Phil'a Manufacturer of
SALMANDER SAFES;
No. 304 Chestnut Street, PHILADELPHIA.

From the Village Record,
WEST CHESTER, Pa.
Saturday, Feb. 5, 1859.

ROUSBY.—The office of the old Railroad, in West Chester, was broken into last Thursday night, and robbed of a small amount of money. The thieves entered the building in the rear, broke the doors, and locks off the desks, and attempted to get in to the large iron safe, but did not succeed.

The safe was manufactured by EVANS & WATSON, No. 26 South FOURTH Streets, Philadelphia.

STILL ANOTHER ATTEMPT.
OCTOBER 18th, 1858.—Three thieves entered the flouring-mill of Messrs. Dorrace & Doron, Bristol, Pa., and tried all night to blow open their safe, with powder, which had $250 in cash, but did not succeed in getting it open. Their Salamander safe was manufactured by EVANS & WATSON.

GREAT SAFE ROBBERY AT NORRISTOWN, DECEMBER 1st, 1858.—Some time last night, the flouring-mill of Mr. Joseph Fazole, in Norristown, Pa., was entered by three men, Herring, Herring, & Co.'s best Patent Powder Proof Lock and Safe, WAS BLOWN OPEN WITH POWDER, and $1,600 in cash taken out and carried away. This safe is now in Evans & Watson's store, No. 26 South Fourth Street, where we most respectfully invite the public to call and examine it.

It is mentioned in The Press, December 4th, the following: "All our Safes are warranted to give perfect satisfaction, or the money will be returned."

FARREL, HERRING & CO."
We, EVANS & WATSON, would ask all parties having Farrel, Herring & Co.'s Patent Champion Safes, to take advantage of the above offer, and return them and get their money, as they will find that, in a few years, the Composition with which the Safes are filled (a large portion being oil of vitriol) will eat out all the iron. A specimen of their Champion Safes may be seen in front of our store, which is a rare opportunity to see them. EVANS & WATSON,
No. 26 South Fourth Street.

[From The Press of the 4th ult.]
Farrel, Herring & Co.'s Patent Champion Safes, the only Safes made in the city which have never been robbed by burglars, or had their contents destroyed by accidental fires. Evans & Watson's, Philadelphia answer to the New York Herald.

We, the undersigned citizens of Joseph, Mo., do hereby certify that the iron safe belonging to C. E. Baldwin, made by Farrel & Co., No. 34 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, which was in the fire that occurred here, is not fire-proof, and is useless as a fire proof safe, that the books, papers, jewelry, &c., which were in the safe at the time, were all injured; also, that the building which it was in, was of frame and only one story high, and that a fire so trifling as the one which burned over the said safe was not sufficient to have injured any safe purporting to be fire-proof.

W. A. GABLES & CO. OPERATORS.

THE undersigned having just received the latest Paris and New York Fashions would again beg leave to inform his numerous friends and all the world about Bloomsburg, that he is now better prepared than ever to accommodate any one with the most elegant and fitting suits of Clothes that can be turned out; and not only that, but he will also do them up in the best order, upon the lowest terms.

His shop is at the old stand, (too well known to need further notice) where he has at all times been found, seated upon the bench of a patient, steadily drawing out the threads of affliction, hoping it may in the end prove advantageous to him and his customers. He would also advise his friends to bear in mind that poor, afflicted tailor, or milliner, or what he can be expected to work therefor. Wheat Rye, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, and with all and then a little CASH will come mighty handy from those who are back-standing on the books.

Remember, gentlemen, that in all cases "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE
PILLS & IRON

AN appetizing and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Inoxtous in all maladies in which it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Nervous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Miasmatic Struption, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c., &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description, nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgetful in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if justice returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent Marasmus, and persons, a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and beneficial action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are the cases, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Constiveness.

In unbroken Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, by several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicinal iron has had for more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too cordially invited to this remedy, as a restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
