

STAR OF THE NORTH.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Wednesday Morning, January 25th, 1861.

Our Methodist friends are still continuing their revival meeting in this place.

Da C. H. FAIR, of Danville, who died at his residence on Monday morning last, will be buried to-day (Wednesday) at that place.

The Mail Train on the Catawissa Road, going north, was considerably behind its usual time on Tuesday evening last. The difficulty we have not learned.

Wanted, at this office, three hundred new subscribers to the Star of the North. Send in your names soon as our books are fast filling up.

Court will be in session at this place on next Monday a week, when we expect to see many whom we have been talking to through the Star for the past year or more.

WILBER G. BROWER, eldest son of Dr. Brower, Editor of the Danville American, has been elected one of the Messengers to the Pennsylvania Senate.

A call for a meeting of the Teachers' Association of Columbia county, in Light Street on the 9th day of February next, will be found in another column of this week's Star.

IN JAIL.—Several young men of Scott township were, one day last week, placed in charge of Sheriff Snyder for safe keeping. We understand one of them has since been liberated upon bonds to appear before our next Court of Quarter Sessions.

We are under many obligations to our friend at the Forks Post Office for the names sent us during the past week. Did our friends one and all exert themselves a little in this respect our subscription list would soon exceed all others in the county.

No PREACHING.—We are requested to notice that there will be no preaching on next Sabbath, in the English Baptist Church, of this place, as the pastor is engaged in a very interesting Protracted Meeting in another part of his field of labor.

The Monitor American, published by an Old Know Nothing had something to say in its last about the Star. It said our blaring Star shined as clear as mud. We are only sorry that we can't say as much for the American; although we feel safe in saying that the American smells as offensive as a negro.

RESIGNATION.—M. W. JACKSON, Esq., the Superintendent of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company, has resigned his position as Superintendent of that road, to take effect the last of the month.—He is a prompt, courteous, business man, whose services have been so well appreciated that he was induced to withdraw a prior resignation.—Scranton-Republican.

Col. HIRAM R. KLINK has our thanks for a neatly printed "List of the Members and Officers of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania." It contains the full and distinct name of each Member, with his post office address where at home, as well as his place of residence while at Harrisburg.

The Sunnington Times claims credit of us for an article which we should have published in our paper some time since. The Times is informed that we don't do a credit business; although if it will name the article, we will be pleased to make it all right 'yot.

HORACE GREELY has our thanks for one of his Tribune Almanacs for 1861-see us. It is full of interest, having been compiled with a great deal of care. It is composed of much political information, besides the usual amount of matter found in Almanacs relating to the object of their publication.—Its astronomical calculations are carefully made, and have the face of being as correct as the general run. Price 13 cts per copy, or $1 per dozen.

EXHIBITION.—Prof. J. H. ANDERSON, Jr., gave an entertainment in the Court House, on Monday evening last. It consisted of Magic, Music, and Ledger-de-main feats, all of which he performed well and to the great satisfaction, we believe, of all who attended the exhibition.

ACCIDENT—NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday last, Mr. Elias Hicks, of this place, with his team, made a very narrow escape from drowning in the Susquehanna river, near the town of Millville. The circumstances, as were given us, are as follows: In attempting to cross the river, upon a ferry, opposite Millville, after driving upon it his team, hitched to a buggy, became unmanageable and sprang over board into the water, taking with them buggy and driver; and it was with great exertion that they were saved. The water was pretty deep, and slash and ice running rather thick, as well as the weather being severely cold; making it all a very narrow escape.

POSTOFFICE CHANGE.—By reference to another article in this week's Star it will be seen that the Post Master General has appointed Mr. LEVI KEELER Post Master at Catawissa, this county, in place of CARPUS BARR, resigned. Mr. KEELER is an entire stranger to us, but from what we can learn, he is a man of good business capacity, and bears a character for honesty unimpeached. The worst thing we know of him, and that certainly should not condemn the man, is that he is, and always has been, a consistent, though conservative, opponent of the Democratic party; notwithstanding, we are informed his appointment will give general satisfaction to all interested, and that he will make a very efficient and popular official.

THE NEWSPAPER FOR THE TIMES!

THE DAY-BOOK holds that this is a government of White Men, and that inferiority of social and political position for the negro race, superiorly for the white race, is the natural order of American Society.—All who want to reform the arrangements of the anti-slaveryites, and understand the negro question, should read it. Democrats, Constitutional men, must see in it that sound papers are circulated among the people, or Black Republican principles will never be put down.

It will have One Third More Reading Matter, Letters on Education, Able Agricultural Articles, Sketches of Living American Authors, Sketches on Cooks and Cookery, and Full Reports of Cattle and other Markets.
