W H. JACOBY, Proprietor.]

Truth and Right-God and our Country.

Two Dollars per Annum.

NUMBER 10.

VOLUME 14.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., WEDNESDAY MARCH 12, 1862.

Republican Intolerance.

The Republican party has had a very intolerance toward all those who differ with

It passed through its second Campaign,

Well this party got into power by gulling

STAR OF THE NORTH PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY

bing: two dollars and fifty cents if not paid within the year. No subscription taken for a less period than six months; no discontinuance permitted until all arrearages are no doubt obtain a good salary." paid, unless at the option of the editor. The terms of advertising will be as follows :

One square, twelve lines, three times, $1 00

Choice Doetrn.

LOWLY FLOWERS.

BY LYMAN R. GOODMAN.

With feet half naked and bare Aud dresses all tattered and torn, With a penny here and a mockery there, And floods of derision and scorn. She wanders the street wherever her feet Weary and willing, are borne, With an eye as bright and a cheek as fair As the earliest blush of the morn.

Wandering up and down, And driven from door to door, A jest for every idle clown

And a butt for every boor : While the velvet-slippered.in sain and lace Go rustling by her side, With a frozen heart and a curtained face.

And a lip curled into pride, So beautiful, yet so frail, So willing, and yet so weak. Oh, what if the heart should fail, And a heavenly purpose break ! And the dens, kennels and brothers of hell, Another poor victim hold A celestial spark be quenched in the dark, And an angel bertered tor gold !

No wonder the heart should fail,

A heavenly purpose lade, The eye grow dim and the cheek grow pale When none stand ready to aid ! No wonder the lairs and cradles of hell So many poor victims should held, When the good are content to worship God, And the rich to worship their gold !

ful wife, "but I trust not to the extent which was it that he alone should be rejected be- from the cold stone floor of a hall in the you seem to believe. Place more confie cause he was unfortunate? How was it they public building one cold autumn morning. WM. H. JACOBY, office on Msin St., 3rd Square below Market, TERMS:—Two Dollars per annum if paid there and you will succeed Begin at the the succeed Begin at the succeed Begin at the the succeed Begin at the succeed Begin bottom of the ladder, and seek a situation The words of the quaker always came to gentleman had found him, and for six or

Mr. Thornby sighed deeply. "My health," said he, " will not permit to had said if rightly followed, would insure were not kind to their own children-to him lead the sedentary life of an accountant, as a him success. of specess."

"Not with that sad countenance, indeed, but strive to recover your former, cheerful

"This is part true," said his more hope- | success of his wife and daughter. Why | thing about, for he was a foundling taken | you will smile on us once more."

vice on a former occasion.

fail there is still hope in heaven.

-----

Darkest Nearest Dawn.

BY CLARA SIDNEY

"Look in the other pocket, dear, per saps

And the young wife turced towords her

"I been have robbed of all the mone" that can obtain a good salary and without work-temperament, and all will go well " "For your sake, Mary, and that of my children, I will make the attempt, but I feel thoughts had crowded forcibly upon Thorr - fallen in love with a sweet and worthy sure it will fail."

He resolved to go and seek employment He left home for the city with the same sad countenance, downcsat look, and slow meas- some vines, and told her father that he mistake, he supposed, at least everybody ured step.

His wife, who had watched him anxious- to do, for that she had good news to tell waited. But his salery was quite sufficient ly ontil he was out of sight, turned sorrow- him. fully from the window, and said to her old- "You deserve to be smiled upon, indeed est daughter : "It is all in vain, Sarah, your poor father animated countenance, " but what news where ; then another and another ; then the will never succeed on til he can learn to look have you for me ?"

up, not only naturally, but spiritually." After some expressions of mutual confidence and affection, the excellent mother and daughter determined upon two things; first to commend the husband and lather to the kind protection of Heaven, and next to commence together, if possible, the keeping of a small school.

