

STAR OF THE NORTH
BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 1st, 1862.

Persons sending as common carriers for publication must sign their names, to ensure in insertion of their communications.

The editor wishes a load or two of dry wood on subscription to the STAR. We must have the article if we are compelled to print or press it.

Capt. Clark's Company returned to this place on Tuesday evening last. Captain Kline arrived on Sunday last with his boys, all in good spirits after a campaign of some 12 days.

Rev. G. M. Spratts, of Lewisburg, will preach on Sabbath evening next, in the Baptist Church at this place. He is an able and interesting teacher. We hope he will have a large audience.

John W. Comely, Esq., having declined the nomination for President Judge in Schuylkill county, the Governor appointed Edward O. Parry, of Foutsville, to fill the vacancy until after the next election.

George S. Coleman, Adjutant of the 6th Regt., P. R. V. C., was severely wounded at the late battle near Sharpsburg. He has been taken to Philadelphia. His father went on Tuesday last to bring him home to Orangeville, this county.

In the STAR will be found the muster roll of several companies of militia, from this county, which were among those that went to defend the State from invasion. Captain Kline and Capt. Potts have not yet handed in their muster rolls.

The Iron Guards.—The following is a list of the wounded in the battle of Middle-town Heights, out of the "Iron Guards" of this place: Calvin Achenbach, Joseph Haese, Samuel Gottshall, John Betz, George M. Demore, since died, Charles Forward, Mark B. Hughes and U. R. Burket. In the battle of Sharpsburg: Ben. F. Sharpless, William Snyder, Harry Harman, Henry Linn, Geo. S. Coleman and B. R. Hayhurst, were wounded. The loss of the Regt. to which this company belongs was 17 killed and 93 wounded. Capt. Ent passed through this series of battles unscathed.

The Premium List for the Seventh Annual Fair of the Columbia county Agricultural Society, is published in the STAR of this week. The premiums are liberal considering the state of the country. The proceeds of this exhibition, over and above the expenses, will be given to the sick and wounded soldiers to ameliorate their condition. We know to reason why the coming Fair should not be a perfect success. The crops have been excellent, stock is gradually improving in this county and the people are just becoming fairly awakened to the good resulting from these County Fairs. We anticipate a large attendance.

A meeting was held in the Court House on Saturday evening last for the purpose of organizing a permanent Military Company in this place. After the object was stated quite a number of our best citizens enrolled themselves as members of the company in contemplation. The meeting appointed some three persons, recruiting officers for the company and adjourned to meet again on the following Monday evening. Monday evening a meeting was held according to adjournment, and the recruiting officers reported the names of a sufficient number to entitle the company to an organization. Officers were elected and a flag sent for. The officers are Captain, R. F. Clark, First Lieut. D. Lowenberg, Second Lieut. W. Wirt.

By a squib in the last Columbia Democrat one would infer that the STAR was to be discontinued for good and all or, "at least while the Editor was off to the war." Why could not the Democrat have said, the STAR will be discontinued "while the editor is off to the war," and stopped at that; without hoping that the patrons of the STAR would turn to the Democrat, "as the best beyond controversy." It knew that our campaign would not be a long one, and the notice under the circumstances was not a fair one, but calculated to injure us, and we shall so consider it. We would have the Democrat understand that when the STAR makes anything like a permanent discontinuance we will engage and pay the Democrat for so announcing; after which it will be at perfect liberty to solicit all the STAR's patrons. It was rather cool to invite our subscribers to the Democrat after the non-appearance of the STAR for one week while its editor was away down in Maryland.

The deliberations of the Democratic Congressional Conference meeting held at this place on Tuesday last will be found published in full in this STAR. It will be seen that no nomination was made, but recommended the voters of the District to support Henry W. Tracy of Bradford, an Independent candidate against that notorious corrupt Demagogue, Reverend George Landon, whose record in the Senate shows that he voted for and supported every thing that was bad, and never did a judicious, wise, or noble act in all his public life. He supported the repeal of the tonnage tax; assisted in framing this Congressional District for his own purposes, and aided in carrying through all bills of a partisan character, no matter how corrupt, only that they were tainted with Abolitionism and high swindle. He is not the person to represent us in the next Congress by any means. We do not wish to send an Abolitionist to Congress from this district. Our people want to be truly represented; and that by an honest man, one who would command respect and be an honor to the District. Such men as Reverend George Landon should not be allowed to disgrace the Hall of Congress; and we trust they will not.
