

WM. H. JACOBY, EDITOR. BLOOMSBURG, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1862. State, District and County Ticket.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, ASAAC SLENER, OF UNION COUNTY. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, JAMES P. BARR, OF ALLEGANY COUNTY.

FOR PRESIDENT JUDGE, HON. WILLIAM ELWELL, of Towanda. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, E. H. LITTLE, of Bloomsburg.

FOR COMMISSIONER, ROHR McHENRY, of Benton. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR, ISAAC A. DEWITT, of Greenwood.

FOR LEGISLATION, A. J. EVANS, of Bloomsburg. Republican Pow-wow. On Monday last the no-party party held what was anciently known as a "Convention."

On Monday of Dr. John good old Isaac S. Monroe was chosen chairman, for having been their chairman last year, and did it up so well, the Dr. no doubt thought Isaac the most suitable person to do up the honors of that exalted position on this occasion.

Indiana and Negro Soldiers. The Philadelphia Inquirer having stated a deputation of Western men had offered the President two colored regiments from Indiana, W. H. Terrell, Military Secretary of the Governor of that State, has addressed a note to the editor, denying the statement, and saying that it is understood that the two regiments were proposed to be raised in New York.

From certain indications, which have gone to the world within a short time past, we are led to ask: What is Treason? Horace Greeley of the New York Tribune, publishes the following:

"Whenever it shall be clear that the great body of the Southern people have become conclusively alienated from the Union and anxious to escape from it, we will do our best to forward their views."

Is this Treason? Greeley utters it, and is permitted to roam at large and defame the Government and the Democratic party.

A meeting of the Abolitionists was held at Boston, where several speakers boldly avowed their hostility to the Union, and Parker Pillsbury spoke as follows:

"Half a million of the sons of the North have gone to that worse than Ganges crocodile that inhabits the rivers of the South, and now 300,000 more are demanded."

Why did not a voice go up from the United North that not another soldier should go until the war was turned against slavery? (Great applause.) Abraham Lincoln, formerly called the slave hound of Illinois, has increased and enlarged his former tendency."

Is this Treason? Pillsbury utters it, and is unmolested and is at liberty to preach his Disunion doctrine wherever he can get an audience to listen to them.

Wendell Phillips, who was taken upon the floor of the U.S. Senate in disregard of the rules of that chamber, and is honored and lauded upon by Vice President Hannibal, has proclaimed himself the open enemy of this Union for years, and says that not one man should be permitted to leave the States until President Lincoln has declared a principle and states what we are fighting for.

Is this Treason? Senator Chandler vilifies and abuses McClellan and the President in such a way as to give aid and comfort to the Rebels, and they print his speech in their Journals with approval.

What is Treason? The Doylestown Democrat, published by Col. W. W. H. Davis, who is now at home suffering from a severe wound received in one of the battles before Richmond, asks the following questions, and then goes on to say:

COMMUNICATED. Mr. Editor:—We have several Abolitionists in our community, one of whom not long since, near the town of Rohrsburg, made not only a disunion but an inconsistent and contradictory speech.

THE WAR NEWS. Official Despatch from General Pope. Movements of the Past few Days. Plans and Counter-Plans. JACKSON'S IRRATIONAL ATTEMPT TO TURN OUR RIGHT.

Severe Fight Near Centerville, Between McDowell and Sigel, & Jackson. THE ENEMY DRIVEN BACK AT ALL POINTS. HEINTZLEMAN MOVING ON THE ENEMY. 1000 Prisoners Captured.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The following despatch from Gen. Pope has been received: Manassas Junction, Aug. 28—10 P. M. To Maj. Gen. H. W. Halleck Gen-in-Chief: As soon as I discovered that a large force of the enemy was turning our right toward Manassas, and that the division I had ordered to take post there, two days before had not yet arrived from Alexandria, I immediately broke up my camp at Warren Junction and Warrenton, and marched rapidly back in three columns.

I directed McDowell with his own and Sigel's corps, and Reno's Division to March upon Gainesville, by the Warrenton and Alexandria pike; Reno and one division of Heintzleman to March on Greenwiche, and with Porter's corps and Hooker's division I marched back to Manassas Junction. McDowell was ordered to interpose between the forces of the enemy, which had passed down Manassas through Gainesville and his main body, which was moving down from White Plains through Thoroughfare Gap. This was completely accomplished.

