

STAR OF THE NORTH.

Bloomsburg, Wednesday, December 12, 1866.

Our columns are considerably cramped this week, owing to the great length of the President's Message. Several articles are necessarily laid over for our next.

Rev. J. R. DIMM is holding a series of meetings in the Lutheran Church, at this place. They are being pretty well attended, considering the inclemency of weather.

It is reported that ninety-two persons are known to have perished, during the late severe storm on the lakes. This season of the year traveling by land is much the safest.

In Jail—There are in our County Jail at present six persons, five male and one female. Several of them are serving out a time specified by the Court.

Don't forget the Lecture on Friday evening in the Court House. The popular Lecturer, Horace Greely, will positively be here and deliver an address.

We would direct attention to the advertisement of the American Stock Journal in another column of the Star. We can without hesitation, recommend this work to the public. All stock growers should have it.

The banks of Kentucky, after consultation, determined not to suspend specie payments. This is more than can be said of the banks in many other States, Pennsylvania included.

The ground is completely covered with snow, but to not much purpose, for the fact there is not enough of it to make good sleighing. The air feels right, and all outdoor appearances are favorable, for a little more of the same sort.

The individual residing in the vicinity of Millville, who promised to bring us several bushels of potatoes, has not been seen since in this section, and what is the worst of it, we have not yet seen the potatoes.

For Sale—We have two orders on the Iron City College, Pittsburg, payable in instalments, which we would offer for sale cheap. The amounts are twenty dollars each. We also hold an order on Bryant & Stratton's Commercial College, Philadelphia, which is of the same nature. Here is a chance to procure tuition at a cheap rate, than elsewhere.

THE FARMER AND GARDENER, we should think, was a very popular publication with the tillers of the soil. It is in every way calculated to enhance their interests, by teaching them the arts and sciences of farming and gardening that otherwise cannot be obtained. Its composition is plain and simple, well to be understood, and to the point, doing away with all that flower and hour-and-a-half sort, which many of our modern writers. The Farmer is published in Philadelphia, by A. M. Spangler, for one dollar a year, in advance.

PAID UP—During Court week several of our patrons came forward and paid up their subscriptions due us, and to those we are ever thankful. We seem many of our subscribers in town last week who skulked our establishment entirely. We do not wish to be compelled to "dun" people, who are owing us for one, two and three year's subscriptions for after having furnished them with the paper, we consider the money once earned. The present volume of the Star is fast closing, and we are in need of every dollar due us either on subscription, advertising or job work.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The regular term of Court, for December 1866, met in this place, on Monday the 3d inst., and continued the entire week, with Judges WARREN, J. WOODWARD, Pres., Peter Kline and Jacob Evans, Associates, on the bench.

The session was one of considerable interest, and was largely attended. Quite a number of eminent lawyers, from a distance, were present, and participated in the proceedings. The following is a synopsis of the doings in Court:

Com. vs. Wright Hughes.—Surety of the Peace—Dist. Atty. and Freeze for Com., Clerk for Defendant. Defendant sentenced to pay the costs and give bail in three hundred dollars, with one sufficient surety, to keep the peace towards all good citizens, and especially to Peter Miller and his family.

Wm. Appleman vs. Jonathan Masteller. Action on Book Account—Clerk for Plaintiff—Freeze for Defendant. Judgment by consent for $12.00 for Plaintiff.

Com. vs. Peter Applegate. Indictment, perjury—Dist. Atty., Freeze, and Jackson for Commonwealth—Ent and Clark for Defendant. Defendant not guilty, and Prosecutor to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Clark Price. Indictment, assault and battery with intent to murder—Dist. Atty., and Jackson for Com., Freeze for Defendant. Verdict guilty in manner and form.

Com. vs. Wm. Brown. Indictment, assault and battery—Dist. Atty., and Sealant, for Com.—Jackson for Defendant. Verdict not guilty by reason of insanity.

Com. vs. Wright Hughes. Indictment, assault and battery on wife of Defendant—Dist. Atty., and Freeze for Com., Clark for Defendant. Verdict guilty, one dollar fine and thirty days imprisonment and costs.

Lemon's Administrators vs. A. W. Creamer. Action of account—Win, for the Plaintiff—Harley for Defendant. Verdict for Plaintiff for $23.95.

