Election, Tuesday, October 9th, 1860.

To the Democrats of Columbia County.

Has it occurred to you that we are within two weeks of the time when the issue court of the people, from which there is no moment upon the importance of achieving especially of the editor of the Republican the polls.

cratic party of the country is in great dan- tend to quality Mr. Curtin for the Gubernager of a defeat. Nor is there any use to torial chair the people should be informed. attempt to disguise the fact. The clashing ambitions and the bad passions of some to whom we have unwisely assigned the position of "leaders," have divided our powerful organization and rendered our triumph in the national struggle doubtful or worse than doubtful. But this is no reason why every man who calls himself a Democrat notice. The meeting was organized by bottom! should not turn out and vote. "All is not calling Hon. John McReynolus to the lost that is in danger;" and bad as our Presidential prospects must be admitted to look at the present moment, some happy turn of fortune may yet save the country the awful affliction of a Republican tri-

But laying aside the Presidential onestion-and the further it can be put out of sight just now the better-there is much to induce all good Democrats to attend the election on the second Tuesday of October. The ticket to be voted for on that day is a very full one. The offices to be filled are important-Governor, Congress, the Legislature and three of the principal County offices. Thus, National, State and County affairs combine to give interest and importance to the October election.

For the office of Governor we have on the one side HENRY D. FOSTER and on the other ANDREW G. CURTIN. Whoever knows both of these men and is candid enough to admit the truth, must confess that any comparison which might be instituted between them would make to the advantage of Foster. He has a reputation for honesty which no amount of calumny could taint with the least suspicion. His solid talents are acknowledged by all. He has learned the State for President, by which plan he to know the wants and wishes of the people by long and intimate association with them as a private citizen and as a public man. And although he has never hanted public station, he has served long enough in the councils of the State and of the Nation, to have become perfectly fa miliar with the transaction of public affairs.

The Author of the Irrepressible Conflict.

We believe Mr. Lincoln claims to be the author of the "irrepressible conflict" idea. At least, we find him giving it utterance in his speech at Springfield, Illinois, on the 17th of Jane, 1853. We quote from the volume of Debates between Lincoln and Douglas, page 1. Mr. Lincoln said :

"We are now far into the fifth year since cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved; I do not expect the bouse to fall; but I do expect it will cease to be divided It will become all one thing or all the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is in the course of ultimate extinction, or become alike lawful in all the States, old as well as new, North as well as South."

How little this man understands the true theory of our Government-the theory that established State governments to make laws to meet the exigencies, condition, climate, soil, &c., of each State, and to regulate their own affairs in their own way. There is no division of the house against itself in the Constitution; it exists only in the efforts of such favatics as Abraham Lincoln to create strife, stir up discords, set brother against brother, and father against son, in our great and happy house hold of confederated

The Republican Nailing Slanders.

It would appear by the last few numbers of the Republican that it has taken the contract of nailing slanders, which it claims are "started" to damage Col. Curtin." It floonders and splurges considerably in attempting to "bail" a slander on the STAR OF THE NORTH in relation to the "Dutch Skull' story. It speaks of "honorable men never resorting to dishonorable means," and when they do so it only goes to exhibit the weakness of their cause. Now we did think the editor of that astute sheet was a more careful and assidious reader of the STAR than he really is. He has asked us repeatedly to retract this "Skull" story, a story which we have not assisted in circulating in any manner-not a line of it ever appeared in our paper. Had we not heard Mr. Curtin attempt to deny this "Dutch Skull" report, when delivering a speech in this place, probably we should have published it. But we came to the conclusion that he (Curtin) gave the "report" a very good circulation We actually pitied him when he was attempting to explain and contradict the story, for his very countenance and manner in which he talked did not justify him in what he said in relation to the matter. We are perfectly satisfied that the Republican and Curtin shall tell the story as it will have good effect without our giving it an insertion in the STAR.

It is very unfortunate for the Republican party that they should have such a man as Andrew G. Curtin imposed upon them as their nominee for Governor-a man who is said to be guilty of so many trifling and despicable tricks. A man who can come before the people with no cleaner public record than Andrew G. Cartin had better remain in the ranks of private life, and not allow his unwholesome acts to be exposed. It has been said that where there was so much smoke there must be some fire. And we have came to the conclusion there is some inined between us and our political op- fire, for the Republicans appear to be getponents will be decided before the high ting very much warmed over the reports which are being daily circulated about appeal? If you will cast your glance for their Know-Nothing candidate for Governor ward to the second Tuesday of October. We publish an article in another column of you will perceive that it is not quite two our paper, which speaks rather plainly of weeks distant; and if you will reflect for a Curtin, to which we would invite attention, a Democratic victory on that day, we are If our columns are not too much crowded sure you will arrange your business in a next week we shall re-publish the letter of way that will enable you to be present at Mr. R Pickard, of Middleburg, in relation to the shooting of a dog, one of Curtin's There is no use denying that the Demo- brave and noble acts. ### Ratification Meeting.

