It was one of those unavoidable accidents.

The luneral was largely and respeciably attended. He served as a soldier manufacture. during the war with Mexico, having volun teered and entered the service with a Com pany from Pottsville. He was an industri ons citizen, and leaves a family consisting of a wife and five little children to mourn his death. His disease we have not learned, but can say that he had been unwell for a long time. Aged about 35 years.

THE Republican of this place has not pub lished Col. Wright's address to his constituents, much less, has not even made mention of it. Probably the Republican thinks the Colonel has violated "certain pledges" it was reported were given by him to the Republican party. We notice that nearly all the Editors in the District have publish ed this address, and it shows a conservative spirit on their part. All who opposed Col. Wright's election last June were called sesessionists by this Republican party, but how is it now, are they ready to endorse his address? They keep mum in these quarters-waiting probably for their mouth-piece, the Republican, to say a word. Why don't their agan lay belore its readers the