This latter plan, however, they determined to submit to the father, on his return. for me. Sarah " As Thornby approached the city he felt "Indeed there may, my dear father. Only gone.

more oppressed by the doubts and fears which he had arged in the conversation with his wife. The first place at which he called had advertised for a person having qualifications need." which Wm. Thoraby lelt an undoubted as-began to suspect that they in reality cor himsely cast out on the mercy of strangers. tained the advice which the old gentleman He was taken into a family where they they had dined every pleasure and every

" Look Up !" Sorely, man formed in the advantage. He could not obtain time to go image of his Maker, should not, like the to school, but had managed to get candles diate vicinity. beast that perisheth cast his eyes upon the and to study at night. Thus he mastered earth ! Even when bowed down by misfor- book-keeping and some other things, and tune, he should strive to look up the light at eighteen years of age had obtained a which may yet illumine his path. These good place id a store. At twenty he had by's mind, and he was beginning to act in girl, and after two more years of toil, in accordance with them, Sarah bounded into spite of the opposition of her proud relathe garden where her father was busied with tives, he had married her. This was a > to live on, and what more did they need They were very happy ; but alas ! there my child," said he, gazing fondly on hir came a change. A bank exploded somemerchants began to shake, and like a row "One of the young ladies who attended of bricks standing close together, when the our school asked me to day if my father was first one gets a blow, down they all fell, in want of a situation as a clerk, and when and his employers among them. answered in the offirmative, she said her There was no getting a situation. Hununcle requested you to call at his office to- dreds of clerks, and many merchants, also, worrow morning. Here is the address," were out of business. George determined fortunes ; he was a long time sick, he was "Well there may be somthing yet in store several times cheated and once burned out : all that he took out with him was soon

think how well our school is succeeding .- What made the trouble so bad, was the The income from that alone would afford us fact that his family were with his wife's recomfortable support Our Heavenly Fa h- latives, and he knew very well how they all er is always near to help us in the hour of talked to her; he knew how hard it was for her high and true heart to bear to bear him The heart of the strong man was bowed blamed for everything, and undervalued and down and he trembled with emotion. Texts condemned. So he had striven and earnof real sympathy stood in the eyes of his ed and borrowed money enough to go for his family, and they had started for a home daughter, as she whispered :

How a Man Feels on the Battle Field. Money in the South. Few persons are there who have not A Norfolk correspondent of the Richmond some curiosity about battle fields, and who Dispatch gives this graphic picture of the brief existence, but brief as that existence do not desire to know how men feel when difficulties attending the present condition has been, it has exhibited more bigoted under fire, especially before custom has of Confederate currency : made them feel indifferent or secure. Most "leaning over the counter a puzzled vol- it on questions of National policy, than of those who were at Donelson must unteer was endeavoring to reckon up the any other party that ever had an existence have had this experience as the field was change just paid out by the sleek haired in this country. This is the more inexcusable such that few could go to any part of it clerk. Before him las a quantity of muti- from the fact, that it commenced its career without incurring more or less risk. Hard- lated bills, ragged and dirty pieces of pa- with loud professions in favor of the largest ly any one could see the enemy or guns, per, bits of card board, printed checks, a ammount of liberty to all classes, conditions and consequently the first intimation of few copper pennies, milk-tickets, postage- and races of men, taking into its freedom their presence would be the falling of a she'l stamps, and other interesting specimens of loving arms "all the world and the rest of or the rattling of shot or balls in his imme- the present outrageous "coin of the realm." mankind." It battled throughout its first

I do not suppose I have much pysical or essayed to count the villainous currency, Free Press, Free Homes and Fremont" as moral courage, but the sensations under and over and over again he failed to find it its motto emblazoned on its banners all fire, judging from my experience, from satisfactory. It was too much for his rustic over the country. what is expected.

A reasoning man at first feels alarmed, solve upon only ten fingers. The bystan- if possible, with even greater protest and his impulse is to run away ; and if he ders laughed. The money was spread out of love for freedom. Members of this freehas no reason to stand, he does run ; but upon the show case as young ladies lay dom loving party were seen to turn up their at each exposure, he grows less timid, and cards upon a table in telling fortunes, and eyes in holy horror, at the idea of Southern after hearing canister and grape about his the soldier stood before it, searchingly ex- men preventing abolition fanatics from should smile upon her cheerfully as he used seemed to consider it so. They ought to have ears a dozen times, begins to think he is aming every piece. "Do you call this preaching sedition amongst them and incinot destined to be hurt. money ?" he asked, taking up a small yel | citing their slaves to insurrection, pronounc-> have narrow escapes, and so voluntarily advertisement of fine Havana cigars. "and And now how do they proceed to carry incur more risk.

