The Coming Campaign.

In about six weeks the Democracy of Pennsylvania - will assemble in convention to neminate candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General of the State, says the Luzarne Union. The eves of the whole country from that day forward to the election, will be turned upon us, and it will finally be decided for Pennsylvania whether her people endorse Abolitionism, squandering of the public money by tens of milmions, enormous taxes to purchase thrift less negroes, mob law, destruction of the liberty of the press, the suspension of the writ of Aubeus corpus, the incarceration of peaceable citizens without accusation or trial; in short, all that long list of heresies and isms of the late Republican party-the authors of our calamitous troubles.

The immense issues at stake do not stop here. It must be clear to an observing mind, as events are every day developing future probabilities, that the hopes of the whole country will rise or fall with the victory or defeat of our party in this State the coming fall-so far as these hopes look forward to a restoration of the Union and the re-establishment of the Government in its old form, power and integrity. A Bogus National Tax Assessor at work.

A few weeks ago a scamp giving his name as Wm. S Geary, doubtless assumed, made his appearance in Weisenburg township, Lehigh county, and forthwith commenced operations as a national tax assessor, representing that he had been regularly appointed by the government He proceeded from house to house, and assessed everything he could find the occupants possessed of, always pressing very closely as to how much money they had to loan, and as to whether they had on loan, and whether'they had any in the house-at this point taking care to explain the penalty in case drove the people to tright and made them easy dupes. Nothing occurring to raise any ling suspicion that the assessor was of the bogos stripe he actually extended his operations through the townships of Lowhill and Lynn, in precisely the same manner as he commenced in Weisenburg. During the main portion of the time occupied in his work he lodged at David Mosser's tavern in Lynn. Disappearing, however, one day as mysteribusly as he came, and without paying his dues, suspicion arose as to the nature of his business, and on the matter being investigated and discussed it was found that he had most egregriously humbugged a large portion of the inhabitants of the three townships. As he had made no extortions in any shape, "it now became a matter of discussion among his dupes as to what object the rascal had in view, which soon made itself manifest in a series of house breakings-in most instances where persons had confessed to having money in the house. In no instance, however, did the robber or robbers succeed in getting anything of particular value, always being discovered The general opinion now prevails that Geary is the head of a band of theires, and that in his as-essing operations he but paved the way for future operations. the advertisement .- N. HEAD QUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH lilton Head, South Carolina, May 9, '62. GENERAL ORDERS No 11 .- The three States Georgia, Florida and South Carolina, comprising the military department of the South, having deliberately declared them selves no longer under the protection of the Inited States of America, and having taken up arms against the said United States, it becomes a military necessity to declare them under martial law. This was accordingly done on the 25th day of April '62. Slavery and martial law in a free country are altogether incompatible; the persons in these three States, Georgia, Florida and South Carolina, heretofore held as Slaves, are therefore declared forever free.
