THE list of Jarors for December sterm appears in this week's paper; also, a num ber of Sheriff's sales.

THE Award of Premiums will be found in this paper. It is of interest to all our seaders, hence its publication. The Premiums are awarded in the right place as far as we have any knowledge of the articles exhibited. We hope there will be no grumbling as too often has been the case.

FRESH OYSTERS - We would call the attention of the citizens of Bloomsburg to the said deceased. fact that, ENANUEL PETERS, of Danville, will be in this place, every Wednesday and Friday, from this date during the whole coming winter, with fresh eysters, which he will sell at 31c per quart, 90c per can, or 45c Monday of December next, then and there That piece knocked out of your Marb per half can. This is an opportunity to get oysters cheap. You will find them all right if you buy of Peters.

WE are sorry to see indications of a desire to urge our army forward. Leave its movements to its officers. Let us have no town lots tying configuous to each other more Bull Run battles. The Commanderin-chief knows what is best, and upon his judgment we should not only rest contented, but do all in our power to ipspire confidence in its wiscom. 'Slow and sure' should be

THE N. Y. Tribune has made the singular discovery that in the new Pennsylvania House of Representatives the Republican or "People's" party have a small majority. It would puzzle the Tribune to prove this assertion, as but forty-five Republicans are elected to the House, including all of that party elected on Union tickets.

DEATH OF A YOUNG SOLDIER -On last Saturday our citizens were pained to see the announcement in the Philadelphia Inquirer that John Boulton Young, son of Michael Young, of this place, and drummer boy of the Sunbary Company under Captain Gobin, be paid in two years from said date with in the 47th regiment, had died on Thursday interest. GREENWOOD SEMINARY AND COLUMBIA COUNTY NORMAL INSTITUTES AT MILLVILLE, PENN'A.

Important Additions & Improvements Autumn Term to Commence August 12

THIS Institution which has been in suc cessful operation for the past ten yeart . is about undergoing a very important rer. ovation, in order to place it on a more stable basis than ever, and present facilities which are not surpassed by ordinary Academies in Northern Pennsylvania, Among the improvements will be a large threestoried building which will give much additional room and greater conveniences for boarders; a commodious hall for a lecture rooms, a library and reading room contain. ing a cabinet of minerals and enriosities, bath rooms, &c. An experienced and thoroughly qualified classical teacher and lecturer will be at the head of the Board of Instruction, but the Principal will have the general superintendence of the institution and assume a share of the duties of teaching. Regular lectures will be delivered upon various scientific subjects, as well as upon the theory and practice of teaching. and a Normal Class of young men and women who wish to qualify themselves ior teachers' profession, will receive especial attention and assistance.

The course of Instruction in the school will be thorough and systematic, calculated to embrace the various branches of a practical education. Ample provision will be made for the study of the higher Mathematics, the elucidation of Physics, and the Natural Sciences, by means of suitable apparatus, and for the study of the latin. Greek, and German languages, to enable students to qualify themselves for commer- of GRAVEL. cial and scientific pursuits, or to enter any class at college.

The country location of this Seminary is a plessant village, in a healthy and flourishing neighborhood, well known for the elevated tone of its moral sentiment, and where the pupils are not surrounded by those demoralizing influences, and temptations found in our cities, larger towns and many other localities, with no outside influences to divert their attention from literature and the work of mental culture, presents attractions and inducements to considerate parents emulous students, seldom found surrounding large schools and acad-

The Literary Society also, one of the oldest and best conducted in this section of country, presents an attractive feature and useful auxillary, to a practical education.

The improvements will be under the mmediate charge of an efficient Board of Trustees, appointed by the Seminary Company, and will be completed in time for e Autumn term, to commence the 12th August next.

While thankful for past patronage we wish to merit a continuance of similar favors, and as we intend to include a higher respectfully solicit a careful examination into our facilities and claims.