THH!

After a little while he begins to reason in different kinds of type, "Good for one shave speech and the press ? Not a bit of it.

and lead is necessarily wasted before a was puzzled also. "I'll pass all over town ; act of the administration in power, he is man is killed or wounded. Why should he indeed it will sir" Once more the soldier immediatly "spotted" as a traitor, and Mr. Sarah continued handing her father a slip of to go West. Then he met with many mis- be, he thinks, so much more unlucky than scrutinizes the ragged and incongruous pile Secretary Seward has him arrested by many other people ; and he soon can hear and grasping it in one hand, soloquized : telegraph and lodged in Fort Lafayette. Or the whizzing of bullets with a tolerable de 'So this is money-money? Ha! I call it he express the opinion that the Repabgree of equanimity, though he involuntari- it stuff. Why a man might hold his hand lican party is not the purest and best party ly dodges, or tries to dodge, the cannon full and then have but thirty-seven cents the world ever saw, he is denounced as a immediate neighborhood. In the alternoon

Life in the Country.

hoors before

Over and over again the puzzled volunteer Presidential Campaign with "Free Speech, arithmetic the problem was too difficult to

He sull feels rather uneasy, perphaps; low parallelogram, looking very much like ing it a terrible 'outrage on free speech. but the danger becomes fascinating, and, the brass card on the top of a sardine box. though he don't wish to be hit, he likes to "Do you call this money?" holding up an the people with these lying professions. places himself in a position where he cap this " a bit for fifteen cents, in which some them out ? By making good their profesweak-minded printer had gone raving mad sion and granting unrestrained liberty of the matter : reflects upon the doctrine of (reading slowly) Dirk, the barber " "Do you But if some unfortunate fellow-in an unprobabilities, and how much powder and call this money ?? The sleek haired clerk guarded moment happens to criticize some balls or shells that go howling around his in money."

secessionist by a pack of newly fledged patriots and "Union Stiders," who never he is quite a different creature from what Took HES CHANGE-When the rebel felt a genuine patriotic emotion stir in their be was in the morning, and involutarily steamer E H. Lewis was captured in the breasts. Or if a newspaper Edi or intimate smiles to see a man betray the same tre- Gulf by the New London, there were among that the management of the War Depart-almost every division, we may expect an energetic forward movement, with negro to lead on our brave troops, such as Mc-

McClernand and the gallent Col John A.

Logan of Illinois who, at the battle of Fort and fast around him, and he himself fear-mon grave, when the glorious Stars and Stripes-the banner of the Union-shall wave in triumph from Maine to Texas, when sectional hate and animosity shall be banished from the country, we trust, for-Cenius and Labor.

Move patiently on, O earth ! Till Mercy's wandering dove Shall upward fly to the realm of its birth, And rest in the bosom of Love ; Move patiently on till the crecified Christ Shall gather his radiant crown From the lowly flowers and bleeding hear That the world has trampled down.

"LOOK UP."

"Misfortunes," it is said never come singly." This was certainly verified in the family of Wm. Thornby. The world had gone fortunate with him for a time, but soon promising speculations failed entirely, and his affairs became sadly involved. Some hopes of recovery presented themselves, when a fire broke out in the place, his house of business fell a prey to the flames, and to render the misfortune greater, the insurance had expired the day before.

Thoraby and his large family were redu- turned to leave the store he heard the emced to absolute poverty. Nor was this all ; ployer remark to the head clerk : his anxiety and exposure during the fire brought on a fever, and for weeks his wife and daughter hung over him almost des. Everything about the man shows that he is pairing of his life. At length, however, the fever abated, and though he was left weak and helpless as an infant, reason had returned, and nothing was needed for his restoration to health but good aursing and freedom from mental anxiety.

wanting, but it was impossible to prevent in the street through which he was passing mental uneasiness. His children must be But he was unsuccessful, and with every supported, but how? They would share failure he became more and more depressed with him in the poverty, perhaps the dis- till his anxious countenance could not fail grace, which the involved state of his affairs to excite the observation of those around would bring upon him, and many would him. beap upon him unmerited reproach.

