JOS. B. KNITTLE

Election, Tuesday, fletober 9th, 1860.

David R. Randall, Esq., Our nominee for Congress, was in town on Thursday evening last, accompanied by the Hon. E. B. Chase and Caleb E. Wright, of Wilkesbarre. They each in turn delivered addresses before a Democratic meeting which had assembled in the Court the lateness of the cars (for they came by dict them. cars) and the short notice of the meeting, there was not as large a number of the Democracy in attendance as otherwise would have been. Notwithstanding, quite a respectable number were present, and all seemed to be well pleased with the speeches. On the following evening they addressed a large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting in the town of Danville. They met with a hearty reception in Danville, especially our candidate for Congress, Mr. Randall. The people were very much pleased with him, and will give him their and a man whom they could trust. The Democrats of this Congressional District bave no reason to cut the ticket this fall: they have a good man, a man of whom they may well feel proud-an honest democrat-and God knows that is enough. There is not the slightest reason for any Democrat to vote for Scranton this fall. The tariff cry is worn out. Scranton humbugged the people once with that issue, but he will not be able to play the same game over upon an intelligent people, such as this District is composed of. Stick to the ticket

Fire in Danville.

and all is well.

On Friday last, about 1 o'clock p. m, a destructive fire broke out in a stable in the rear of Dr. Frick's residence, on Market Street, in Danville. This stable was on an alley, which runs close by the public house of William Henrie. The wind being high the fire spread with fearful rapidity, consuming most all the frame buildings on the alley. It was with great exertions that the house of Mr. Henrie was saved. The office of Hon. Paul Leidy being on the corner of the square, and in eminent danger, and likely to endanger other property, was completely demolished-removed in fragments. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10 000, of which the greater part falls on Mr. Houpt whose tannery was consumed. The fire is supposed to have originated through carelessness. The firemen deserve much credit for their persevering and successful exertions.

Meeting in Orangeville.

The Democrats of Orangeville and vicinity held a meeting on Saturday evening last which was addressed by Charles B. Brockway and E. H. Little, Esq. It was a spirited meeting-well attended. The speakers done justice to the cause of Democracy in able speeches of nearly an hour's length each. They were much rleased with their audience and endeavored to entertain them in an honorable and truthful manner. These township meetings are being attended with a great deal of interest, which is a sure evidence of suscess for the Democratic party. Orange township, like many others, this fall, will not be found negligent in doing her duty, but give her usual strong democratic majority.

Our Candidates for Assembly.

We have not written much about our candidates for Assembly, Col. Hiram R. Kline of this county, and Thomas Osterhout, of Wyoming county. They are men amply qualified for the position named, and will make good and safe legislators. In this county they will receive the full party vote. They are men of intelligence, good common sense men, not political tricksters, fresh from the people, and if elected will serve their constituents faithfully. The Democrats of Columbia will give the whole ticket their hearty support.

The Right Feeling Prevailing.

in which the Democrats of Columbia county go into this centest. Meeting in Pine Township.

The Democrats of Pine and the surround. ing townships held a political meeting at Warnersville, on Monday evening last, which was presided over by Mr. Joseph ROBBINSON. On motion, C. B. BROCKWAY addressed the meeting. His remarks were not of a character that would rest easy with the Republicans ; for, as an evidence of the fact, the individual of that locality, who had some asperations for office of Assembly, a year ago, undertook, upon several occasions, to interrupt or contradict the speaker, but upon every occasion got rather worsted. The speaker stock close to the records, thereby dealing out stubborn facts, which, as a matter of course, would greatly worry his Republican friends, of which a good number were present.

E. H. I ITTLE Esq , was next called upon to address the meeting. He responded to the call, and made a very effective speech, which was listened to with considerable interest, but not without being interrupted by the would-be-Assemblyman. The speak er dwelt too plainly on facts for him, as did the speaker who preceded with the opening address. He was applauded quite frequently during his speech. The meeting was large, considering the disagreeable weather. Three cheers were given and the meeting adjourned.

