NEW FIRM .- The firm known as Stohner & Co., of the bakery and confectionery store, in this place, has dissolved, and in its stead a firm exists by the name of Stohner and Fox, who occupy and carry on the baking and confectionery business in all its branches in the same establishment, in the Exchange Block.

On making an examination, a few days since, of some peach buddings, we found that they were very much injured. On opening the buds we discovered the peach formed, nearly the size of a grain of clover seed, and as black as black could be. As far as we examined the peach crop threatened to be a complete failure.

Our venerable townsman, THOMAS PAIN-TER Esq., and family, moved from this place to Muncy, yesterday. As we stated in a recent issue he has been a resident of Bloomsburg for many years, and for a long time was the acting Justice of the Peace for this vicinity. He leaves here with the best wishes of all who knew him .- Republican.

For several weeks says the Sullivan Democrat, a gannt wolf has been lurking in the vicinity of our town "seeking whom he may devour." A few weeks ago he followed our worthy Sheriff for some distance through the woods, but probably finding out that he was on the track of an officer of the law, who might make a levy on his scalp, he decamped. The remains of two or three deer have been found, showing that his wolfship has had some dainty meals.

Our town is well supplied with huckster ing butchers. There are no less than six or seven to be seen on the streets nearly every morning. Notwithstanding there are Should send on their names at once, encloso many of them, the price still keeps high Necessarily they'll have to make a break ceive by return of mail in their prices. Butchers from a distance are offering at 7 and 8 cts., "all around," for the season. This is quite a difference, from 9, 10, 11, and 12 cts., and in the course of a season would make to a person who bought langely a snug sum. Opposition is the life of business and often the downfall of parties.

SAFES -Attention is directed to the advertisement of Evans & Watson's Salamander Safes in another column of our paper. This firm manufactures an excellent article of sales. They are fire proof, having repeat- ings, direct all orders to edly withstood the severest test; and are also proof against lock pickers. We would advise all who feel the necessity of having a good and reliable safe to purchase of this firm in Philadelphia. They have constantly on hand all descriptions and sizes, and are prepared to sell reasonably cheap for cash or upon short credit. You will find them gentlemen to deal with in every sense