At the instance of a few Democrats a kind of spirit is infused into our ranks. meeting was called at the Court House on Chair, and making Messrs. David Lingenberg and J. B Knittle, Vice Presidents,-M. E. Woodward and the Editor of this paper,

On motion of E. H. Little, Esq , Stephen H. Miller and Emannel Lazarus were appointed a Committee to wait upon the speakers and invite them to address the meet-

In due season they made their appearance, accompanied by the speakers. Hon, WILLIAM M. PIATT, who was a prominent candidate before the Congressional Conference for a nomination, was first introduced to the meeting, and made a very pleasing and well-timed speech. He fully endorsed the nomination of David R. Randell, of Luzerne, for Congress, but still thought had he been treated fairly he would at that present time, have been the nominee. He for one was willing to abide the decision of the Conference and do service for the nominee. He admonished his Democratic friends to stick to the ticket and make strong exertions to secure the election of our noble candidate for Governor, Henry D. Foster, after which the Democracy would in some way manage to carry thought it best not to inform the Republicans at present. The speaker exhibited much earnestness and candor in his remarks, and was frequently applauded by the audience in such a manner as to show that a warm feeling was manifest for him in the hearts of the people.

E. B. Chase, Esq., of Wilkesbarre, was next called for, who came forward and made some pointed remarks which were well received. He touched the principal issues of the present campaign, as well as gave a pretty general exposition of the past catch-trap plans of the Opposition to gain power, showing clearly that they never accomplished anything without some cheat connected with it. He pictured out Mr. taries-Messrs. Aaron Andrews, D A. Hess. Scranton as an anti-tariff man to the great dissatisfaction of all his Republican hearers. a policy was initiated with the avowed object and confident promise of putting an He proved that Scranton was not a sincere end to slavery agitation. I believe this Government him to practice that deception and cheat him to practice that deception and cheat upon them at the coming election. He (Scranton) will be compelled to enter this campaign as a Republican upon his own true issue-and as such receive support. Mr. Chase closed his remarks amidst rap-

> On motion of Col. L. L. Tate Judge Merrifield was invited to speak, who responded in a few neat and candid remarks. He spoke well of his friend and neighbor, DAVID R. RANDALL, the regular nominee for Congress, and hoped that he (Mr. Randall) would receive the united Democratic snp. port throughout the District which must insure his election. Mr. Merrifield presented the nominee as a man every way qualified for the position which he was named-a lawser of the first class, and a perfectly McReynolds. If we mistake not. Mr. Merrifield stated that Geo. W. Scranton told him, that he (Scranton) was as good a Democrat as he (Merrifield) was; that he had voted for James Buchanan, Bigler and Packer, and of Previdence, Luzerne county, for Congress. if elected he intended to sustain Buchanan's Administration. This was the course pursued by Mr. Scranton to catch honest Democratic votes. We need not ask how well he sustained the administration or his position. He gained votes upon the desentation that he was a tariff man, and that if elected he would do all in his power to effect a judicious tariff. His whole course while at he really was to the tariff His first move. was to throw himself into the arms of a hord of Black Republicans, after enlogising the Democracy of his District for their support. And the very first vote he cast was for a Free Trader and an endorser of the "Impending Crisis." Shame on him. We cannot see how he can have the hardihood to come before the people and ask their votes for re-election.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers, and the meeting adjourned. Our Tieket.

The Democratic ticket as placed at the head of our paper is a good one-in every way worthy of the support of every Democrat There is not one on the ticket but what is deserving of the suffrages of the people They are all Democrats of the best political record, pure in character, and upright in all business transactions. The Democracy in this county are in the majority, but not so largely as to consider nominations equivalent to an election. We have desperate enemies to contend with, and it stands us in hand to go to work and see that every Democratic vote is brought out. We know that we are right-our principles are correct -and the way to carry into effect our prin ciples, is to go to the polls and deposit our ballot. The enemy are leaving nothing undone to accomplish their designs; they are hard at work to secure the election of their Know Nothing candidate for Governor, Andrew G. Curtin. He is a man not worthy of the support of an American people, for so high a position, and on the 9th of October he will find how little regard the people of the Old Keystone have for such a political trickster as Mr Curtin. Should we not miss truth of Mr. Smart's statement. our mark, he will be repudiated at the ballotbox by not less than 30,000 votes. Demoerats of Columbia arouse from your slumbers, and drive away all lukewarmness, if such there be. We have a work to perform.

Squatter Sovereignty.

The Supreme Court of the United States, n the Dred Scott decision, says: "The right of property in a slave is distincily and expressly affirmed inthe Constitution, and that "no tribunal acting under the the authority of the United States. whether it be legislative, executive or judicial, has a right to draw a distinction or deny to it the benefit of the provisions and guarantees, which have been provided for the protection of private property." And if Congress itself cannot do this-if it is beyond the power conferred on the Federal Government : -it could not authorize a Territorial Government exercise to them. It could confer no power on any local Government, established by its authority, to violate the principles of the Constitution." "The only power conferred is the power coupled with the duty of guarding and protecting the owner in his right !

The above decision was given after the Cincinnati Convention had been held, but it is perfectly consistent with the following plank from the Democratic platform.

"Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of a majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States."-Cincinnati Platform.