The division of Hooker, marching towards Manassas, came upon the enemy near Kettle Run, on the afternoon of the 27th, and after a sharp action routed them completely, killing 300, and capturing their camps and baggage and many stands of arms. This morning the command pushed rapidly to Manassas Junction, which Jackson had evacuated three hours in advance. He retreated by way of Centerville, and took the turnpike towards Warrenton.

He was met when six miles west of Centerville by McDowell and Sigel. Late this afternoon a severe fight took place, which was terminated by the darkness. The enemy was driven back at all points and thus the affair rests. Heintzleman's corps will move on him at day-break from Centerville, and I do not see how he is to escape without heavy loss. We have captured a thousand prisoners, many arms, and one piece of artillery. JOHN POPE, Major-General.

GEN. TAYLOR WOUNDED THE RECENT FIGHT. Stuarts Dash on Vienna. Heintzleman reported to be in Jacksons rear. Alexandria, Aug. 28.—A gentleman who arrived here to-night reports that Gen. Taylor in the engagement yesterday, was so severely wounded that he may have to submit to an amputation of the right leg.

This morning, about 8 o'clock, Stuart's rebel cavalry made a dash through Fairfax Court House, on their way to Vienna, which is about thirteen miles from Washington.—The Union people of that section have all fled to the latter city. A fight was going on to-day, it is reported, at Manassas. Heintzleman, from Pope's advance, had it was rumored, got in Jackson's rear. He is supposed to have a force of 20,000. The firing was distinctly heard here (Alexandria) all day.

SECOND BATTLE OF BULL RUN. Terrific Conflict on the old Field. BATTLE LASTED FROM DAWN TO DARK. OUR LOSS 8,000 KILLED & WOUNDED. The rebels suffer twice as severely.—The enemy retreating toward the Mountains.—Gen. Pope in hot pursuit.—We have made very large captures.—Official report of the Battle.—The enemy reported re-enclosed.—Gen. Pope reported falling back.—No fighting of consequence on Sunday.—Our troops Well Concentrated and in good spirits.

HEADQUARTERS, Field of Battle, Grovetown, near Gainesville, Aug. 30 To Maj. Gen. Halleck, Gen-in-Chief, Washington, D. C. We fought a terrific battle here yesterday with the combined forces of the enemy which lasted with continuous fury from day light until after dark, by which time the enemy was driven from the field, which we now occupy.

THE TOWNSHIP OFFICERS TO ENROLL COLUMBIA COUNTY. The following are the persons appointed by Hon. Geo. H. WILLIAMS, to enroll the militia in the several townships of this county: Bloom—Gordon R. Goff. Berwick—S. E. Walton. Beaver—Richard Stiles. Centerville—Charles Dieterich. Conowington—Callaghan. Callaghan—Madison W. Monroe. Franklin—Franklin. Greenwiche—George M. Howell. Greenwood—Thomas E. Eves. Heintzleman—Wm. M. Hartman. Jackson—Loi Parker. Locust—Samuel Mearns. Madison—Jackson Thomas. Montour—Montour. Mount—Jeremiah S. Shuman. Mount Pleasant—John H. Vanderslice. Naylor—William Yohe. Orange—J. Sanderson Woods. Pine—Daniel Forwald. Roaringcreek—Charles Dyet. Scott—William Peacock. Sugarloaf—Jacob H. Fritz.

The telegraph here has been telling us some pretty tough stories about the late battles and some of our most prominent Generals. One dispatch says our loss in the battle with Jackson's forces at Manassas and Bull Run is 30,000, and that of the rebels heavier. Another tells us that General McDowell is favoring the enemy; another that McClellan is censured for not assisting Pope in a more substantial manner than he did. Still another, that McClellan has been arrested for treason! But in the course of a few hours the last dispatch in relation to McClellan was contradicted, and a dispatch received at the same time saying that the Tribune office had been closed by order of the war Department. These are tough dispatches to believe, although in the main they may be correct. That there has been a hard fought battle is no mistake, and that our loss is heavy is probably true; but it is not likely to be 30,000, in killed and wounded. The fight has been going on for two or three days, only being interrupted by the darkness of night. The Rebels are making a desperate shove for Washington. They can't take our Capital, nor we have not yet taken theirs, but we are going to.

SOLDIERS, SEE TO YOUR HEALTH, do not trust to the Army supplies; Cholera Fever and Bowel complaint will follow your slightest indiscretion. HOLLAND'S PILLS AND OINTMENT should be in every man's knapsack. The British and the French troops use no other medicines. ONLY 25 cents per Box or Pot. 216