There remained but one way by which his fair name could be entirely retained, and on this he at once resolved. The house in which they lived was valuable and would command a ready and favorable sale. It was hard to part with a home he had made so comfortable, but there was no ahernative. The house was offered for sale and a purchaser soon found.

Every just claim was satisfied and the family removed to a distant part of the coun-

Here in a small, neat dwelling, they found themselves in the possession of many comforts, and in their affection for each other ment and happiness.

Bot the father's heart was still sad. He felt a want of confidence in himself, and mistrust of his fellow-creatures. His whole appearance was changed. His countenance was downcast and sad, his steps lingering and irresolute, and no one would have recognized the once happy merchant in the illdressed and unhappy looking man, who still endeavored to cheer him, and proposed now busied himself in cultivating a small the plan of keeping a school. With some piece of land the surrounded his little dwell- difficulty they obtained his sanction to what

His wife sought by every means in her king.

surance that he possessed On stating his business, a young clerk requested him to be seated, at the same time surveying him with a contemptuous air Half an hour passed, and the employer entered. Thornby's name and application were laid before him, and without waiting to hear the qualification he was about to urge said quietly :

"You will not answer my purposes, sir." The applicant turned away without remonstrance, and left the office, saying to himself:

"Just as I expected. I have every qualification he required in his advertisement ; my appearance does not suit him, but that is enough."

The next trial was a large wholesale dry goods establishment. The refusal was equally decisive as the other, and as he

"I make it a rule never to employ a person who looks as if he were unfortunate .-- going down hill." "And therefore," mentally added poor Thornby, "you will give him a push." He had resolved not to try again, but the thought of those depending on him utged another trial. With desperate determina-Careful and affectionate nursing were no tion he resolved to go to every warehouse you put it there by mistake."

As he turned from the last shop he was, husband a face whose sudden whiteness belied her hopeful words. accosted by a benevolent looking old getleman is the garb of a quaker, who exclaimed "It's no use, Maria, I tell you it is go te !" than do you and my husband."

cried the young man, in tones of despair ; in a triendly tone of inquiry : 'gone, and the Lord only knows what will "Looking for a situation, triend ?"

become of us." "Yes, sir," was the reply,"can you aid me "What is the case sir ?" asked one o the in my search ?"

several gentleman who left their seas to "Not directly, but I can give thee a little gather round the distressed family, consisadvice, which, if rightly acted upon, will finally help thee to attain what thee de- ting of the parents and two very noble and beautiful little ones, a boy and a girl. sires."

"I shall be grateful for your advice." "It is this-Look Up."

I have on earth,' replied the young nan, At these words Thornby raised his eyes his lips quivering and his teeth fairly thattering in his head. "And I am bound for from the ground, supposing it to be a command to look at his adviser, but to his sur- lowa with my family. We have none to the mother and child soon found content- prise the old gentleman had already turned help us ; we shall starve, or these will beand was rapidly away in an opposite direc. | fore I can earn anything for them. "Oh, not so bad as that, young man," tion quoth a venerable gentleman with a long "Some insane person," Thornby mattered. beard and gold-headed cane ; "not so bad "I am in no humor for his folly."

Then sorrowfully he turned towards his as that ; you must not so easily lose your own home, quite convinced of the uselesscoprage." At at this the pretty, weeping wile look ness of further search.

ed up, and said with earnestness : His wife not much surprised at his failure "If you only knew one half he has some through, you would not wonder tha this last misfortune is a drop too much," and leaning her head on her husband's shoulder he considered as an almost absurd undertathe sobbed afresh.