Another Lie Nailed.

There was an item got into the public prints to the effect that Col. Curtin should have said that a Dutchman was not like another man : that he had two skulls, and to get and idea into his head one skull had first to be smashed This is contradicted by two men, Lot Strubble and John Musser. who publish letters to contradict the facts, and which letters are published in all the Republican papers. These letters, however, are false; for both these men have been called upon to make affidavit to what they publish, but both refuse to do so. This we have from a reliable source. We believe the mean reflections of Mr. Curtin apon the Germans to be true, and that Lot Strub. House previous to their arrival. Owing to ble and John Musser were hired to contra

Meeting in Mt. Pleasant.

An enthusiastic Democratic meeting wa held on Thursday evening last, at the Pub lic House of the late Wm Hutchinson, deceased, Mountpleasant township, Columbia county, over which Mr. PHILIP KESSLER presided. The meeting was addreedes by E. H. LITTLE, Esq., and Chas. B. Brockway, both of this place. It is said that the meeting was very enthusiastic and largely at tended. The Democrats of Mountpleasant are warm in the cause, and are making exvotes. In him they could see an honest ertions for an increased Democratic majority at our general election. This was the first meeting of the season for Mountpleas ant. Three cheers were given and the meeting adjourned.

Democratic Meeting at the Buckhorn.

On Tuesday evening of last week the Democracy held a political meeting at Bockhorn, Hemlock township. The officers were-President, Isaac LEIDY : Vice Presidents, Chas Neyhard, Jesse Ohle. Addreses were delivered by the following gentlemen: E. H. Little, Esq., Col. L. L. Tate, C. B. Brockway, and William Shoemaker. The speeches were received with deal satisfaction, and on frequent occasions "brought down the house" with tremendous applause. The gathering was a creditable one,-many more in attendance then was expected. Every man seems to be warm in the matter, and is doing his por tion of the work to further on the glorious old Democratic cause. The meeting adjourned by giving three round cheers for the speakers and the whole Democratic ticket. Thus it will be seen how nobly goes on the work. Hemlock is all straight for RANDALL and the whole ticket.

Our Representative Nominees.

Mr. Osterhout is well known to the citizens of this county, is esteemed and respected for his many amiable qualities as a gentleman, and possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications that make a popular and efficient Legislator.

Col. Hiram R. Kline, of Columbia, is gentleman of correct business habits and experience-a man of untiring energy; and having the advantage of a good education united with much experience with reference to men and things, he will most certainly be an ornament to the station for which he has been designated.

In the Legislature we want honest, capable and dilligent men,-who will work : for the interest of their immediate constituents while they keep in view the general good of the State To an eminent degree, we have in the candidates named just those men. We really feel like congratulating the people of the District on a selection so fortunate, and prophesy their election by a very large majority. They are men every way qualified, and we feel assured that the interest of the District will be well cared for and ably represented .- North Branch Demo-

Polities in Jackson.

The citizens of Jackson township, Columing, after which, E. H. LITTLE, Esq., District Attorney, of this county, was called upon for a speech. Mr. Little responded to the invitation by delivering a very effecapparent satisfaction. In the midst of his come effective speakers. remarks he was frequently applauded with much zeal and earnestness. His addresses, to say the least, was well received. The audience was an intelligent and appreciathundering applause.

CHARLES B. BROCKWAY, a student at Law and an intelligent young Democrat of much promise, was next called upon the rostrum, and spoke to the audience upon the general and true issues of the Campaign at considerable length, acquitting himself and the subject manfully. His hearers were much pleased with his remarks, and upon every hit he was tremendously applauded. Every one who was in attendance at this meeting was a member of the Democratic party, if we are allowed to judge from the enthusiasm. They came in delegations from all directions until they had swelled the number tremendously, considering that it was an evening meeting and not in a town, but ers. in rather a thinly settled neighborhood. It was truly a renewal of one of the old fashioned Democratic gatherings of that town ship. The Democrats in Jackson are up and doing; they are folly aware that an important election is before them and they are going to attend to it. The meeting adjourned with more cheers than we have room to write upon this piece of paper.

