Puor. McCov lectured to a large audi-nce in this place on Saturday evening last

The Danville papers announce the death of a young volumeer, by the name of Wm. M. Snyder, of that place, who was killed in the late engagement of Williamsburg, and who was a member of Company H., 93d Reg't, Penn'a Volunteers. This Company went from Danville, under Captain JOSEPH RAMSKY.

THE Republican progamme is to nominate the present incumbent, Thos. E. Coch RAN, for Auditor General, John Rowe, for Surveyor General, and to change the name of their party to 'People's party." Cochran is absolutely the most stupid official in the State. This would make a very desirable ticket for the Democratic party to beat.

A DEMOCRAT named Thomas Donaldson residing in Kattanning, Pa, is the owner of six houses, occupied by families of soldiers in the war. For some time past he has collected no reut from his tenants, and intends to permit them to remain until the war is over-and yet Mr. Donaldson is a Democrat who voted for Breckinnidge! We should like to have an Abolitionist pointed out capable of such patriotism. We have Republican patriots in this county who trurn soldiers' families out of their houses!

THE proceedings of the agricultural meet ing, which was held in this place on last Saturday a week, for the purpose of electing officers to serve the ensuing year, will be seen in the columns of to day's STAR -It will be seen that the old officers were all (or nearly so, if we remember them,) reelected, and with scarcely an exception, all Republicans; and chiefly from Bloom township Out of eleven officers elected at this meeting five of them are selected from Bloom township. Bloom's ahead as far as heard from! We will not pretend to say how long it will remain so

LECTURE. - The meeting was organized, on Saturday evening last, in the Court-house this place, by appointing Dr. J RAMSEY, President, and John Conner, John Smith Andrew Crouse, William Snyder and Neal McCoy, V ce Presidents.

Aller these gentlemen had taken their seats the following persons were appointed by 'he Chair a Committee to invite the speaker present : Robert F. Clark, Audrew an, and John Staley.

A few moments elapsed, and the speaker came in, accompanied by the Committee of Invitation, when he was introduced to Misses Sack, together with nearly 100 enthe audience, by the President, as PROFES | gravings of all the novelties for Summer son McCoy, who would deliver an address

The speaker commenced his eloquent address by giving the subject-"London Times | Fashion Magazine in the World, published on the Rebellion and the war against the 47: Broadway, and sold everywhere at 25 Constitution,"-and making some tew preliminary remarks. He held the audience well for over three hours, and appeared it he could have talked much longer. He is a good elocationist, and is master of his MONTOUR COUNTY .- We find the following in the Court proceedings of Montour county, as published in the Danville Democrat; Com. vs. Eliza Arwine,-Indictment for assault and battery. The Grand Jury ignor ed the bill; Eliza Arwine pay the costs.

Com w. Eliza Arwine,-Surety of the Peace,-bound over to keep the peace

Com. vs. Vincent Arwine, -Indictment for assault and battery. Thue bill,-defendant p'e id guilty.

Com. vs Charles M. Blacher,-Assaul and battery. Bill ignored by Grand Jury. and prosecutor, Vincent Arwine to pay the Com vs. Vincent Arwine, for assault and battery. Defendant plead guilty.

This explains "the fight" that the Brig? dier General should have engaged in sometime ago, according to the Republican's state ment and in which, it was reported, he came out "victorious." It would appear from the above that the General has had several "engagements," or if but one it has tion. We presume the General is determinsome way, if not with the sword with his jists, and in such a manner as would do credit to John C. Henan, the Benicia Boy.

In To-Day's STAR it will be seen that Gen. Banks' army has lately met with rather a severe reverse, having been obliged to re treat across the Potomac into Maryland -This is almost startling, but nevertheless correct. Last year this time, this reverse would have created very little censation, but happening now, when McClellan's army probably needs the assistance of Banks, in attacking the Rebels at Richmond, makes it doubly exciting.

Gen. McDowell's forces lay at Fredericksburg, en route for the engagement at Richmond, should one take place. It is rumor ed in the papers, pretty generally, that the Rebels are leaving Richmond, going fariher South This, most likely, is the case. We never believed a battle would be fought at Richmond. The Rebels failed to fight Mc-Clellan this side, which is pretty good evidence they don't intend to engage him at that place or vicinity.

The fact that Banks' troops meeting with | CASSIMERS, SATINETS, this reverse shows that the Rebels are not gathering in at Richmond, but coming North rather for the purpose of assuming the of-fensive. At least this is the way we would view the matter as it stands at present. . The "Iron Goards", from what we can learn, are with McDowell's army, at Fredericksburg. The "Harley Guards" were, a few days ago, at Front Royal, en route for McDowell, but we are inclined to the belief that they were among those of Banks' forces that were driven back. We have not yet the full particulars of this fight and retreat consequently we are unable to state the different regiments in the engagement