"Your heart will be no longer sad, father in the great West, and now this blow had fallen upon them, it was too much. "My child, the dark shadow has long been "I am now without a dollar in the world," on me, but with the help of God, I will no concluded George, and the poor fellow let the hazard he once so dreaded. longer be cast down. Even if the new his head sink upon his breast, and two opening should prove delusive. I will not tears tell from his great, sad eves.

be discouraged-1 will now look up." bringing to her remembrance the days man ever trusts and hopes in God, it should morning, and at an early hour was on his that place now."

daughter, he was met by the same beneve- hoped our worst troubles were over " lent old Quaker who had proffered him ad- "Well I think they are" said their com- will to be brave.

panion, smiling. "Here, Mr. Conductor. "Well, friend," he exclaimed, extending (for that functionary at that moment paused his hand, "I am glad thou hast followed my beside our group.) I pay for three-you advice and learned to look up. I have a don't charge anything for my children, you one of his old city friends, says: situation now at my command where hee know."

"You seem to think that the society of "It is exceedingly kind of you, sir," said farmers and rural residents must be exceeding harder than is fitting at thy time of George; "but-but you must give us your ingly dult and stupid. I can assure you it name and address, that we may know is not so My neighbors in the country may

The best remedy for a man who is going where to send the money when we become not be quick and ready in conversation as down hill is to loook up when earthly hopes able to return it." "You will have no difficulty in returning tion may not have been directed to so great it, my man, as I reside in the same town to a diversity of subjects, but their knowledge which you are bound. My name is Apple- is less superficial, and their judgement far more sound and reliable. But even if inton. Every body in-knows me." Little Josy, who had been looking in- tellectually inferior, which I do not admit, tently at the stranger, here exclaimed : they are certainly morally superior. Take a hundred individuals, without any picking "You looks like mine papa" "The child is right," said his mother - from my new neighbors, and a like number

"If you will excuse my saying it, sir, there from the old, and there will be found more never was father and son looked more alike among the former than the latter who deserve and might command your moral re-The gentleman was visibly agitated .- spect and approbation-men who are hon-

For a moment he made no reply; then lest, sincere and reliable, and of good moral habits and worth of character. For my own "I lost my only son when he was two part, I take more pleasure in the society of years of age. He was stolen away, and we the good than in that of the roguish and unprincipled, be the latter ever so smartcould never find him. "Now, young man, I do not say that you Then again I can be more with my family are really my stolen son. There is perhaps than when keeping store, and can more eano reasonable proof that you are. But the sily keep my children from the contaminatime and manner of your discovery would tion of evil companions. But the crowning suggest that it may be so. My heart yearns recommendation of my farming pursuits is over you as it never has yearned over any this: I feel that I am working together with living creature since my boy disappeared God in providing for the primary wants of child. I will take you all to my home, if you are willing to go with the stranger." Was not the darkest hour nearest the dawn ?

George and his family went with the old "I know a soldier in the army of the Poman to his home-his large palatial home, tomac who was picked up in the streets of no longer solitary as it had been. The mo- Philadeldhia one year ago a complete wreck ment Mrs. Appleton's eyes fell upon George a confirmed inebriate, but who was by the she clasped her hands and gazed as one in love of a sister and the charity of a Boston a trance-gazed long and earnesly, and home placed once more on his feet. He then suddenly, as one who had made up was at Ball's Bluff, and three times with her mind to shut out all doubt, she fell upon unloaded musket charged upon the enemy. his neck and cried: "My son! Oh, my He was one of the six who heroically delong lost son !"

