COUNTY STATEMENT -In another column of this week's paper will be seen the county statement for the year 1860, showing up the receipts and expenditures for that year in such a manner as to fender general satis. Patriot. faction. The county finances, it can safely be said, were never in a better condition. under Democratic rule or any other. The Democracy have held the pure strings of this county quite a number of years, and if we may judge from the good feeling and unanimity prevailing in our party throughout the county, it bids fair to continue a HANDSOME GIFT, worth from 50 cents to to hold them for years to come. Everything in this statement is put out in such a way as to be clearly understood. This is as the people wish it; they desire to know how our change is handled, and to what purpose it is applied. It will be seen that a large amount of loose change now lies in the hands of our worthy Treasurer, which years back.

Court Proceedings.

On Monday of last week, a regular session of Court commenced in this place, and continued until Friday, with Hon. WARREN J. Woodward, President, and Stephen Bal dy and Jacob Evans, Associates, on the

There was not much business of importance before the Court this session After the different Constables handed in their returns, and the usual formula business was disposed of, the following 'cases upon the 'calendar were called up:

Luzerne Contested Election.

We see by the legislative proceedings of from the committee appointed to investigate the matter of the contested seat from Luzerne county, made report, declaing Mr. Pugh entitled to his seat, it appearing that he had a majority of five votes over Mr. Chapin, the contestant."

Of course. With a House constituted as the present one-so strongly Republican that in a committee of nine there was not a single democrat, it was hardly expected that Mr Chapin could get his rights. Mr. Cha pin was as clearly elected by a majority of the voters, as were any of the gentleman who served on that Committee It was so demonstrated by the testimony before them; but yet in the face of all this, it was a fore gone conclusion that Luzerne must be misrepresented by one who was not her choice. This is but another proof of the revolutionary character of Abolition Republicanism .-Luxerne Union.

Daring Highway Robbery. Last week Mr. Henry Harman, of Bellefonte, Centre county, started his son, about 16 years old, into the counties of Clinton and Lycoming, with a horse and sleigh, loaded with cegars, medicines, etc., to sell and trade off When the boy was abou: Jeaving Bellefonte, a man named James Wilson obtained permission to ride with e boy to Lock Haven On the road and he neighborhood of Lock Haven this Wilson took the liberty of making a nber of sales, and placing the proown pocket. After this he of everything and, with the g with him, te drove to county, when he claimed the whole establishment. e traded the horse off for an d and $40 besides, to med Marshal, in the presence of remonstrances of the boy. In addition to this he took from the boy's person a val nable watch which he convened into mon ey. By this time Wilson is reported to have made on the whole operations about $300, with which he left the country and went to York State. Immediately measures were taken to pur-see and arrest the man, when on Monday last officer Les of Elmita arrested him at orseheads, about 6 miles distant Wilson is now in jail at Elmica. Ho is represent ed to have "professed great piety" while with the boy, and "prayed regularly" every
