The Negro Military Bill. The Bill from the Senate authorizing the President to call out the militia for a period not exceeding nine months, and the employment of negroes in the Military service passed the House on Wednesday. The bill arthorizes the President to make all the necessary regulations for the enrollment of the militia of the States, which enrollment shall include all able-bodied men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, including persons of African descent. The bill forther provides that all slaves, after its passuge, who come within the lines of the army, are free forever. The second section authorizes the President to call one hundred thousand volunteers as infaniry for a term not exceeding nine months, each volunteer to receive a month's pay in advance and twenty-five dollars bounty u on the mustering of his company or regiment into service. The third section authorizes the President to accept such a number of men as may be required for filling up the regiments of infantry now in the service for twelve months unless sooner discharged, each volunteer to receive fifty dollars bounty, one half of which is to be paid at the expiration of the erm of enlistment.