days since, Mr Wilson, Republican Sen- have not time. There, sir," pointing to a power to arouse his dormant energies .- Circulars were immmediately printed and The little property they had saved from the circulated, and Sarah and her mother called boy, may I have that I tein of the company to which he belonged morning had risen. high pile of letters on the table, "is a pile ator from Massachusetts, in speaking on old man of the little boy. wreck would soon be exhausted he was upon many families in their immediate died in hir arms receiving the last words of of nnanswered letters to which I must reply Government affairs, said 'Madam,' said the keeper at the gate of ye: in the prime of life, his health was fully neighborhood and made known their inten-". Yeth thir," was the frank assent, and consolation from his lips. He was afterbefore the close of the session, (which was "Why the view the world has on us, is Kensington Garden, 'I cannot permit you restored, why not again go forward and tions. Their ladylike and pleasing appearthe little fellow sat quietly where he was wards conspicuous in the conflict until the then three days ) I have no time to masthat we are a nation of-he almost saidto take your dog into the garden,' endeavor to regain at least a part of what ance excited much interest, and they soon placed, while Jennie looked up into the orders were given for each one to seek his ter the subject so as to do it justice." thieves; but he would say plunderers, in 'Don': you see, my good friend,' said the they had lost ? Surely it was a duty which secured a sufficient number of pupils to en- benign face beside her. own safety. Removing some of his appar-"But Mr. Webster, a few words from you the midst of a war for the life of the counlady, putting a couple of shillings into the he owed to himself and his children. But courage them in a beginning. The school el he plunged into the inhospitable river. "You must excuse me, sir," the old man would do much to awaken public attention try.25 keeper's hand, 'that it is a cat, and not a her husband shrank from again mingling rapidly increased and before the end of the said, addressing the husband and fither, and after great exertion landed on the op-10 it." That is true enough--and the Senator dog ? first term they had more applicants than with what he deemed a cold and unfeeling posite bank, seven miles below the encamp-"but I feel very much like taking liberties. "If there be so much weight in my words might have added that the men of his party 'Madam,' said the keeper, instantly softthey could admit. Many families were Will you be so good as to relate so much as world. ment. Nearly exhausted, chilled, halt-clad as you represent, it is because I do not alare the thieves. ening the tone of his voice, 'I beg your paranxious that Mrs. Thoraby should receive you may choose of your history? I feel half-starved, he finally reached the camp .--" It will be in vain, Mary," he replied .low myself to speak of any subject until don for my mistake; I now see clearly, by the The captain of the next company to which "I shall lose the little we have. You can their daughters as boarders, this occasioned strangely anxious to heart it." Things that never stop -He that is good my mind is imbued with it." There was sympathy in every ac, and aid of the pair of specticles you have been he belonged, kindly said to him, pouring hardly imagine the unfeeling manner in an extension of their plan. A larger and will become better, and he that is bad, Demostheues was once urged to speak so good as to give me, that it is a cat, and out a glass of wine, "Let me give you this worse ; for virtue, vice and time never which the unfortunate are treated. Many more convenient house was taken, and arevery tone of the old man, and the sore on a great and sudden emergency. "I am not a dog. will help those who seem likely to rise rangements made for the accommodation of heart of the troubled young man was very you will perish without it." "I thank you stop. not prepared," said he, and obstinutely re-If you discharge a jest at a friend, or a sir," said the soldier, "but I would sooner themselves, but very low will extend a boarders, and also for the reception of a lar- thankful to unburden itself. Insed band to save those who are comparatively ger number of day scholars. His name was George Heward, he said, gun at a woodcock, be sure that it isn't out | face all the cannon of the enemy than taste | Truth is like a torch, the more it is sha-The law of labor is equally binding on Mr. Thomby viewed with wonder the that is, this was theonly namehe knew any- of season. that glass of wine." sighing. ken the more it shines. genius and mediocrity. - pidation which he himself exhibited a tew the passengers a young girl and her slave ment under the administration of Simor woman. The slave declined to go ashore Cameron has not been as scrapulously The more he is exposed to fire, the bet- with her mistress at Biloxi, and the follow- honest as it might have been, he is put down ter he can bear it; and the timid being of ing colloquy occurred : as an enemy of the government. Or if he to-day is the hero of to-morrow; and he . Would you leave me, Rose, and all your presumes to suggest, that this is not exactly the right time for inaugurating the who runs from danger on the first battle friends to go among strangers? field will run into it on the next, and court "I know, Missus, it am bery hard to lebe "first balleever given in the White House" yon; for I'se taken care of you ever he is politely informed by some idiolic The courage, as it is styled, is little more since you were born, and de Lord knows funatic that his establishment is to be torn with most men than custom; and they how I lub you and all my kindred; but you down by mob violence, and his paper sup-