Stephen H. Miller vs. Daniel F. Seybert. Action to recover bid on Sheriff's Sale—Baldy and Clark for Plaintiff—Freeze, for Defendant. Verdict for Plaintiff for $134.29.

Com. vs. Wm. Tyson. Indictment, assault—Dist. Atty., and Freeze for Com., Clark, for Defendant. Verdict not guilty. Prosecutor to pay costs.

Foster Bittmeyer vs. Michael Meyler. Action for value of horses injured by Defendant, and damages for their loss.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TIMES.

Single Copies $2—Two Copies for $3—Five Copies for $5.

The Cheapest and Best Family and General Newspaper in the United States.

THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TIMES is a large and elegantly printed sheet, of eight pages, or forty eight columns, devoted to Politics, Literature and General News, and intended to be the BEST as well as the CHEAPEST Family Newspaper in the United States.

The first aim of the Times is, and will always be, to keep its readers thoroughly and reliably posted up, as to everything which may happen, of general interest, in any part of the world. It comments fully and freely upon all topics in every department of public action, and always in the interest of Freedom, Order, and the Public Good. While its influence will be uniformly conservative, it advocates every measure of just and beneficial progress, and resists the increase, extension, or perpetuation of Slavery, of all other forms of unjust and oppressive legislation, and of any system incompatible with the highest welfare of the whole community. While it reports promptly and accurately all intelligence of general interest in every department of human activity, it never panders to vicious tastes, and excludes from its columns everything that is either unwelcome or unpropitious for general family perusal. It seeks to promote the general welfare by urging the claims of EDUCATION, MORALITY AND RELIGION upon the masses of the people; and in all its discussions, it endeavors constantly to be guided and controlled by the spirit of MODERATION, PATRIOTISM, AND COMMON SENSE.

In its Correspondence, both Foreign and Domestic the Times is confessed to be superior to any other American Journal. Its Reports of Congressional and Legislative proceedings, of Financial, Commercial and GENERAL INTELLIGENCE, of important Legal and Criminal Trials, and of whatever may have special interest for the great body of the community, are full, prompt and reliable.

LIVE STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS, for which a special corps of Reporters is maintained.

A LITERARY DEPARTMENT will also be kept up, embracing STANDARD NOVELS AND TALES, and miscellaneous selections of the highest interest.

THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT is compiled from a variety of sources, many of them inaccessible to the American farmer, and furnished valuable information to the Farmer and Gardener.

THE WEEKLY TIMES will be sent to the following rates: Single Copies . . . $2 a year. Two Copies . . . $3 a year. Five Copies . . . $5 a year. Any person who will send us a Club of TEN subscribers, $1 each, shall receive an extra copy for himself—or may retain One Dollar as his compensation.

THE NEW-YORK DAILY TIMES is published Every day except Sunday, and contains eight pages of reading matter in every number. It is sent to subscribers at the following rates: Single Copies . . . $3. Two Copies . . . $5. Five Copies . . . $10. Any person who will send us a Club of FIVE subscribers may receive an extra copy for himself, or retain Two Dollars and a half as his compensation.

TERMS—Cash invariably in advance. All letters to be addressed to H. J. RAYMOND & Co., Proprietors of the New York Times, New York City, Dec. 12, 1866.

Important to Stock Growers.

THE THIRD VOLUME OF the AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL. Commences January 1, 1867. It is devoted exclusively to matters relating to the care and management of our domestic animals and is by far the largest, cheapest and most widely circulated paper of the kind in the world. No stock grower can afford to be without it.

Thirty-two large octavo pages, Handsomely Illustrated. Published Monthly, at 25 Park Row, New York, at $1.00 per year in advance. Specimen copies gratis.

D. C. LINSLEY, Editor and Proprietor.

P. S. F. R. WAITE, Associate Ed. Newspaper giving the above advertisement two in error and sending a marked copy to A. G. Hatch, Windsor, Vt., will receive a copy of the paper one year free.

A. G. HATCH, General Agent. Dec. 12, 1866—31.

ZUPPINGER'S ESTABLISHMENT. Prices Reduced, &c. The difficult watches and jewelry repairing has been done since Bloomsburg is Bloomsburg, by Henry Zuppingerg, and though he was often (from the nature of the case) obliged to charge pretty high, his prices are now greatly reduced, and his customers may rest assured that he has the requisite qualification, materials and means for the repairing of all kinds of watches, jewelry, Arconions, and every thing usually attended to at the best watchmaker or jewelry shops. Honesty and faithfulness will always be his first principle and aim.

