be fire-proof.

TO THE FASHIONABLE AND OPULENT
THE undersigned having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the neatest and best fitting suits of Clothes that have been turned out lately; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shops are at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he may at all times be found, seated upon the bench of experience steadily drawing out the threads of affliction, hoping it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailors must live, or they can't be expected to work. Therefore Wheat Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all now and then a little CASH will come mighty handy to need for those who are back-standing on their heels.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves the no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, derangement of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:—

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Miasmatic Strain, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headache, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Eruptions on the Face, &c., &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation could render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if justice returned from protracted trial in a distant land. Some very singular instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and over-exertion, a distinct and specific aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-stimulating; it gently, regularly and steadily restores the morbid cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, ordinating a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its cases, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In checked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, continued, emaciating, and apparently malignant, this medicinal agent has been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarms of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicinal iron has had for more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restoration, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative and its progress to the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and truly restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual degree of activity and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