Democratic Meeting.

On Friday evening last, a Democratic meeting was held at the public house of Edward Carey, near Centreville, Columbia Convogham withdrawn. county. On motion the following gentlemen were appointed officers of the meeting: President-CHARLES H. HESS: Vice Presidents-Messrs, J. D. Cromer, William Shaffer, E. H. Hess and William Silver; Secre

The meeting being called to order by the President, WELLINGTON H. ENT, Esq., was introduced to the audience, who delivered a very able and patriotic speech, which was listened to with much interest. His remarks were to the point, and well re ceived, frequently being interrupted with out-bursts of applause. The main issues of the campaign were plainly and fairly discussed, and the principles of the Democratic party defended in an honorable and truth

After Mr. Ent closed his remarks, E. H. Little, Esqr, was called upon, and addressed the audience at considerable length, in his usual tamiliar and easy style, establishing learly that the principles of the Democratic party are correct, and that they are the same now as they were in the days of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson. What he said was every way calculated to the purpose, and well fitted for the occasion The speaker on taking his seat was loudly applauded; and on motion the meeting adjourned.

Our Candidate for Congress.

The Congressional Conference, which met at this place on Friday and Saturday last, nominated David R. RANDALL, Esq. The Convention after having balloted some 40 odd times, saw proper to take up a new man, when the name of Mr. RANDALL was presented, and upon the 44th ballot he received a majority of the votes, after which kis nomination was made onanimous.

Of the candidates before the Convention Mr. Wm. M. Piatt, of Wyoming, was the strongest man, he having four votes on each Washington shows how much of a friend of the ballots excepting six; but neither of the other candidates willing to concede their claims to him, his nomination could not be brought about. The nomination of Mr. Randall is thought to be a judicious one and will no doubt meet with a unanimous support from the Democracy of the District. He is a stanch Democrat, and a good, practical lawyer by profession. He is one of the best men in the District, and will be an honor to his constituency if elected. He will not tell you a lie-he will be a candidate upon no false pretences. We shall have something further to say on this subject in our next.

Hannibal Hamlin of Maine.

We regret that we are compelled to ar raign the Black Republican candidate fo Vice President with having used his official station as a Senator of the United States for his private and pecuniary aggrandizement. The charge was made at Brighton, Maine, on the 20th of July last, by the Hon. E. K Smart, an ex-member of Congress. Mr Smart said that some years ago a commis ion was appointed to adjust the claims o our citizens against the Brazilian govern ment; that just previous to the expiration of the time (June, 1852) allowed for the settlement of these claims, Mr. Hamlin had a resolution passed extending the time: that he came to him and urged him to vote for it; that the resolution passed, the time was extended; and that for his services Mr. Hamlin received from the parties interested the sum of seven thousand dollars.

Since that time the Hon. Moses McDon ald, who was also then a member of Congress, has writen a letter testifying to the

Andrew 6. Curtin, the Irish Know-Nothing, NOTICE TO CANDIDATES

IN PENNSYLVANIA. The above heading is a shameful slur on the race of Ireland. But Andy Curtin, the son of gentleman'y, Catholic Rowland, from Dysart, in the county of Clare, has no elevated respect for the good name and civil and religious liberties of that people. He is quite oblivious of his Hibernian origin in all its features. A more inveterate "black Amtern" factionist never lived. Shame on him! He ought to remember his parentage. The man who ignores that, would ignore any principle, sacred or prolane. Our readers are aware, that Mr. Curtin is the Know-Nothing candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. We gave a biographical, political, and mental sketch of him a little time ago. The biography, it will be recollected from that sketch, is his best part; for, politically, he is a knave; and intellectually, a very poorly endowed person indeed. He is, par excellence, a truckling office hunter, and by the same French phrase, everything but a man of brilliant parts. His distinctions are Know-Nothingism, political tergiversation, and contemptible speaking and writing talents.

The article in The Pilot told against this Irish American with great effect. It startled himself, startled his honest Democratic opponents and startled away from him numbers of his best friends. When he read it, he blushed at the telling exposures of his discreditable black lantern career.

His chances for election are very meagre The adherents of Douglas, Breckintidge and Bell are arrayed against him. General Foster, his Democratic rival, is certain to be the next Governor of the KEYSTONE STATE. Even were Mr. Curtin's politics unexceptionable, he would not be returned. The common opinion is, that he is unfit by incapacity for the gubernatorial chair, The least eloquent speeches ever delivered in Pennsylvania campaigning are those with which he is ever presumptuously ready to delight a crowd. He has neither voice, nor words, nor logic. We have never heard so perfect a platitudinarian. But he is rather pious; his perorations are always methodistical invocations to God to be with him, and assurances that God, certainly, is with him His public letters show the same bad taste and inability. He has plenty of physical, but no mental stature.

General Foster is quite a different personage. He is correct in his political principles, and a very able man in his endowments-an accomplished lawyer and an effective speaker. It is a long time since the unsuffied political regute to contest the field with him. In such a case; defeat would His defeat in the present case-but that is most improbable-would dishonor a great Commonwealth. Religious and political inanity, if not deceit, would then be uppermost.
