AN aperient and Stomachie preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by mount of money. The thieves entered the combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by building in the rear, broke the doors, and the highest Medical Amherities, both in Europe and the United States, and presenbed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaci ation, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Diarrhora Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofe lous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismen struction, Whiles, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headsches, Rhenmatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face,

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an exand $1,600 in eash taken out and carried tent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddealy re-appeared in the busy world as if justice returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers. emaciated victims of apparent marasmus. sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes. and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name. In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regplarly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or indicting a disagreeable It is this latter proper'y, among others.

which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them. In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its eauses, a single fox of these Chalybeate

Pills has often sufficed for the most nabigual cases, including the attendent Costiveness. In unchecked Diarrhoga, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emanciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent building which it was in was of frame and hectic, which generally indicate incipient only one story high, and that a fire so tri- Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several