Have you a pique? O come! I want it removed. They had me dead and buried some time last winter, but some how it seems I have crawled out again.

RAYMOND'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINE!

PATENTED MARCH 9, 1858.

PRICE $10 EACH. MESSRS. ZUPPINGER & ROBBINS, of Bloomsburg, having purchased the exclusive right of the above valuable Improved Cheap Patent Sewing Machine, for the County of Columbia, will be happy to supply their friends with the article for the accommodation of themselves and families.

The following are some of the superior advantages of this important possession, viz:

1. It sews from 400 to 600 tight stitches per minute.

2. Double thread Machines are from the more complicated character of their mechanism invariably managed and threaded with more or less difficulty; not so with RAYMOND'S, a child can manage it in two hours, and it is threaded easier than a common needle.

3. One of the most valuable features of this Machine, is the smallness and the compactness of its mechanism.

4. It can be attached to a board, table or stand, in operating order, and removed in less than half a minute if so desired.

5. It greatly economizes the thread, and yet produces a seam, sufficiently strong for any work for which it is intended, a qualification not known to all kinds of Sewing Machines.

6. No human hand is capable of producing a seam so regular and systematic as the seam made by the use of Sewing Machines, such as gentler's shirts, the strongest material will tear before the seam will give way.

7. Among the array of Patent Sewing Machines, there are none so cheap and durable as Raymond's Patent, but no Machine is adapted to all kinds of work as experience has proven. There are perhaps none so really useful, doing such a variety of work for the immediate use of the family circle, and at such a moderate price as RAYMOND'S PATENT.

8. The operator can shape his seam just as he pleases, waves, leaves and flowers, etc., can be represented or imitated.

9. It is particularly adapted to all kinds of stitching—such as gentlemen's shirts, bosoms, ribbands, collars, etc.—and all kinds of ladies' sewing, including silks, lawns, delaines, calicoes, dusters, etc., excepting for men's heavy wear, this Machine is rather too light of construction.

10. But we all admit, that the advantage to health, and principally to the vision of eyesight, induced by the use of Sewing Machines, surpasses infinitely all other advantages.

11. This Machine fastens the seam always itself, but if the operator wishes it unfastened or open, there is a way for it too, thus you can have it fastened or not, as you please, which is, sometimes, especially for horses, a very favorable circumstance. If the seam is left unfastened, you can draw it out in three seconds and save the thread.

For sale by the undersigned, at their respective residences, in Bloomsburg who will put the Machine in operation and give all necessary instructions.

DANIEL W. ZUPPINGER, DANIEL W. ROBBINS, Bloomsburg, July 11, 1866.

BLANKS! BLANKS!! BLANKS!!! DEEDS, SUMMONS, EXECUTIONS, SUBPENAS, AND JUDGMENT NOTES, of proper & desirable form.

THE GLOBE,

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF CONGRESS.

I publish now my annual Prospectus of The Daily Globe, and The Congressional Globe and Appendix, to remind subscribers, and inform those who may desire to subscribe; that Congress will meet on the first Monday of next December, when I shall resume publishing the above-named papers.

The Daily Globe will contain a report of the Debates in both branches of Congress, as taken down by reporters, equal at least, to any corps of short hand writers in this, or in any other country. A majority of them will reach, be able to report, and tabulate ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain, also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is acknowledged to be the cheapest work ever sold in any country, whether a reprint or prepared from manuscript copy, taking for data the average number of words it contains.

The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because the debates will, in a great measure, be upon the policy of the President elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix pass free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:—

Joint Resolution providing for the distribution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates thereon.

With a view to the cheap circulation of the laws of Congress and the debates contributing to the true interpretation thereof, and to make free the communication between the representative and constituent bodies:—

Be it resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the present session of Congress, the Congressional Globe and Appendix, which contain the laws and the debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order of Congress:— Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the extension of the Daily Globe free of postage.

Approved, August 6, 1852.

TERMS. For a copy of the Daily Globe, for four months, $3 00

For 1 copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, during the session, 3 00

For 2 copies ditto, when ordered at the same time, 5 00

No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompany it.

Bank notes, current in the section of the country where a subscriber resides, will be received at par. The whole or any part of a subscription may be remitted in postage stamps, which is preferable to any currency, except gold or silver. JOHN C. RIVES.
