WHILE on a visit to Washington ci y we met our young friend and former townsman, Mr. H. C. CHRISTMAN, who is Steward of Soldiers' Mess House, between G. & H. Sis., of that city. His position is an easy might have secured. Mr. C. is ener getic and persevering-well calculated to house daily. They are chiefly teamsters.

Is we may judge from the tone of the article in last week's Republican on the Fourth in Orangeville, we would come to the conclusion that Caleb E. Wright Esq. of Wilkesbarre, made a Union speech in Orangeville on the Fourth. The Republican denounced the author-did not like the address the best way you could fix it. That is sufficient to satisfy any loyal man that Mr Wright made a sound Union speech to see the Republican and party fit ding tault with it Mr. Wright could not have pleased the Abo litionists without preaching treason, which he chose not to do, hence the castigation through the Abolition mouth-piece of Columbia county.