"Cheer up my man," said the stranger, learn to despise what has often threatened see Missus, if 1 go back I'se a slave and you pressed by the government. Such, gentle With a cheerful countenance, and staps "you know 'tis an old saying, that the dark- without causing them harm. If wounded, know, Missus, new Massa whipped me de reader are a few of the practical illustrawhich fell sweely on the ears of his wife, est hour is just before the dawn. And if a they learn wounds are less painful to bear morning fore we come away, and if he tions of the Republican doctrins of "free than they had supposed, and then the doctrine takes a notion to sell me, he will; so. Mis- speech and a free press."

gone by, he descended to breakfast the rext be when he most needs to. And you are in of probabilities teaches them once more sus, I rader stay here and go up norf with But, thank God, a better day seems to te they are less liable to be wounded again. the Yankees, where I shall be free, Missus." dawning upon us, the reign of terror and way to the city. As he entered the office "Yes, I think I am," returned George, So the mental process goes on until the Capt Smith told her she might remain, if fanaticism is rapidly drawing to a closeanswering to the address given him by his gloomily. "And it is very hard. I had nerves become by degreess the subjects of she chose, so she remained. The scene at reason is beginning to resume her sway, will; and he only tears who has not the the parting of mistress and servant is des- sensible and intelligent Republicans now cribed by the lookers on as verey touching. look at things more calmly and that kind

She will remain on Ship Island. Captain of work is left almost entirely in the hands Smith assigned her a place in the house at- of a few big boys who reached their mata-A merchant, turned farmer, in a letter to tached to the light house, and she makes rity at ten years of age.

hersel! very useful in washing for the offi- With a Democrat at the head of the War Department, a Democrat at the head of the Army and Democratic Generals commaning

UNCLE ABE - A good story is told of pucle Abe and Col. Weller

"Mr. President," said Col Weller, "I emancipation in the back ground, and the my old friends in the city, and their atten- have called on you to say that I most heart- restoration of the Union and the preservaily endorse the conservative position you tion of the Constitution as the Pole Star for assumed." the guidance of every patriotic heart.

President, 'I am heartily glad to hear With patriotic and conservative officers

'Yes,' said Weller, 'I desire an appoint- Clellan, Halleck, Dix, Botler, Sherman, ment to aid in this work.' 'What do you want,' asked Abrahm.

I desire to be appointed Commodore in Donelson, when his men were falling thick the Navy.' said Weller.

not think you had any experience as a sail- his hat and crying out "suffer death boys, but disgrace never." With such men in the ler ; 'but, judging from the Brigadier Gen- yet. erals you have appointed in Ohio, the less God speed the day, when Northern fanat-

he attains.'

Alexander Hamilton once said to an intimate friend : "Men give me some credit coultast, makes the substance more revoltfor genius. All the genius I have lies just ing ! Cherish it then, all ve who possess it in this; when I have a subject in hand I guard it carefully-for depend upon this, purity once tarnished, the nowearving effort study it profoundly. Day and night it is before me. I explore it in all its beatings, will hardly restore it to its pristine lustre -

My mind becomes pervaded with it. Then Let it attend you through the journey of the effort which I make the people are life, crowning your days with peace and happiness. And when the treasure is no pleased to call the fruit of genus. It is the longer needful to you, it shall descend to fruit of labor and thought "

Mr. Webster once replied to a gentleman your posterity, a legacy with which millions who pressed him to speak on a subject of on millions would not bear to be compared. great importance :

Too Taus .- In the U. S. Senate, a few | "The subject interests me deeply, but I "I would like to hold you on my las, my George's dark days were over, and his fallen leader of that bloody fight The cap-

you say this,"

The President replied-Colonel, I did Jully wounded, tode along the lines, waving

'I never had, Mr. President,' said Wel- field, we say, there is hope for the country experience a man has, the higher position icsm and Southern treason shall find a com-

A Good Name.

A good name is above all price. Have you not found it so young man, you whose ever, and when we shall again "know no are those without character? A light to render darkness visible, gilding, which, by commendable pride ! Gold and talent what Wendell Phillips, in his late address a fended and brought away the body of the

the Music Hall, said ;

Wine More Deadly Than Cannon.

I have never been blessed with another his human tamily."