THE COUNTY STATEMENT, Will appear in our next, having been approved of by the Court too late for this week's issue.

Paice, the wire walker, will give an exhibition of his performances in Benton, Columbia county, on Thursday, the 14th inst.

THE attendance at Court this week is not as large as was anticipated. Few people are here except those necessarily present.

FREDERICK NICELY will offer his tavern stand, at public sale on the 16th day of March next, situated in the borough of Berwick .-It is a good location. THE Rev. Joshua Kelley of Williamsport

RESPITED.-Sheriff Blue has been notified by Gov. Curtin, to postpone the execution of Andrew McGinly until the 3d of May, next. We presume that the Governor has been influenced in his action by the numerously signed petitions of our chizens praying for an indefinite respite of the unfortunate criminal .- Danville Intelligencer.

L. Johnson & Co., Type Foundrymen, of Philadelphia, have our thanks for a copy of their Typogrophic Advertiser. It contains some specimens of very neat borders, type, cuts, &c., which they are engaged in manufacturing, and all of which they will sell cheap for cash.

Tre Member from Wyoming county-Mr. Osterhout-offered a petition, a few days since, in our Legislature, largely signed, praying the enactment of a law prohibiting the intermarriage of whites with blacks and making it a criminal offence. It is said the petition came from this county -Petitions of a similar character have been sent to Harrisburg from other counties. A law of this kind would be nothing more than proper and right.

GEN. TOM THUMB -This distinguished American dwarf will be on exhibition at this place on Saturday, March 2d. Two exhitions will be given, afternoon and evening. Tom is a particular favorite, especially with the ladies. He is rather handsome, but what is more remarkable, he is so beautifully small, only 31 inches in height, and 25 lbs. in weight. He is said to be 23 years of age. A good opportunity is afforded those who have never seen him. Call and see him, Tom will be pleased to converse with you.
