CALER E. WRIGHT Esqua of Wilkesbarge, is advertised to be at Orangeville on the that 'somebody out to go down to the army ath of July to address the people at a na and shoot them." Shame!

THE RIGHT REV. W. B. STEVENS, Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will officiate in the Episcopal Cherch, at this place, on Friday evening next.

ALL THE Secessionists of the South and all the Abolitionists of the North should be placed in a field together and allowed a chance to fight this war out; but then we doubt very much whether they would fight. What do you say, Dr. John ?

ROBERT M. PALMER, of Pottsville, Minister to the Argentine Republic, died on his return homeward. He was buried at sea.

An Abolitionist must naturally be a very unbappy individual at this time. He is not likely to have his object accomplished in men. The subscriber will send [free of this war, and the result will most likely be charge] to all all who desire it, the Recipe "that of the rebel leaders, an application of hemp about their jugular veius.

THERE are a number of advance paying patrons to the Stan on our books, who would do well to come forward and renew their subscriptions for the coming year, if they desire the paper continued.

Our patriotic friends in Orangeville and vicinity design celebrating the Fourth of July, in an appropriate manner.

THE examination of the Orangeville Academy and Normal School will take place on the 2d and 3d of July. The annual exhibition of the sattle institute will be held on the evening of the 3d of July. The annual address will be delivered by Prof. John F. Stoddard, of New York city.

We notice that the name of Jonn C. Et-Lis, of Montour county, is announced in the Danville papers, as a candidate for Assembly in this District We believe Montour and Sullivan claim the members this time -It is time the candidates were looking forward, as the day is not very far off when the nominations will have to be made.

We understand from our neighboring papers that a son of James Eves, near Orangeville was wounded, and is among the missing, at the late fight near Richmond. His name is H. C. Eves, and a very fine young man. He was attached to the 93 Regiment, Col. McCarter.

R. S. Commings, watchmaker and jeweller, at this place, had on Tuesday night of last week, thirty-one watches stolen from his shop. This is the second time he has been robbed. The thief broke open the window shutter and thus effected an entrance.

NATIONAL HORSE FAIR .- It is not generally known that the great National Horse Fair will be held at the Keystone Park, Williams port Pa., September 2d to the 5th inclusive. Arrangements have been made to secure the finest assemblage of imported, blooded and native breed of horses that has been collected in this country. The list of premi ime will be large, ranging as high as $200 be made with different railroads. Williamsport is situated in the beautiful valley of the Susquehanne, and accessible by railroad from all parts of the United States, and is emineatly well suited for the exhibition.

Five hundred and thirty-five Rebel p oners were brought to Camp Curtin, Harris parg, a few days ago. They are to receive new clothes in place of their ragged ones, and the regular fare of our soldiers.
