Democratic Organization.

The Democratic masses of the country are the true friends of the Union, the guartians of the Constitution, and the custodians of the national bonor. Their virtue, in- or calamity too severe, so we preserve our | the Army. telligence, patriotism and devotion, have been the strength and bulwark of the Government in every emergency and every hour of trial, and will so continue while libenty lasts and free institutions are valued .-In the present great difficulties of the nation instigated by treason and aggravated by bigory and fanaticism, they have a single purpose. It is theirs to guard the Constitution as the ark of our covenant, and to strike down every nuboly hand that would -assail it. It is theirs to aid the efforts of the Governmont and to give strength to the President in his patriotic endeavors to administer the affairs of the nation for the present a committee of three be appointed to wait and fature good of the whole people. It was an excellent maxim in the good April 1861, reported as follows : ald days of Jackson - "O d men for conneil. Amount subscribed by the citizens of Biomsburg young men for war ;" and while our young men are with so much gallantry and intrepidi y sustaining the cause of the country in the field their elders at home should not he unmindful that they too have a doty. It is for them to keep alive a reverence for the Constitution ; to uphold the Govern ment by a strong and overwhelming public opition ; to keep constantly in view the old landmarks. In a war for the preservation of liberty, and where treasonable purposes in Congress are thwarting the aims of the Government, tone to the ballot is as necessary as aim to the bullet, and this can only be secured by organization and a care ful effort to enlighten the people as to the staties they owe to the country, the real mature of the great issues at stake, and the absolute necessity of a higher tone and porer purpose in our representatives at Washington. This is a Democratic Goverminent. It is the growth of American Democracy. It must not be divided. It that this report was made out and presented shall not be de-troyed. But, that it may not, every Democrat, in every county and in every township, must awake to his responsibilities and do his duty as he finds it. We must retrieve the disasters of the part. The President must be sostained by C. Hower, according to Mr. Grotz's statea larger infusion of patriotism in Congress ; ment, was too busy]-ED STAR. and this cannot be secured without organi zed and vigilant effort The old Democratic fires must everywhere be relighted. WAR MEETING.

An adjourned War Meeting was held at insinuations of disloyalty against either of the Court House, in Bloomsburg, on Thursday Evening, July 31st.

Dr. John Ramsay presided, assisted by David Lowenburg, Peter Billmeyer, Robert Hagenbuch, Stephen Baldy, Isaac S Monroe, as Vice Presidents. The proceedings of the last meeting were ed for his country's defenders. If ever he read and approved, with an additional had exhorted sinners to flee from the wrath amendment offered by Levi L Tate, "That to come, he would now exhort his country the Commissioners of this county be requested to increase the bounty offered to defend the nation's honor. His master' recruits to Fifty Doltars."

The Committee appointed to wait apon the Commissioners of the county to solicit bounty for the volunteers now being recruited in this county to fill its quota, reported one hand and his country's cause in his as follows:

BLOOMSBURG. July 30, 1862. To Messrs. William McKelvy, Levi L. Tate arms, to rally at once in its defence. and Wm. H Jacoby, committee.

Whereys-At a meeting held in Bloomsburg, July 26th, 1862, it was among other hings "Resolved- That we hereby reaffirm our at achment to the Union and the Con stitution, pledging ourselves to the National Administration and to each other, to maintain both in their original integrity, to the extent of all the means we may posse-s, counting no sacrifice too great, no soffering Union undissevered and our Government

And whereas the above resolution contains an endorsement of a principle which meets the approbation of the truly loyal people of the county of Columbia, and for which they have always contended, to wit: the maintenance of the Union and the Constitution "in their original integrity."

And the said meeting having also Resol A MADISON, M. VAN BUSKIRK Sees. ved-That the Commissioners of this county be requested to offer a bounty of twenty-stitution of our fathers, and that we repudiate as false and slanderous any charges o the two great political parties in this county, believing also, that the tendency of such charges is to distract our own counsels and to give aid and comfort to the rebels. The amendment carried.

A call now being made for volunteers the Rev. David C. John took the stand and call-

men to flee at once to the battle field and yineyard had been invaded, and as a servant he felt called upon to raise his voice and stretch out his arm in defence of civil and religious liberty. Taking the flag in heart, he poured forth the most sublime exhortation to all those capable of bearing

It was Resolved that, on motion, a Committee of three, I. S. Monroe, Dr. John Ramsay and I. W. McKelvy, proceed to Harrisburg and ascertain on what condition a full company from Columbia county will be received and the expense of the Committee be paid out of the war fund.

The meeting closed at a late hour with many cheers for the Union, the Flag and

A CARD.

The Columbia County Republican has seen proper to drag me before the public in a Impo manner which seems to require some notice. In an editorial article in that sheet of last week, it is said in substance that I was rebuked as a dislovalist at the war meeting held in the Court House, on the evening of Saturday, the 26th ult. This, as all must know who were present, is a slanderous misconstruction of the proceedings. had, upon motion, been unanimously elected Secretary of the meeting, when, in

The gentleman who had nomi- parts of the United States, have been eminated me as Secretary, probably thinking such special endorsement uncalled for and unnecessary, withdrew the nomination, and the occasion was embraced to nominate in my stead a citizen who has so far excelled me in patriotism as to resolve upon leaving his home and his business and go and fight the battles of his country. This is the extent to which the "rebuke" wen'. But it may be that the article in the Repubfican was only one of the writer's awkward managers design to make this a horse mart, attempts at wit. I would be glad to be worthy of its central position, and its extraconvinced that it was, for it is with re- ordinary facilities. incrance that I will believe that any parti zan editor, no matter how bitter, would, in view of my pecuniary and domestic situation, in life, maliciously and so cruelly attempt to damage me in my business and social relations with the people of Columbia county. No man can porduce a shadow of evidence that I am disloyal. It is true that I have at various times expressed my abhorrence of the abolition doctrines of such men as Greeley, Sumner, Lovejoy and Wendell unteered in that place exhorted the young Philips; my pity for the ignorance of those who thought that the traitors of the South were few in numbers, insignificant in prowess, and not at all in earnest; and my contempt for that class of patriots who, with Jove-like mien, grasp the American Flag in one hand, and, with theatrical air, point with the other to the battle field, exclaiming

meanwhile, in thender tones, GO! disregarding the still, small voice, which, if they were true patriots, was whispering to them. come -it is true I have done this, and I have done it because I look upon the treason of northeran abolitionists and of southbounties, does not meet with the success eran Secessionists with abhorrence, and the cheap patriotism of all demagogues with disgust.

It is to be hoped the community will es most lamentably. Nearly a month has pardon a humble individual for thus compassed since the President's last call for ing before them; the publicity he has is not of his own seeking
