not allowed to even touch the hem of the Little Giant's garment, in his Press of April 16th, 1861, says : "Fanaticism was fomentern traitors to dismember the country of their birth." Now, this same renegade, Forney, swallows the stinking pill of abolitionism, and blows his filthy breath in our taces. Forward! abelitionism and treason.

DEATH OF A YOUNG SOLDIER .- The body of last, and was conveyed to Rohrsburg, the place of his nativity, and buried by the honors of war, on the following Sabbath, the Military of this place participating in the funeral exercises. The corpse was accompanied to Rohrsburg by quite a large and respectable delegation, considering the distance, some 10 miles. The deceased was a member of Company "A", 52d Regi Col. Dodge; or, better known as the Luzerne Regiment; and was wounded in the battle at Chickahominy, on Saturday the 31st ult. and lived till the following Monday, when he died while on his way to Philadelphia to go into the Hospital. His wound was the effect of a rebel ball, having first struck one of his arms and passed on into his body, proving fatal in the time above stated He was about 20 years of age, and a fine, respectable young man. He, with many others, fell in a good cause, fighting for the maintenance of the Laws the Constitution, and the restoration of the Union to its former harmonious and peaceful condition. This is already the tenth or twelfth Columbia county soldier who has fell a victim to this cursed and unrighteous rebellion, the work of a most foul and wicked heart. He was patriotic and brave, and in every sense of the term, "died the death of a soldier" .-"Peace to his ashes."

Dn. Jone in his last abolition circular has a squib reflecting upon the lovalty of the editor of this paper; but "that we are responsible he does not believe." In the same breath he charges us of being "controled" by a certain "elique notorious for their secession proclivities," but has not the manly courage to call us a "Secessionist" or name the "clique," -- only sneakingly insinunter that we are "controled" by a lot of secessionists, and "that we are not responsible !" Thus like a mean meak or thief, he attempts to do us an injury by prejudicing the people against us, and in such a manner as to evade the law. This is entirely characteristic of the man! He lacks the courage or the ability to attack a single article in our paper, but has the impudence and malignity to attempt to abuse us personally in his negro-loving sheet. Our editorials, selections, and communications, are right, loyal, but he Jare not, had he the honesty about him to do so, acknowledge them as such .-His wicked abolition conscience would not allow bim to make any such confession. If he did, he would cease to walk in the wake of Creeley, Sumner, Lovejoy & Co., all notorious Abolitionists, and according to honest Joe Holt's opinion an Abolitionist is a Secresionist. In the same soulb we are told that the Government will not take notice of our paper. This is good news! But the editor might have added that the Government had already taken notice of too many newspapers, thereby violating and setting aside one of the most sacred clauses of the Constitution which the President was sworn to support and maintain. The day for gaging and muzzling presses is gone by-the Government and ring-leaders of mobs have had sufficient damages to meet during one administration. We have a perfect right to talk and publish our paper, a right guaranbenerable source than from those who are at the head of our Government to-day, and by involving the Government in a vast treading under foot many of the provisions number of contracts with persons not legit of the Constitution and sinking us deeper into the vortex of anarchy and ruin.