Enthusiastic Democratic Meeting.

Pursuant to brief notice, a' respectable portion of the Democratic Citizens of Coumbia county convened on Thursday evening last, in the Court House, at Bloomsburg Mr. L B. RUPERT, was appointed President; Peter Ent, Esq., and Sheriff Snyder, Vice Presidents, with A B. Tate, and H. G. Philips, Secretaries.

Caleb E. Wright, Esq., David R Randall Esq, and Hon. Ezra B. Chase, of Luzerne each in turn, addressed the meeting. Mr. RANDALL, the Democratic Candidate for Congress made an able and telling address, -just such an one as our democrats love to hear and approve-the sentiments of an honest man and plain democrat, simply and sensibly expressed .- every sentiment of which received a hearty response by his intelligent audience. Not more able and interesting were the remarks of Mr. RAN-DALL, than those of Messrs. Chase and WRIGHT, all of whom did justice to the subject on which they treated and especially to Col. Scranton, the "Plug Ugly, Know Nothing, Republican' candidate for Congress whom they clearly proved to be the grossest political imposter ever foisted upon our Congressional District - Columbia Democrat.

The Scranton Republican, excusing Col. Scranton for withdrawing his vote for Smith after he was elected and voting again for Sherman, the Ohio Abolitionist and endorser of Helper's Book, says that "Col. S. could not afford to have the Committee organized against the interests (Tariff) of his onstituents."

Now gentlemen, this game is played out-You elected Col S. two years ago by crying Tariff! Tariff! Col. Scranton voted for both Grow and Sherman respectively for Speaker and they both advocated and voted for the reduction of the Tariff in 1857. Col. S. could vote for Anti-Tariff Abolitionists, but had a holy honor of voting for an old. conservative, Henry Clay Whig. O Doctor Macartney! this wont do. My Lord the Duke Alexander Wellington would get up a better excuse than that. Would not Grow or Sherman as speaker have made up the Committees also? The truth is, Col. S. went to Congress by crying Tariff, and professing not to be a Republican. When he got there he turned out as rabid as any of them, and you can't again shirk the issue and elect Scranton by bellowing Tariff .-Luzerne Union.

Disturbing Political Meetings!

By the revision of the Penal Code of Pennsylvania, during the past winter, by the legislature, the disturbing of public meetings was made an offence, punishable with heavy penalties. It may be a benefit to those Republicans who have interfered with Democratic meetings, to know, if they do not already know, to what extend they have violated the law of the state. And that it may be a warning to them in the future, we append the section of the Penal Code, relating to this subject :

"Section 31 .- If any person shall willfulv and maliciously disturb or interrupt any meeting, society, assembly or congregation. convened for the purpose of religious worship, or any moral, social, literary, scienifie, agricultural, horticultural or floral object, ceremony, examination, exhibition or lecture, such person shall, on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and suffer an imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, or either, at the discretion of the court."

We hope that a fear of the consequences. if not a sense of shame, will deter our opponents, from attempting any interrutions in this locality.

KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE for October has been received. This is an ever welwherever it goes. The literature in the present number is of the first water. Espy is one of the strong holds of the Opposition, and it is with difficulty that a Democratic meeting is gotten up. Handbills are not allowed to remain posted up tive one. The speaker took his seat amidst any length of time, but are torn down, by whom we will leave the reader to judge .-Taking all these disadvantages into consideration, there was quite a large and respectable number in attendance, the effect of but one hand-bill, which was allowed to remain, where it was put; it being on the premises of a stanch Democrat. This, my readers, is said to be the fact. We love see fair dealing by all parties, and should one get the better of the other, let it be said that it was done honorably and man fully. As the meeting continued, both, the audience and speakers, became more warm in the cause. The Democrats of Scott are zealous in the good work. On adjourn ing three cheers were given for the speak.
