An experienced and horoughly qualified classical teacher and ecurer will be at the head of the Board ef Instruction, but the Principal will have the general superintendence of the institution and assume a share of the duties of teaching. Regular lectures will be delivered upon various scientific subjects, as well as noon the theory and practice of teaching. and a Normal Class of young men and women who wish to qualify themselves for teachers' profession, will receive especial attention and assistance.

The course of Instruction in the school will be thorough and systematic, calculated to embrace the various branches of a practical education. Ample provision will be made for the study of the higher Mathematics, the elucidation of Physics, and the Natural Sciences, by means of suitable apparatus, and for the sindy of the latin, Greek, and German languages, to enable students to qualify themselves for commercial and scientific pursuits, or to enter any class at college.

The country location of this Seminary in a plessant village, in a healthy and flourishing neighborhood, well known for the elevated tone of its moral sentiment, and where the pupils are not surrounded by hose demoralizing influences, and temp ations found in our cities, larger towns and many other localities, with no outside influences to divert their attention from literature and the work of mental culture, presents attractions and inducements to considerate parents emplous students, seldom foond surrounding large schools and academies.

The Literary Society also, one of the old est and best conducted in this section of counity, presents an altractive feature and useful auxillary, to a practical education. The improvements will be under the immediate charge of an efficient Board of Trustees, appointed by the Seminary Company and will be completed in time for the Autumn term, to commence the 12th of August next.

While thankful for past patronage w wish to meril a continuance of similar favors, and as we intend to include a higher grade and wider range of instruction, we The only article of the kind ever produced respectfully solicit a careful examination into our facilities and claims.

NERVOWS DISORDERS.

What is more tearful than a breaking lown of the pervous system ? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found ? There is one :-drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or far better, none; take no coffee,-weak tea being preferable; get all the fresh air you can ; take three or four Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, avoiding the use of slops ; and if these gold en rules are followed, you will be happy in mind and strong in body, and forget you ave any nerves.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.

If there is one thing more than another or which these Pills are so famous it is their purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and susended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints they never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is required. SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE.

These feelings which so sadden usare so requently arise from annoyance and troub. e. from obstructed perspiration, or from, eating and drinking what is pr.fit for us, inns disordering the liver and stomach .-These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well. The Pills, it taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action to both liver and tomach, whence follow as a nural contan equence, a good appetite and a clear head. In the East and West Indies scatcely any other medicine is ever used for these disorders.

DISORDERS OF THE KIDNEYS.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with sione of gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneya, these Pills should be taken according to the printed instructions directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief. when all other means have failed.

FOR STOMACHS OUT OF ORFER. No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills ; they remove all acidity, occasioned either by intemperatice or improper diet.
