

STAR OF THE NORTH. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Wednesday Morning, January 30th, 1861.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Col Hiram R. Kline for various legislative favors.

Snow.—Quite a quantity of snow fell in this place and vicinity on Saturday last, which made sleighing tolerably good.

A GERMAN woman, residing in Northampton county, gave birth, recently, to five children—four boys and a girl. No wonder Democrats are plenty in the tenth legion.

The mails have been very irregular for the past few days upon the Catawissa road. All right again, snow off the track.

DON'T FORGET, DR. SILKWORTH will be in Bloomsburg on the 30th and 31st of each month. See Card in another column.

THIS SHOP.—We take pleasure in announcing that, WILLIAM JOHN, is carrying on the tinning business in the town of Catawissa, and is prepared to supply all who may wish anything in his line upon reasonable terms and with despatch.

THE PRINTERS of Danville celebrated the anniversary of the great philosopher, statesman, and printer, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.—They partook of a grand supper, capped up by our friend of the White Swan, Jacob Cornelius.

THE POST OFFICE.—The list of applicants for the post office in this place has dwindled down to the respectable number of two. Those two are pushing their claims on the "root hog or die" principle. The office in this place is rather a desirable one, and "the best man for it."

REVIVAL.—In the M. E. Church of this place, which Rev. F. Gearhart is pastor, an interesting revival has been in progress for some two or three weeks. These nightly meetings, we learn, have resulted in the conversion of quite a number of persons.

LACKAWANNA AND BLOOMSBURG RAILROAD.—At the late election held by this Company, the following Board of Directors was elected for the ensuing year: Col. C. F. Welles, of Athens, President; William Sweetland, Wm. C. Reynolds, D. G. Driesbach, E. McNeil, John Brislin, Moses Taylor, William E. Dodge, John L. Blair, Thos. F. Atherton, Joseph H. Scanton, N. Chapp and H. Gaylord, Directors.

ADVERTISING.—Persons having property to sell or houses to let will find it to their advantage to make the same known through the advertising columns of the Star, as this paper has a fair circulation, besides it is daily increasing, and is so "small sheet" that everybody reads it. Charges inconsiderable, when compared with the advantages accruing to the advertiser.

Dr. King, Veterinary Surgeon, gave an illustration of the Rarey system of training wild and vicious horses, upon a colt belonging to Samuel Shaffer, on last Saturday, at this place. He completely subdued the animal, through the treatment applied, by having perfect control of it. We have no doubt he will render the wildest horse or colt gentle, safe, reliable, and in every way manageable, in an incredible short space of time.

WE SEEK by the Wyoming Intelligencer that, Prof T. E. Perkins, who is well known by our citizens, having spent some time professionally among them last summer, is about to commence a Musical Convention, in the town of Tankhannock, in the course of a few days. Mr. Perkins has had considerable experience in conducting Conventions of this kind, and has won for himself a high reputation in his professional ranks.

AN INCIDENT.—A horse the other party, attached to a sled, in turning a corner, fell.—A gentleman's attention was quickly directed to it, when his feet slipped, and he landed, as a sailor would say, on his beam's end, in about six inches of very soft, cold slush. A young lady, at the same time, with her arms folded, and her face looking as good as ripe strawberries smothered in cream, ran out to see the sights, when her feet proved too small to support her, and she sat in all her loveliness on the icy bricks. The three were all down at the same time, although some distance apart.—Williamsport Bulletin.

A majority of them will be able to report, verbatim, ten thousand words an hour, while the average number of words spoken by fluent speakers rarely exceeds seven thousand five hundred words an hour. When the debates of a day do not make more than forty-five columns, they will appear in The Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of all the Debates in Congress, revised by the speakers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form, royal quarto size, each number containing sixteen pages. The whole will make, it is believed, at least 2,000 pages. This is not only a great saving to the public, but also a great advantage to the printer, as it is sold in any country, whether a reprint or printed from manuscript copy, taking for the data the average number of words it contains.

The coming session will, without doubt, be an unusually interesting one, because it will contain also, the news of the day, together with the policy of the President elect, and The Globe will be, as it has been for many years past, the only source from which full debates of Congress can be obtained.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix pass free through the mails of the United States, and may be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:— Joint Resolution providing for the distribution of the Laws of Congress and the Debates thereon.

With a view to the cheap circulation of the laws of Congress and the debates contributing to the true interests thereof, and to make free the communication between the representative and constituent bodies:— Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the present session of Congress, the Congressional Globe and Appendix, which contain the laws and the debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order
